ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indebted to the Government of Madhya Pradesh for awarding me a scholarship for two years for prosecuting my researches. It proved to be of positive help in enabling me free from financial worries.

This study owes much to many persons. I am indebted to Professor B.N. Sharma, Head of the Department of History of this university for his kindly interest in the progress of my work. I am grateful to all the other teachers in the Department of History. They gave me freely of their time whenever I was up against any problem. I am thankful to Shri R.R. Pateriya for all the support that he gave me when I needed it most. But more than anyone else I express my gratefulness to my teacher and supervisor Dr. D.B. Trivedi, M.A., Ph.D. (London) for the encouragement and help he gave me in preparation of this thesis. I owe a profound debt of gratitude to him.

My thanks are due to Shri N.S. Baghel a fellow researcher in the Department of History who has always been helpful. I had the advantage of close association and constant consultations and discussions with my numerous friends and fellow scholars in the Department of History throughout the period the work on this thesis was in progress. Though they are too numerous to name... individually but they are aware of my findings of gratefulness to them.

The authorities of the National Archives of India, New Delhi, Madhya Pradesh State Archives, Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh State Archives, Nagpur and Jawaharlal Nehru Library, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar were exceedingly helpful. I gratefully acknowledge the facilities I received from them.

I have to thank Shri R.S. Thakur for typing this thesis.

My thanks are due to my elder brothers Shri N.P. Awasthi and Shri S.P. Awasthi who were always a source of encouragement and help, both moral and financial, to me in carrying this work to conclusion. I am also grateful to my younger brother Shri Rajesh Prasad Awasthi who helped In preparing this thesis and analysing the data. To my mother Smt. Copidevi Awasthi I am deeply indebted for the constant inspiration she gave me.

D.P.A.