Acknowledgement

I wish to express deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my supervisor Dr.(Mrs.) Anita Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Home-Science( F&N) Shri. A.K.P.G.College, Varanasi, for giving me an excellent guidance to carry out the entire work with her able supervision, encouragement, wholehearted co-operation and all important suggestion, which were of inestimable value throughout the period of this study.

I would like to acknowledge the contributions of a number of people. I deeply appreciate their valuable contribution. I am particularly grateful to Dr. Alok Kumar, Associate Professor, Department of Nephrology, Co-Supervisor, Shri Guru Ram Rai Institute of Medical & Health Sciences, Patel Nagar, Dehradun, for his encouragement, continuous guidance, and for the frequent review of the thesis manuscript.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to the Principal, Dr. (Mrs.) Madhu Asthana, who gave me an opportunity to conduct the present research work in a prestigious institution. Particularly she helped me at every step of the present endeavor, I will ever remain grateful for her kindness and benignity.

I feel was sense of gratitude to Dr.(Mrs.) Suman Mishra, Associate Professor, Head, Department of Home-Science, for the valuable suggestion, guidance and help rendered during period of my research work. I am also very thankful to all the teachers of Department of Home-Science for their cooperation’s and valuable suggestion.

I also acknowledge Dr. Shelly Biostatics, for their valuable assistance and guidance during the statistical analysis process of the data.

My sincere thanks to Staff of Dialysis Unit, Department of Nephrology, Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Science for their support and making the data collection easier. I am also very thankful to all participants for their co-operation and patience.
A man who is full of extra ordinary patience, my husband Mr. Vimlendra Tripathi, magnanimous personality guided me through the maze of this complex subject; it is indeed a proud privilege to work with such a high caliber. His untiring efforts and moral support along with the good understanding, calm endurance, inestimable adoration, motivation, emphatic strength and sacrifices make me success to complete this heavy task in due time.

I am especially thankful to my loving daughter Jigisha Tripathiand my sister Sunita Mishra for her co-operation during my research work.

Words fall short to express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents Mr. Rama Niwas Pandey and my loving Mother Mrs. Shakuntala Pandey for their inspiration, encouragement and moral support in which boosted me every time to work with new and high spirit.

I am especially thankful to my in laws as respectable my parents Mr. Arvind Nabh Tripathi and Mrs. Sumitra Tripathi for their, constant support during my research work.

Words are not sufficient to express my deep thanks to my Friends, Suchena, Rashmi, Archana, Nirupamaand Farhat who play a vital role in completion of my study. Nothing was possible without her constant help and guidance for designing and building the tools of study.

The chain of my gratitude would be definitely incomplete if I would forget to thank the first cause of this chain, The Almighty itself. I thank Almighty for giving me this truly wonderful and magnanimous opportunity to work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the work of Kailash for his help in work processing and computerized graphic presentation.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to all to whom I could not mention who helped me directly and indirectly.
