Acknowledgement

At the very outset, I thank God Almighty for showering mercy on me, which really paved way for completing this research programme.

With all humility, I place on record my sincere gratitude to my Supervising teacher, Dr. K. C. George, Principal Scientist, Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute, for the eminent guidance, needy suggestions, and above all the encouragement and understanding rendered to me, which made the research programme a success.

I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Mohan Joseph Modayil, Director, Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute for providing necessary facilities towards the successful completion of the research work.

I acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude for the valuable support and timely advice given by Dr. R. PaulRaj, Head of the Division of Pathology, Physiology and Nutrition, C.M.F.R.I.

I would like to extend my special thanks to Dr. P. C. Thomas, Principal Scientist, C.M.F.R.I., for his valuable suggestions and for providing facilities to carry out the research work.

Shri. N. K. Sanil, Senior Scientist, C.M.F.R.I., had been of great help throughout the period of research, which I humbly remember with deep sense of gratitude.

Dr. K. S. Shobana, Senior Scientist, C.M.F.R.I., had been an inspiring force in all sense, and I place on record my earnest thankfulness for her sincere help, advice, and encouragement, with out which, this work would not have materialized.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Somy Kuriakose and Mrs. Mini K. G. Senior Scientists, C.M.F.R.I., for the statistical support given for the analysis and interpretation of data.

I remember the timely help of Mrs. P. Vineetha, Mr. M. P. Paulton, Technical officer, Genetics Division, C.M.F.R.I., Mr. Nandakumar Rao, technical staff, Physiology Division, C.M.F.R.I., and Mr. K. K. Surendran, Pathology Division, C.M.F.R.I. I sincerely appreciate for sharing their knowledge and experience.
I am grateful to all the staff members of the Division of Physiology, Nutrition and Pathology, and Division of Post Graduate Programme in Mariculture for their kind cooperation and timely help during the research work.

I place on record my appreciation for the valuable service rendered by the Library staff, C.M.F.R.I., in collection of necessary records and literature.

Of course, encouragement and inspiration is an incomparable gift when extended by friends. Thus I thank my loving friends, Dr. Gijo Ittoop, Mrs. Simy George, Dr. Vimala, Mrs. Radhika Sunil, Mrs. Shiny Bijulal, Dr. Jyothi Mallaya and Dr. Sherly Zacharia for their continuous help and selfless support.

I would like to say a word of thanks to the staff of Ajanta co-operative society, Vypeen, for providing me with the materials for my research.

I thank Indian Council of Agricultural Research for the financial support given for this research work.

The priceless support given by each member of my family, especially the encouragement rendered by my beloved father is beyond words. I sincerely acknowledge the cooperation and desire of my family members and relatives.
