Table of Contents

Acknowledgement 1
List of Tables ii
List of Graphs iii

Chapter 1
1. Background 1
2. Overview of economic reforms in India 7
  2.1 Indian Economy in the Pre-Reforms Period 8
  2.2 Growth Performance of the economy 10
  2.3 Saving and Investment 12
  2.4 Inflationary Situation 13
  2.5 Monetary Policy 14
  2.6 Fiscal Policy 16
  2.7 Exchange Rate Policy 18
  2.8 Trade Reforms 18
3. Statement of the Problem 24
4. Objectives 27
5. Hypotheses 28
6. Methodology 28
  6.1. Sample and framework 28
  6.2. Study Period 29
  6.3. Database 30
  6.4. Statistical Techniques 32
7. Chapter Scheme 34

Chapter 2
1. Introduction 35
2. Economic Reform Policies and Transmission Mechanism 37
  2.1 Stabilisation Policies 41
3. Monetarists versus Structuralists: Towards Reconciliation 49
4. Washington Consensus and Structuralists’ Response 54
  4.1 Broad Features of Washington Consensus 55
  4.2 Response of Neostructuralists to the WC 57
  4.3 Post-Washington Consensus 59
5. Approaches to Assess Impact of Reforms 61
6. Experience of Developing Countries 64
  6.1 Effects on Macroeconomic Performance 64
  6.2 Effects on Social Sector 69
Summing Up 72

Chapter 3
3.1 Introduction 75
3.2 Linkages between Growth, Savings and Investment 75
3.3 Overall Growth Performance 81
3.4 Composition of Economic Sectors 93
3.5 Trends in Aggregate Savings 100
3.6 Trends in Aggregate Investment 107
3.7 Aggregate Resource Balance 111
3.8 Savings, Investment and Growth 114