ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study was completed under the guidance of Prof. M.S. Trivedi, Vice-Chancellor of South Gujarat University, Surat and former director of Sardar Patel Institute of Economic and Social Research (SPIESR), Ahmedabad. Prof. Trivedi took keen interest in this study. I have drawn heavily upon his intellectual resources. Words are inadequate to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Trivedi for his immense help and encouragement.

I was fortunate to have access to the vast knowledge and deep understanding of the subject of Prof. V.P. Bhardwaj, Department of Economics, Gujarat University, which has been of valuable help in my work. I express my deep gratitude to him.

Prof. S.R. Hashim, Head of the Department of Economics, M.S. University, Baroda, showed keen interest in my work. Detailed discussions with him generated various ideas which made the problem more simpler. I am indebted to him for the same. I had fruitful discussions with Dr. (Miss) Jayshree Shah, Assistant Professor in Sardar Patel Institute of Economic and Social Research, Ahmedabad and Dr. A.S. Sidhu, a close friend presently working with N.D.B.B. I am thankful to them for helping me to overcome the complexities of the problem.
I offer my sincere thanks to Dr. R.J. Modi, Prof. G.V.S.N. Murthy and Sat. Murthy of SPIESR, Ahmedabad and Dr. V.K. Chavda and Dr. C.R. Thakar, Department of Economics, Gujarat University for fruitful suggestions and advise.
