ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research is a continuous process undertaken by an individual or a team of persons probing into the never ending, newer avenues of science. Today, at the acme of my dissertation, I would say that this presentation have taken shape because of the blessings of The Almighty. I gratefully remember the encouragement, support and co-operation of my innumerable well wishers who have directly or indirectly, helped me and guided me in the successful completion of this work. This presentation would not have taken shape without their whole hearted and live involvement.

The sense of celebration is filled within me, to carve it in the form of words and language on the completion of this study under the masterly guidance of Dr. D.D. Santani, Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacology, L.M. College of Pharmacy, Ahmedabad. I am whole heartedly indebted to him for his invaluable advice, critical evaluations, erudite suggestions and unceasing encouragement during the entire span of the present work. The high standards and expectations set by him always urged me to strive harder and perform the best. A thanking note wouldn’t serve an iota of reciprocation for the pains that he has taken for me. To work under his guidance has been an inspiration and an experience to be remembered forever.

With profound gratitude and respect, I want to thank Prof. Anil K. Gupta; Head, Department of Agriculture Management, IIM, Ahmedabad for his generosity and support extended to me to initiate this study. I will always be indebted to him for the faith he had entrusted in me, which gave me a lot of freedom and space to work efficiently.

With immense gratitude, I thank Dr. G. C. Bhavsar and Dr. (Mrs.) Maltiben Chauhan, for their suggestions in certain matters which proved invaluable.

A special word of thanks to Ms. Mamta B. Shah, my friend and colleague, Lecturer, Dept. of Pharmacognosy, L. M. College of Pharmacy for her selfless and kind co-operation. I am thankful for the help and advice rendered during the course of my project work, which has enabled me to complete the work in time. I cannot forget to thank Varsha for extending her sincere help in my project work.

My sincere thanks are also to late Dr. T. P. Gandhi, M/s. Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd., Dholka for permitting me to avail the facilities of animal house and library. I am also thankful to Dr. Milan Satia, for his guidance in my pharmacological studies. I cannot forget to specially thank Dr. Paresh Dadhani and Mr. Makwanabhai for timely and successful completion of my pharmacological studies. I specially and wholeheartedly thank my nearest and dearest friend Vandana, M/s: Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd., Dholka, for her generous help and moral support during the entire span of my work.

I convey my thanks to Dr. S.S. Goswami, M. Pharm., Ph. D., my friend and colleague, Lecturer, Dept. of Pharmacology, L. M. College of Pharmacy, for the encouragement, understanding and help rendered for all my pharmacological problems.

I pass my special thanks to Dr. Harish Padh, Director, B.V.Patel PERD Centre, Ahmedabad for permitting to avail the HPTLC facilities and Dr. Rajani and Ravi who helped in every way to complete the analysis at the centre.

I owe my sincere thanks to Ms. B.K. Shah, M.Pharm., Asst. Professor, Head of the Department of Pharmacognosy, L. M. College of Pharmacy for kindly providing me the necessary facilities in the laboratory for my present work. Her selfless help, kind nature and friendly attitude deserves special thanks from me.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. M.C. Gohel, M. Pharm., Ph.D., Principal and Professor of Pharmaceutics, L.M. College of Pharmacy for granting me facilities and resources to carry out my research work.

I am also thankful to Pankajbhai for providing all sorts of help in the laboratory. I also wish to thank Shivabhai for help extended in the animal house.

I am and will always be indebted infinitely to my PARENTS for their love, affection and support throughout the course of my study. A word of heartfelt gratitude and thanks to my children NIRZARI and YASH and my husband KALPESH, who have always remained with me through all the impediments, hitches, hurdles along the path of my study. Their love, affection and support has undergone a long way to have myself reached this position.

Before concluding, I mention with a heavy heart that this project has been a success because of the innocent sacrificed rats.
