List of Tables and figures

Table 2.1. Primary commodity price in 1990
Table 2.2. Linking theory and context according to the major dimensions of globalisation
Table 2.3. Mapping the local and global according to historical phases in Wayanad
Table 3.1. Settler and Native Communities (Based on their population) In the village
Table 3.2. Paniyanand Kattunayikkan Settlements in the village
Table 3.3. Agrarian based livelihoods (Percentage distribution of workers according to community and main occupation)
Table 3.4. Non-agrarian based livelihoods (percentage of community members having employment with fixed income)
Table 3.5. Forest based Livelihoods
Table 3.6. Social Distances in the pre-colonial village according to Commensality
Table 3.7. Pattern of land occupation in different decades
Table 3.8. Distribution of land across the communities
Table 3.9. Public organisation within the study village
Table 3.10. Public organisations Within the village Panchayat
Table 4.1. Percentage of persons aged above 15 years participating in social organisation according to social categories (in %)
Table 4.2. New SHGs started under Panchayath over the years
Table 4.3. Percentage participation of women population in the whole SHGs to total women population aged above 15 years
Table 4.4. Participation of women in the Kudumbasree ayalkoottam according to communities
Table 4.5. Profile of the Kudumbasree ayalkoottam members in the village
Table 4.6. Distribution of promoters among different communities in 2006-07
Table 4.7. Number of projects under tribal sub plan for 10 years from 1998
Table 4.8. Tribal sub plan 2007-08
Table 4.9. Number of Paniyann members in general SHGs
Table 5.1. Participation of workers according to communities and sex
Table 5.1 Participation of workers according to communities and sex

Figures
Fig 2.1. Interrelating global, national or sub-national and local contexts
Figs 2.2 & 2.3. Peaks and falls in the prices of Coffee and Pepper in the 1990s
Fig 2.4. Variation in population in Wayanad taluk during 1901-1951
Fig. 5.1: Mobility Options for a Paniya Labourer