ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a great pleasure to express my gratitude to people who have helped me in learning through their constant support, encouragement, and guidance over past few years during my association with IIMA.

I am highly indebted to Prof. Dr. I. M. Pandey, Dean, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad for his invaluable guidance and encouragement throughout this study. Words are inadequate to appreciate his depth of knowledge, insight, and patience with which he has guided me in this work.

It is virtually impossible to express my appreciation and gratitude to all my friends who helped me in various ways and enriched me in this study. However, I would like to place on record my deep appreciation to Shri Kiran J. Mehta, Practising Cost Accountant, who has enriched this work by his encouragement and insightful comments.

My thanks are also to people whom I interviewed for this study, who spared their valuable time from their busy schedule, and shared their experiences as well as knowledge.

I am thankful to the library staff of IIMA, and Gujarat Vidhyapith, who have always been very cooperative to me.

I am also very grateful to my parents who instilled in me a feeling of self-esteem, and quest for pursuit excellence; and my wife and son who have always been constant sources of inspiration.

Date: August 12, 1993

Ahmedabad

Paresh P. Shah

PARESH P. SHAH