CONTENTS

Acknowledgement ... I
List of Tables ... III
List of Schematic diagrams ... VI

CHAPTER:

1 INTRODUCTION 1
   I The study of person perception
   II Review of literature
      A : Books
      B : Articles
   III Applications
   IV Basic definitions
   V Methodology
   VI Hypotheses
   VII Basic assumptions

2 PLAN AND PROCEDURE 25
   I The Sample
   II A note on Sample-size
   III Procedure for the selection of the subjects.
IV Description of the tools
V Test-retest reliabilities
VI Validity of the tools
VII Administration of the tools
VIII Scoring of the tests
IX Data - analysis

3 RESULTS

4 DISCUSSION OF RESULTS AND LIMITATIONS

A. Discussion :
I Role of values
II Role of manifest Anxiety
III Sex-differences
IV Role of assumed similarity
V Role of best-friendship duration
VI Real similarity and Accuracy
VII Bifactor V.s. multifactor approach
VIII Generality V.s. specificity of the person perception ability
IX The basis of friendship
X General comments.

B. Limitations :
5 SUGGESTIONS 102

6 CONCLUSIONS 115

APPENDIX 120

English - version of

I Interpersonal perception Inventory
II Adjective check - list
III Word connection Test
IV Values - Test

REFERENCES 129