Acknowledgements

I would like to express gratitude to my guide Dr. Shailaja Shastri, HOD, Department of Psychology, Jain University for her enduring support. Her process oriented approach and emphasis on meticulous planning helped me immensely to keep focus and to keep targets on track. Next, I would like to acknowledge two individuals who shaped my research aspirations—Dr. Rajdeep Manwani who inspired and motivated me to undertake the research and Dr. Sandeep Shastri who became a role model for me in my quest for knowledge by teaching me that we can learn from each and every person we meet in life.

I would like to thank Dr. Chenraj Roychand, the President of Jain University Trust and Dr. N Sundarajan, Vice-Chancellor of Jain University for their words of encouragement during the several interactions they had with research scholars of Jain University. I would like to acknowledge the Dean of Sciences, Dr. Sudha Deshmukh for being a source of inspiration whenever I met her. I hereby express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Sumita Chowhan, Dr. Sherin P Antony, Dr. Chaitanya Sridhar, Dr. Rema Madhava, Dr. Ashwini Kumar, Dr. Bindu Srinivas and Ms. Sowmya Puttaraju, faculty members, post-graduate department of Psychology, Jain University for their kind suggestions. I would also like to acknowledge Dr. Mythili P Rao and Dr. Shanti Iyer, Centre Heads, J.C Road campus, Jain University for encouraging me during several interactions.

I would like to thank Ramki Jagadeeshan, Vice President Genpact for the connection he helped me to establish across IT industry. I also thank my IT friends who helped me during the data collection phase. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Sridhar Vaidanathan for tutoring me in structural equation modeling and helping to avail the library and facilities at IBS, Hyderabad. I also like to thank IIM-Bangalore for providing access to their library.
research analysis would not have been successfully completed if not for the timely advice from Dr. Todd D. Little, Professor Kansas University; Frederick P. Morgeson, Professor and Valade Research Scholar, The Eli Broad Graduate School of Management, Michigan State University; Jichuan Wang, Professor, Wright State University; Bengt Muthén, Professor Emeritus, University of California, and Linda. K. Muthén, Director of Product Development at Muthén & Muthén – thank you all for helping me despite your busy schedule. You have shown me how I should support research scholars who may seek help from me.

I hope a mere thank you would not belittle the enormous support I had from my wife, Mrs Jimy Mathews, during the rigorous research phase. Her support was instrumental in helping me to reach this milestone. I wish that one day my two-year-old daughter, Julia, would approve of all the time I stole from her for this research. The silent enduring support from my parents, K.V. Joseph & Santha Joseph, kept me determined all throughout this research. I thank my sister Mrs Jismy Sojan and her family- Dr. Sojan K. Poulase and Tushar Sojan for their support and understanding.

My sincere thanks to each and every one of you and all others who made my research journey a pleasant one. Thank You!

I dedicate this research work to my wife and daughter for all the sacrifices they made to let this happen.
