INTRODUCTION

The Co-operative organizations are fitting, specially for the public who accomplish not include plenty capital for a complete fulfillment of their requirements. Cooperative is regarded as one of the most powerful instrument for reconstructing and remodeling the economic arrangement of the immature countries. The globe co-operative pressure group is essentially an economic movement with a great moral background. Maximization of earnings and allotment of elevated tempo of extra is not the intent of supportive society but the plan is earning rational revenue and imparting the community remuneration to its members. The original town accommodating Credit Society was registered in 1904 at Kanjeevaram in Madras. The first factory workers' credit co-operative society was established at Bhadoch. Another factory workers' obliging credit society was reputable in the year 1912. The number of Employees’ Credit Cooperative Societies in India in 1946 was 639. Later on, the number of the SECCS has rapidly grown.
Co-operative Institutions are grassroots organizations which are fashioned by the members willingly, owned with them near purchasing shares and on recompense of arranged entrance fee and by approving to stand via the Byelaws, regulations and policies of the Co-operative, with scuttle by them democratically and in accord with the universally-accepted ideology of Co-operation and during the supervision organs selected or in employment, to gratify their public and monetary requirements during vigorous sharing and shared facilitate. support is to the theme of State as per the foundation of Asian nation. Cooperatives in Asian nation came into organism as a results of the direction intriguing cognizance of the farming circumstances that prevailed through the final word element of the nineteenth century and so the group action of institutional provision for social science to agriculturists, that had resulted in growing sorrow and restlessness. minute, confined, close worked establishments, certificatory in look, which might gratify the postulates of closeness, sanctuary and capability for given that acclaim, were seen as the respond to this circumstances. though, succeeding actions through mutually pre and station sovereignty epoch encompass led toward a massive augment of cooperatives covering diverse sectors of the Indian financial system.

Co-operatives are organizations place awake to accomplish monetary and community profit used for their members during and since a place and are characterized via autonomous organize and the reasonable allocation of equally outlay and payback. The institution and increase of cooperatives must be regarded as solitary of the imperative instruments for monetary, community and artistic progress as well as being development in increasing country. Cooperatives include been in concert an central responsibility in humanizing the profitable environment of Indian public by provided that them employment and proceeds generating opportunities. great digit public profession in unorganized piece which is toothless to supply any sustainable payback or public sanctuary. Cooperatives challenge to stability individuals’ requirements with folks of the society as a complete by heartening entity empowerment contained by the organization of relationship and liability to the place. lacking important skills, societal standing, and monetary control, they are powerless to do several industry on their hold smooth with fiscal backing.

Credit Cooperatives are oldest landscape financial Institutions within our motherland. These relate provoked institutions encircle the widest composite covering every circumstances

c) Ratio used for assessing Solvency
d) Ratio used for assessing Operational efficiency

The researcher has used various statistical tools, techniques and methods, such as collection, classification, tabulation, graphic presentation, percentage, average. Descriptive and inferential analysis such as correlation, regression analysis, One Simple ‘t’ test, ANOVA and MANOVA test, which have been done through two computerized software (SPSS and Gretl).

There are 250 Employees’ Credit Co-operative Societies in Aurangabad, Latur, Pune, Kolhapur, Nashik, Jalgaon, Nagpur, Akola, Raigad and Thane. District. Out of them, the researcher has chosen 22 i.e. 10% of total the SECCS, as a sample. The SECCS sample represents all types of Profession, Vocation, Employment, Ownership Patterns, Location and Size. The sample has various characteristics i.e. These sample SECCS include the largest, the medium size and the smallest. Thus, the sample comprehensively covers all characteristics and provides a high-quality foundation intended for the present study.

Significance of SECCS:

The importance of SECCS is explained through the following points. Every employee dreams to build a little house but it is very difficult to build it, out of his savings or he has no property to mortgage and to obtain loan to build a house in such a case the SECCS extends cooperation by granting long term loans so that the employee can realize his dream to have shelter of his own. The SECCS help the members by giving short-term loans to convene the fundamental desires such as fare particle, fashion and protection. The SECCS help the members to educate their sons and daughters by giving loans. The society also helps the members to buy medicine and avail medical help required by giving loans. None but the societies relieve the members of exploitation by the money-lenders. The SECCS is run on democratic principles, so a member has the right to verify his accounts and the running of credit co-operative society. As there is monthly salary deduction for the recovery of the loan, there is no possibility of bad debts. There are facilities to avail the loans from the banks but it needs more time and sometimes money too. On the contrary, the SECCS sanctions the loans quickly. Every member of the credit society has to contribute some money towards the shares and deposits. As the result, the members live a frugal life to save some money for their future. The members come together under a banner of credit society to help each other it enhances spirit of mutual help and unity. They realized that 'united we stand and divided we fall.' The SECCS builds up courage and confidence in the members, so they become enterprising to produce

Here in this study an attempt has been made to highlight the dynamic role of Salary Earners Credit Co-operative societies (SECCS) for socio-economic development. Present study also concentrates towards the new challenges before the SECCS. The nearby revision is mainly noteworthy as it was throws brightness happening numerous vital aspects related near SECCS functioning in Maharashtra. This study will come out with the listing of constraints and difficulties encountered in financial matter of the SECCS. The conclusions and suggestions will be helpful for improving the overall performance of SECCS and also will guide others. The topic is chosen with a view to study the financial efficiency of the SECCS
Statement of the Problems:

The need of employee's co-operative credit societies arises on the various grounds as follows.

The cost of living in urban areas is very high. Most of the employees dependent on a monthly salary, which is inadequate and deeply interested in any prospect of seeing it increased.

Today the employees are concentrated in towns and cities due to rapid industrialization and job opportunities.

Salary earners always face some difficulties. The fact is that, when sudden emergencies arise which make an unexpected demand on their fixed salaries, they have to borrow, that they do so on most unfavorable term and that, they are heavily, and in some cases hopelessly indebted.

Some members cannot make saving because they always borrow to pay various bills.

Number of employees depends on monthly salary, which is inadequate and deeply interested in any prospect of seeing it increased.

Hypotheses:

The following hypotheses are formulated for the study.

Recovery performance of SECCS in Maharashtra is good during the study period.

Salary earners avails loan from SECCS immediately with compare to other banks.

Middle class employees were free from clutches of money lenders due to SECCS.

Purchasing power of employees improved due to emergence of SECCS.
