ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The thesis would not have been possible without the help and support of a number of people. My research guide Dr (Mrs). Anjana P. Desai has been a constant source of inspiration and guidance. It was her belief in my capabilities that first initiated me into research. Her zeal as well as constant supervision has led me to complete this thesis successfully. Her continued moral support other than academic has encouraged me to pursue my research.

I also acknowledge Dr. Makran Mehta, former Head, Department of History, University School of Social Sciences, Gujarat University without whom I could not have constructed the caste list as per social status. I also sincerely thank all the post-men at the General Post Office, Ahmedabad who have patiently given me all the details, regarding the social identity of the pol residents living in the walled city. I would duly acknowledge the valuable contribution of Mr. Puroshottam Das, Election Department, Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation for providing me with the data on results of municipal elections held within the walled city. I also appreciate the help extended by Mr. Vishnubhai Thakker for computer programming with regards to Nearest Neighbour Analysis. I also thank Mr. Ghanibhai Memon and Mr. Suresh Parmer for helping me in the field to collect data. I express gratitude to Mr. S. Kalgaonkar for giving me access to some very good literature.

The constructive criticisms and suggestions of my friends, particularly Dr. Surashree Saha and Dr. Aparna Murthy have been instrumental in improving my research. I would also like to thank my other friends, Ms. Kinvanti Patel, Mrs. Vanita Patel, Ms. Alpa Mehta, Ms. Priti Garatra and Ms. Niti Khandwala for their support and encouragement. I would also like to thank Mrs. Harsha Shukla and Mrs. Avantika Prajapati in the department for their timely help and cooperation.

Last but not the least without the encouragement of my parents and family I would not have ventured into the current study. They have truly been my pillars of strength providing me with constant mental support. Their enthusiasm and belief in my abilities have carried me through many tough circumstances.
