ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

It is a great pleasure to record my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my teacher Prof. M.B. Senkalie for his encouragement and gracious guidance, at every stage in the progress of this work.

I express my gratitude to Prof. K.D. Bajpe, Head of the Department of Ancient Indian History, Culture and Archaeology, who gave me an opportunity to work on the present problem. I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. U.V. Singh whose valuable suggestions and encouragement I received during my research period.

I am grateful to Dr. V.K. Misra, Shri S.N. Rajguru and Dr. Z.B. Ansari for offering me useful suggestions at various stages of this work.

It is a pleasant duty to record my greatfulness to my friends Drs. P. Gidwani and M.L.K. Murthy and my brothers-in-law Sri R. Ramesh Reddy and Shri R. Jagadish Reddy, who helped me in carrying the Metrical analysis and statistical comparisons.

I am greatly indebted to my friends Sarvashri P.V.S. Murthy, P.V. Chalapati, D. Nagadostagiri Reddy, D. Ankaiah, B.Ed. and Rameswamy whose affectionate hospitality and interest enabled me to carryout my field work efficiently.

I heartily thank Sarvashri Y.S. Rasar and R.B. Worke, who helped me in the preparation of the drawings; A. Francis for photography and P.S. Mujumdar and A. Gurunathan for typing.

I am also grateful to the Government of Andhra Pradesh for giving me a scholarship which enabled me to study the present problem.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not record my sincere thanks to my friend Sri V. Rani Reddy, Research Fellow, who has been an inspiration to me and who offered useful suggestions during the progress of this work.

K. Chinnar Red