ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have been able to complete this research program with the support and active cooperation of concerned university, authorities, and several individuals. I owe my debt and would like to express deep feelings of gratitude to my mentor and Thesis Guide, Dr. Sarla Achuthan for her valuable guidance at different stages of this research journey. It would have been quite impossible to carry on the research work and make it into the final shape of a thesis without her guidance and sympathetic encouragement. Her respect for all individuals is lovingly remembered always.

I am intensely indebted to Prof. Raghuram, Professor, Public Systems Group, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad for his very useful guidance and counseling in exploring various hidden study aspects and also for his comments on the draft presentation on research work. His cooperation and assistance in the overall presentation and all his precautionary measures made the methodology of this thesis comprehensive. I am truly blessed for his invaluable contextual insights.

I am gratified to Mr. Gautam Shah, Municipal corporater, Naranpura for his kind help and assistance at the initial stage of the process.
