ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indebted by the patience and perseverance, of many people whom I would like to thank from the bottom of my heart. I am trifle lucky to have such good people around me.

I heartily thank Prof. S R Dave, Head, Department of Microbiology, School of Sciences, Ahmedabad under whose guidance I learnt the true meaning of a guru. His patience and perseverance is impeccable His patient yet critical approach of teaching has always sown new seedy of thinking in me. He is devoted to teaching and research and always there to help when needed. I convey my heart felt thanks to his family, especially Mrs. Smita Dave whose concern is always there for Dr Dave's students.

I sincerely thank all other faculty and staff members of Microbiology department who extended their support.

I sincerely thank my institution Gujarat Vidyapith for extending all the support and infrastructure for my research work. I am thankful to my institute and UGC for granting me the minor research project and specially the funds provided for the biphasic reactor.

I am sincerely thankful to Mr. Shah of Annapurna Cheese Factory and who helped me providing help and the raw material. Shri Vinubhai Patel who was always there with all kind of support in this matter. The staff working there was very cooperative in all respects.

I am greatful to Prof. Madamwar Datta of S P University for his valuable support and Dr Natrajan for all his help. I thank heartily the research students of Bioscience Department, Hardik, Haresh and Preeti for all the flaw less help they extended to me.

The staff members of Biogas Research Center, USIC and others have been with me all the time extending help in all possible ways. Especially N S Bhatt have been of great help. Jutubhai, Limbabhai, Nayan, Kadha, Rakesh, Jaidev, Vinodbhai, B M Mistry, have been around me extending a helping hand. I would extend special thanks to Mahesh, for his help in regularly maintaining all the reactors.

I would pay all my sincere thanks to Puspha aunti and Mayuri Farmer who were always with me keeping me buoyant. It is every thing they did to help me in all the situations to keep my moral high and kept constantly encouraging and motivating me. I specially thank Mayuri for helping me preparing this manuscript.

Dr Devayani Tipre and Nasreen always extended timely help and whenever needed. I am very greatful to both for extensive help during the preparation of this thesis.
My parents and my wife have been a constant source of inspiration and support. A dream of a parent is worth ages. They have always been my support and strength. I can dedicate this work to my Mother and Father.

Lastly, I sincerely express my gratitude to all my well wishers, Friends, colleagues of Mahadev Desai Gram Sevamahavidyalay, my students, especially Viral, Nishant for extending me all the help who have helped me to reach my goal. May God Bless Us All.
