Table of Contents

| Title Page                                      | i  |
| Certificate                                     | ii |
| Declaration                                     | iii|
| Abstract                                        | iv |
| Preface                                         | vi |
| Table of Contents                               | ix |
| List of Tables and List of Figures              | xi |

I. Introduction

II. The Global and the Local: Theory and Context

Globalisation: Differential Notions --Social dimension of globalisation- Economic Globalisation-Cultural Globalisation- Political Globalisation and Decentralisation

III. Communities through Development Space and Livelihood Trajectories

Introduction--Physical Profile of the Village-- Administrative Units--Population-Profile of the Communities--Native Communities— Adivasis in the village--Mullu-Kuruman--Kattunayikkan--Paniyan—ChettyCommunities--Settler
Communities-- Spatial Distribution of Communities--Natives and settlers--Identity and Livelihood Practices-- Native Communities in a Traditional Social Subsistence Space and Livelihood Practices-- Chetty-Paniya Bond/age: Organisation of Labour and Society through Reciprocity -Vertical Reciprocity—Local Perceptions--Circumstantial Egalitarianism in an Ecological Recess

IV. De-Centered State and Participatory Lives

Reciprocil Networks and the Politics of Patronage: Understanding Peoples’ Differential Use of Decentralisation--Generational Reversal of Power-Networks of Reciprocity and the Politics of Patronage--Native Communities, the Social Base of Networks and Decentralisation --Ayalkoottam” or Self Help Group Movement; Re- invention of Collective Action- Paniyans in the Domain of Decentralization and Participatory Development—Oorukkoottam-Construction/Corruption Boom --Paniyan and SHG movement-- NGOs and Paniyans—Conclusion.

V. Re-Inventing Paniyas: Livelihood Practices at the Local and the Global -

Introduction-- In a Quest for Land--Social Movement for Land-- Share Cropping Migration: Seasonal and Self-reliant --Seasonal Kodagu Migration: New Paternalism and Bondage—Self-made Migration --Pattern of Paniya Mobility and Changes in Livelihoods--Reinventing the Labour: NREG and Paniyan.—Conclusion.
VI. Conclusion

Bibliography