Research is meditation. As to perform meditation one has to be alert, aware and discriminating. That may bring the change; the transformation and it will not be imposed from outside but coming from inner being, like a flower and blossoming in the person. And when anything comes from inside and blossoms, it has tremendous beauty. In research one has to concentrate on subject and forget everything even their own identity, and then the great facts come like the flash.

The inspiring teacher has the never ending radio acuity that enriches the minds of his pupils. A successful outcome of any research endeavor therefore attributes itself to the selfless guidance of the mentor. It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed guide Dr. D. D. Santani, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmacology, L.M. College of Pharmacy for his untiring guidance, unceasing encouragement, erudite suggestions, critical evaluations, constructive criticism and his affection during the entire span of this work. Working under his guidance had been a rich experience and been an inspiration for me to be remembered forever. His precious advise, cooperation and fatherly support enabled me to clarify my vision and encouraged me to fight all odds throughout the span of my work.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Mamta B. Shah, Lecturer, Department of Pharmacognosy, L.M. College of Pharmacy who fueled my efforts. Words are scarce to express my hearty thanks for her continuous guidance and encouragement. Her valuable and meticulous suggestions and cooperation helped me to sail smoothly throughout my work. My frustrations were disappeared in her presence. The credit for the success of this work, of course goes to her mainly.

With great pleasure, I appreciate Dr. S. S. Goswami, Lecturer, Department of Pharmacology, L.M. College of Pharmacy for her valuable suggestions, help and special interest in my research work. She inspired and encouraged me during my tough time.

Friendship is the shadow of evening, which strengthens with the setting sun. I am also thankful to Mr. Paresh B. Suthar, Lecturer, Department of Pharmacology, L.M. College of Pharmacy for inspiring me and boosting my confidence in the time of difficulties. A thanking note won't serve even an iota of reciprocation for the pains that he has taken for me. He spared his valuable time for endless standing with me during entire project work. Without his encouragement and help it was difficult to complete my work successfully.

With profound gratitude, I thank Dr. M. C. Gohel, Principal, L.M. College of Pharmacy for providing me necessary facility.

I also extend my thanks to Dr. B. N. Suhagia, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Ms. B. K. Shah, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Pharmacognosy, L.M. College of Pharmacy for providing me working atmosphere in their department.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. N. S. Kapadiya Department of Pharmacognosy, L.M. College of Pharmacy helping me in my literature survey and plan of work.

I also acknowledged the considerable help by the way of involvement from Dr. R. K. Goyal, Dr. R. V. Bhatt, Dr. P. A. Bhatt and Dr. Anita Mehta for their guidance and kind cooperation during my project work.

Friendship improves happiness abates misery by joy and dividing misery. I never forget Ali a best friend and Philosopher; Mr. Manish Rachchh, a truly religious person; and Ms. Rina Gokani, a girl with soft heart and strong determined mind; for their timely help and moral support.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Jeevanlal Jain, Anandbhai and their family for providing the roots of Chlorophytum arundinaceum.

Adversity is the crucible in which friendship is tested. Life has no blessing like prudent friends. It was really a joyous wonderful experience to work with Sumanbhai, Maitrayi, Ketan, Devyani, Kartik, Kaushal, Uma, Jyoti, Pinal and Shalini the Ph.D. and M.Pharm students of L.M.College of pharmacy. Their support enabled me to stand confidently against all difficult times.

I will be failing in my duty if I fail to express my thanks to Mr. Banjumbhai Vyas and Prakashbhai Rao, the trustees of Shri Khambhat Taluka Sarvajanik Kelavani Mandal, Khambhat and Mr. M. H. Pathan, Principal, M.N.College of Pharmacy, Khambhat for sanctioning my study leaves during the time of project. I am also thankful to Mr. S. K. Gohil, Mr. L. S. Patel, Mr. P. L. Patel, Mr. D. J. Patel, Mr. S. B. Patel and Mr. V. T. Chudasma for their kind cooperation.

I also thank Chetnaben, Krishnabhai, Shivabhai for their help. I also thank to Sanjaybhai, Ashwinbhai, Bharatbhai and Joshikaka for providing all sort of help in library. I owe my sincere thanks to MaliRaRa and Rajubhai.

I am and will always be indebted to my family members for their love and succor. Words fail me to expressing my gratitude to their constant solicitude and boosting. Every success in my life is attributed to their blessings and the love that they bestow upon me. My main source of inspiration is my little son Shivam who enjoyed the present because he has neither past nor a future and gave me the message that the God is not yet discouraged the man.
Love is an endless mystery for it has nothing else to explain it. It is like the light of phosphorus, seen plainest when all around is dark. I can’t finish my acknowledgement without the mention of sacrifice of my wife Tejal. She stayed alone at home during many weekends and takes care of our son with unwearying patients. It was only her love and understanding that helped me through all the impediments and exigencies.

My special thanks are due to Swami Ramdevji who taught me Yoga and Pranayam. By practicing his techniques I became more happy, energetic and able to withstand with all odds without being depressed throughout the span of my research work.

Finally, I would like to surrender myself and my whole work at the feet of Bhagwan Shri Rajneesh "OSHO" and Satyanarayan Goyanka who always sing a song without words. Their words and the deep silence between their words compose a never ending symphony, an everlasting stream, the universe, ever moving around one single point which seems to be not even them, but the silence within us all. I pray them by just observing my breath.

Lastly, I would like to say that any success of this project was not possible without my innocent rats.
