ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I wish to place on record my extreme thankfulness and profound regards to my esteemed Guide and Principal of my College, Dr. Yashomatiben Patel for her scholarly guidance and constant encouragement extended to me leading to the completion of research work, the report of which is presented in the form of this thesis.

I have no words to express my extreme indebtedness and gratefulness to respected Dr. M.B. Buch for giving me valuable guidance and encouragement.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. J.H. Shah, Dr. D.N. Sansanwal and Dr. J.Z. Patel for their concrete suggestions and inspiration given to me.

I owe a special debt and a sense of gratitude to the principals, teachers, students and parents, who participated in this study for their kind cooperation, they extended to me in the collection of data.

The investigator can never fail to put on record deep sense of gratitude and gratefulness to colleagues and well wishers of Dalal Education College Parivar for giving her wholehearted cooperation and support.

I would like to express my profound gratitude to Gujarat Stree Kelvani Mandal and S.M.N.K. Dalal Education College for Women for having granted permission to undertake this study as a Teacher-fellow.

My thanks are due to the University Grants Commission for its financial assistance and study leave for two years to complete this research work.

The blessings of my affectionate father, brothers-sisters, husband Shri J.C. Amin and sons, Maulin and Harsh have been an unfailing source of strength and inspiration to me to accomplish this work.

Above all the enormous amount of goodwill, sympathy and enthusiastic support that I received from friends and well wishers is invaluable.

Also, I specially thank Mr. Sureshbhai Patel having rendered my manuscript in neat typed form in a very short time.

Before I conclude, I would like to express my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to those, who have played an indispensable role for the fulfilment of my research work.
