ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my profound feelings of gratitude to Dr. S.S. Sanghvi, for the direction, supervision and encouragement that he gave me from the very inception of idea of writing the present thesis to the completion stage. But for his valuable guidance, this study would not have been successfully completed.

I am also grateful to my father, mother and sisters who always directed me to lead a purposeful life. They constantly encouraged in various manners during the entire period of this study.

I have also had the benefit of having discussions on various aspects of the present study in the course of 'interviewing' and otherwise also with Dr. Saraf, Legal Consultant, Consumer Education and Research Centre, Judges of the High Court of Gujarat, Principal, M.M. Desai, Navgujarat Law College, Vice chancellers and Registrars of various Universities in Gujarat etc. I am grateful to them for their valuable suggestions and ideas.

I am also thankful to the staff of Libraries of Law Faculty, M.N. Law College, I.M. Nanavati Law College, Sir L.A. Shah Law College, Library of the Indian Law Institute and Supreme Court of India, New Delhi.

LILU BHAYA