GUIDE

Dr. Yash Veer Bhatnagar, inspired me, while we conducted the markhor survey together in J&K. Yash ji actually motivated me to pursue research after I had spent several years without a clear goal. Your continued support and encouragement has been a great favour. Thank you very much, Sir!

CO-GUIDES

Charu ji (Dr. Charudutt Mishra), your guidance right from the beginning has helped me to complete this important journey. Your clear suggestions and valuable comments helped to improve my chapters. Thank you very much!

I was fortunate to have Dr. GS Rawat as one of my co-guides, which helped me learn a lot especially about the vegetation. Thank you very much Sir for your guidance.

Dr. Anindya Sinha, whose consistent encouragement and valuable suggestions helped me to improve on writing crisp and precise. Thank you very much!

INSTITUTIONS

Nature Conservation Foundation (NCF): I got the best support from NCF, one could imagine, during this important and long journey of acquiring knowledge.

Wildlife Trust of India: I am highly grateful for their trust in me to let me avail this great opportunity of doing the research. Special thanks to Mr.Vivek, Dr.Rahul and Sunil for encouraging me to finish my Ph.D. Dr. Ranjitsinh has been an inspiration for the very begging to do a good job.
Department of Wildlife Protection J&K (JKWLP): The Department of Wildlife always supported me in doing my work smoothly. I am highly grateful to JKWLP.

Wildlife Institute of India, Dehradun (WII): I was welcome to use the facilities such as library and the laboratory in WII. I acknowledge deeply this important support.

Kashmir University: The centre for Plant Taxonomy (Botany) especially Prof. Dar, Mr. Anzar, Mr. Akhtar helped me in identification of plants. I am highly grateful to you all. I used the facilities in Plant Physiology preparing the reference slides to identify the fragments in pellets. I would like to thank Mr. Mr.Bilal and Mr. Tanzeem for their help. I would like to thank Prof. Shah, Dr. Masli and Dr. Bilal from Department of Zoology for their encouragement.

Security forces: My study site is a sensitive place as per the security reasons. Therefore I had to convince the security forces to let me carry out my research. I am highly thankful to them as most of the time I was allowed to do my job.

PERMITS AND FUNDING

I am highly grateful to the Chief Wildlife Wardens: Dr. C.M. Seth, Mr. A.K. Srivastava and Mr. A.K. Singh, for moral support besides ensuring my uninterrupted field work. Dr. Seth was highly supportive to start this work and Mr. A.K. Singh wants to continue it till markhor is fully recovered and conserved. Special thanks to Regional Wildlife Wardens, Mr. Mian Javed, Mr. Nasir Ahmad Kitchloo, Mr. Sharma and Mr. Pacchnanda for their encouragement. I am highly thankful to my seniors and the current wildlife officials Mr. Rashid Naqash, Mr. Rauf Zargar, Mr. Intiaz Ahmad Lone, Mr. Intesar Suhail, Mr. Mohd Maqbool Baba for their continued cooperation and support. Thanks to Mr. M.S. Baccha and Mr. M.A. Parsa, for their support in doing my work smoothly.
I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Rufford Small Grant for their funding support without which this work would not have been possible.

FIELDWORK:

Baramulla

I am highly grateful to Range officers Mr. Mohd Sadiq, Mr Ghulam Ahmad Lone, Mr. Ghulam Ahmad Mir for their support and cooperation in completing my field work. Thanks to Mr. Ghulam Ahmad Hajjam and Mr. Mushtaq Ahmad Peer for their support.

Kajinag

Special thanks to Beet Officers Mr. Mushtaq Ahmad Lone, Mr Nazir Ahmad Hajjam, for help in arranging the surveys. My special thanks to Mr. Qayoom Khan, Mr. Ghulam Nabi Baba, Mr. Dar, Mr. Singh, Mr. Zaroo, Mr. Lone for participating in the markhor surveys.

Villages

I am highly grateful to the villagers (Babagail, Limber, Bodrali, Lachipora, Hakkepathri, Hillon, Naganari) for their love, respect and hospitality. Babagail village was like my second home and villagers here really took care of me, interacted with me and loved me. I am highly grateful to villagers of Babagail.

Lachipora villagers; whether it was Gujjars, Pahadis, Kashmiris or Mughals, all of them treated me very well and also answered most of my questions. I thank them from the core of my heart for their hospitality.

Naganari and Hakkapathri/Hillon villagers too showed warmth whenever I interacted with them. Thank you very much!
Field assistants and others

I would not have been able to complete my field work properly, if my assistants especially Akbar, Khazar, Rasheed, who actually taught me how to walk on very steep slopes, were not with me. I deeply acknowledge your support and company. Fayaz, Majeed and Ishtiaq; the young brigade, Joined me later and I was impressed to see their enthusiasm to assist and learn things about wildlife. An exceptionally enthusiastic former hunter I met in Naganari, who offered to accompany us to survey the Naganari and it really gave useful results. I am highly thankful to you, Mr. Ramzan, for making my field trips live. Lacchipora, which was very sensitive and it seemed initially very difficult to work here. But Mr. Rasheed Lone, a local and former hunter, agreed to accompany me which motivated me to include Lacchipora in my study area. Thank you Mr. Lone

My base camp was like my home; thanks to Hamida didi who made sure that everything was in place. She would welcome me when I was back from the field. Her mother and uncle would always greet me with warmth. Thank you very much all of you for making me feel at home.

DISCUSSION

I was immensely enriched by discussing my work with Madhu, Rohan, Sridhar, Aparajita, Divya, Rahul, Koustubh, Rashid, Navinder, Sumanta, Namgail and Narayan. Thank you very much for your invaluable inputs. I am thankful to, Elrika, Rohit, Kullu, Atul, Manish, Debapriyo, Rishi Sharma, Abhishek, Vardhan, MO Anand for invigorating discussions. Narayan, your critical comments helped me to improve my chapters. Ajay and Radhika, thanks for going through the chapters for final checks, despite your busy schedule.
ANALYSIS

I am highly grateful to Rashid, Koustubh, Navinder and Narayan for your help with my analysis and GIS related modeling and mapping. Rashid Bhai, I thank you for patiently teaching me different analyses we did for vegetation and livestock. Koustubh, I am deeply touched by your approach to guide, teach and help. Navinder, I wish I could do things as fast with full fun as much as you do. Narayan, thank you for helping me with keen interest in my analysis. I am grateful to Kullu, for helping at the last minute, with some simple but interesting analysis that added value to my results. Huge thanks to Raghunath for helping me in GIS mapping despite his hectic schedule. Thanks to Namgail, Nachiket, Sumanta and Tapajit for giving time to discuss various relevant analyses. I would like to thank Drs. Kavitha and Suhel for teaching me the basics of R.

HELP

Special thanks to Narayan, for being always there, whether it was reading through my rough drafts or helping me to learn R. Elrika, your simple encouraging comments, like “Mian hojayga, relax!”, were really refreshing especially when I looked depressed. Your help in editing saved me a lot of time. Thanks a lot!

Abhishek, I am highly grateful to you for helping me with the identification of fragments from the pellet analysis. Rohit, Jhanavi, Kullu, Manish, Atul, Debo, Coralie and Sumanta thanks for sitting through during my mock presentations.

SUPPORT ADMIN

NCF: Rakhee, Vena, Smitha and Tanuja and Naveen: You have a big role in making NCF such a great place. Shiva, you have been a great friend and I thank you for help in the office. My thanks are also due to and Suma for the constant supply of coffee and tea; Mangala for keeping guest house neat and tidy.
