ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my gratitude to all those who helped me complete the present research. I wish to express my deep appreciation and sincere thanks to Dr. Ramadhar Singh for making the present dissertation possible. I really am grateful to him for his inspiring guidance, proper supervision, and invaluable cooperation at each stage of my research.

I am indebted to the principals and teachers of different Central Schools of the New Delhi region for providing me with their invaluable time and cooperation and all the physical facilities in data collecting. These schools are Kendriya Vidyalaya, Indian Institute of Technology, New Delhi; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Cantt. 1; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Cantt. 2; Kendriya Vidyalaya, I.N.A. Colony; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Jharauda Kalan; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Janakpuri; Vishesh Kendriya Vidyalaya, Janakpuri; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Gole Market; Kendriya Vidyalaya, R.K. Puram, Sector IV; Kendriya Vidyalaya, R.K. Puram, Sector VIII; Kendriya Vidyalaya, Andrewsaganj; and Kendriya Vidyalaya, Masjid Moth.

For some time I was associated with the research on "Attribution of Performance by Children, Parents, School Teachers, and Managers" sponsored by the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi to Professor Ramadhar Singh. I express my appreciation to the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi and to the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, for their support in my research.

My teachers, Professor S.M. Mohsin, Professor Jai B.P. Sinha, Dr. A.K. Srivastava, and Dr. Maya Sinha deserve special thanks for their suggestions, encouragement, and interest in my work. I am also thankful to Professor Janak Pandey for his advice and encouragement. I am also grateful to Dr. S. Bhargava and Mrs. Madhu Singh of Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad for their cheerful help they rendered to me at the various stages of my research.

I am grateful to my parents, in-laws, uncle, brother and all other members of my family for their encouragement and support during the period of research. I am deeply indebted to my parents for their deep interest in my higher education even after the marriage. Special thanks are due to my husband, Dr. Rakesh K. Srivastava for his encouragement and cooperation in completion of this work. Without his interest and support, this work could not have been possible.
Sincere thanks are also due to Mr. R. Swaminathan and Miss R. Usha for devoting their invaluable time and patience to the typing of the entire manuscript. This is also a time to remember and thank all my teachers and friends whose efforts and good wishes helped me achieve my academic goals.
