Abstract

The present study "A Study on Adolescents Attitude Towards their Parents and Teacher in Relation to Certain Variable" consisting of multistage sampling of 1002 students of standard XI and standard XII of Ahmedabad District is conducted by the survey method with the help of “Likert Attitude Scale” which is self made tool English version.

It was used for English medium students of standard XI and XII belongs to east and west zone of Ahmedabad District. The questionnaire is in the form of the statements. The interpretation of data was done with the help of mean, standard deviation and t-Test.

The main findings of the study are there is no significance difference in the adolescence attitude on the standard XI and XII, boys and girls, east and west zones, and nuclear and joined family of Ahmedabad District. Some of the findings of study are as follows:

1. Students of the Standard XI are superior to the students of Standard XII of Ahmedabad District as far as their adolescence attitude is concerned.
2. Students of the Boys are superior to the Girls of the higher secondary schools of Ahmedabad District as far as their adolescence attitude is concerned.
3. Students of the East Zone are superior to the West Zone of the higher secondary schools of Ahmedabad District as far as their adolescence attitude is concerned.
4. Students of the Joined Family are superior then the Nuclear Family of the higher secondary schools of Ahmedabad District as far as their adolescence attitude is concerned.

Researcher