Acknowledgements

This research work is dedicated to all the environmental field activists and various researchers in India, who have been consistently working since decades to unearth the procedural lapses and highlight the violations of rule of law in the environmental domain and have also devoted their work for the cause of sustaining the human race on this earth.

I owe my existence spiritually to almighty God and biologically to my parents Mrs. Krishna Halder and Mr. Pobitra Kumar Halder and I feel very fortunate that my parent’s contributions and support have helped in shaping my life and to be what I am today. In absentia I also acknowledge my parents-in-laws Late Shri. Biswanath Mukherjee and Smt. Abha Mukherjee for their encouragement to continue my academic pursue even after marriage.

I acknowledge my sincere gratitude to my academic guardian Prof. Yogesh Mehta, for his encouragement and support towards the culmination of this doctoral study.

I also express deep regards and sincere appreciation to my guide Prof. (Dr.) B.G. Maniyar, at Department of Law, Saurashtra University, Rajkot for his constant support and encouragement during the academic journey this research work. His prompt response and facilitating attitude has been very precious to me throughout.

I also extend my deep appreciation for, Dr. Indrayan, HOD at the Department of Law Saurashtra University and all esteemed Members of the RDC and department staff, PG staff Dept. at Saurashtra University for their time to time support and help extended to me during this study.
My husband Prof. Saral Mukherjee at IIM Ahmedabad has been my moral guide and a true inspiration. He has given constant support to carry on with my post-graduation and further education and academic research. I also feel worth to mention cooperation extended by my little daughter Ms. Upasana in her own way by often putting up with my hectic academic schedules.

I also thank my husband Saral, brother Dr. Partho Halder (post-doctoral fellow at Max Planck Institute, Germany), and Ms. Aparna Jiswal for their assistance in editing work.

I also convey thanks to various academic and field experts who have helped me during this research study through academic discussions and inputs like, Prof. Anurag Aagarwal at IIM Ahmedabad, Dr. S.P. Rathor at the University School of Law, Gujarat University, Shri. Mahesh Pandya, at Paryavarn Mitra, Ahmedabad.

I also thank my friend Dr. Kiran Gardener, at Auro University, Surat; Dr, Kiran Rai at Galgotia University, Noida and Ms. Dhara Chotai at Central University, Gandhinagar.

I extend my thanks to the staff at various libraries at IIMA, ILNU, Gujarat University, Saurashtra University, etc for their assistance and co-operation. Lastly, I am also deeply thankful to all the field researchers, academicians, activists and experts whose research inputs and academic contributions have helped me develop the conceptual understanding and provided guidance on the subject matter of this research work. All such contributions have been duly acknowledged in this work to the best of my ability and knowledge.
Publications arising from this research work

Conferences attended and papers presented

1. Parna Mukherjee, “EIA Scams: Decaying the EIA Legal Regime in India”, Paper presented in the 3rd International Congress of Environmental Research (ICER-10) held at University of Mauritius, Reduit, Mauritius, September 16-18, 2010 conducted by JERAD, Bhopal, India in collaboration with University of Mauritius, Also invited to Co-ordinate a technical session on Law and Management in the said conference.
