INSTRUCTIONS

In our society we often meet many people. We sometimes like or dislike them, we are attracted, or sometimes we do not like to associate or be away from them. Such attraction or repulsion depends on a number of factors.

Below are given a number of statements showing attraction-repulsion. Read each statement one by one. You are requested to mark how far you agree or disagree with each statement on a five point scale as shown below.

1. If you Strongly Agree with the statement, tick mark under SA against the number of the statement.
2. If you generally Agree with the statement or if it is generally applicable to you, mark under A against the number of the statement.
3. If you are Uncertain [indifferent], tick mark under U against the number of the statement.
4. If you generally Disagree with the statement, tick mark under D against the number of the statement.
5. If you Strongly Disagree with the statement, tick mark under SD against the number of the statement.

Example:

1. A person who holds views similar to mine views attracts me.
