ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

Success in this world is always a matter of individual effort, yet you will only be deceiving yourself if you believe that you can succeed without the co-operation of other people. “we are made up of thousands of others, Everyone who has ever done a kind of deed for us, or spoken one word of encouragement to us, has entered into the make-up of our character & of our thoughts as well as our success.”

Research in the era of global changes in all the aspects of human life, is a joint effort of many people from the entire field, particularly when it’s an experimental intervention research. It is impossible to complete the work without the co-operation & willingness of people. I am very thankful to those children & their parents who provide me their full co-operation & willingness for collecting data and giving their valuable time for testing & solving test.

If it were not for the co-operation of the school that were part of this study, this project would never have seen the light of day.

I owe exceptional moment of happiness with the deep sense of gratitude to M.K.E.S.English school, secondary section principle madam Mrs. Chhaya Ravani and primary section principle madam Mrs. Kalpana Degra, Staff, Teacher, Parents & Student of the schools for showing trust in my Visionary Research Intervention Programme.

I would like to thanks psychology department of JJT University for their consistent support at all occasion which helped me to finish my research work on time. I am highly indebted to honourable chancellor and vice chancellor of JJT University for allowing me to carry out my research work in this University. Further, I would like to thanks Dr. Sunil Jahangir, and Dr Nagendra Babu for their continuous guidance, help and in completing my research work. I am also thankful to Dr. Sanjay Madaan, Dr Anju Singh, Gopinath and Rakhi for their help and support.

I would like to thank with my soul to late Prof. A. S. Borse, who gave me unprecedented support during my designing process of research & gave me immense confidence on my concept.
I express my sincere gratitude to my research guide & I consider it’s an honor to work with Dr. Narendra V. Deshmukh, Assistance professor of M. G. Vidya Mandir, Maharaja Sayajirao Gaikwad Art, Science & Commerce college, under whose supervision, I was able to carry out my work. It was his tremendous support & belief in me, have contemplate this project.

It is because of the training imparted to me in ‘Naturopathy’ by the Government Institute, Hospitals & organization listed below, who thought me the rudiments of theory & plan.

I also thank Dr. Pradhan (Director of S. V. P. College) for their encouragement & moral support.

I express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Deshmukh & their parents who always offered me best of the hospitality one can need.

I am fortunate to have friends who have helped me unconditionally at anytime through the years of research. I would sincerely thank to Madhavi Seth, especially who was like elder sister to me around and given continuous support & guidance. I also thank Jayshree, Amita & Shailaja for their support and friendly help and fruitful suggestion.
I also place on record my sense of gratitude to one and all who directly or indirectly have lent their helping hand in this venture.

I also take this opportunity to thank Mr. Santosh Suvarna for their co-operation & assistance.

I am thankful to my father & mother being their helping me in my absence caring my children, without their help it would have been difficult to pursue my research.

I also would like to confess here that I must have missed out on my duties for my children, but they never even complain, but they support me & helped me throughout & they proved to be pillar of my research. I take an opportunity to thank my son Dheyay and my daughter Drashty for having them in my life & feel proud mother. I am thankful to my husband for the unwavering conviction in me & for being a pillar of strength over the years, without whose support pursuing a doctorate would have still been just a dream.

What I experience now is a result of the past, what I experience in the future depends on what I do now. Let’s make Secured, Healthy & Happy future for our children.

Thank you.
