Introduction

3.2 Reason for Choosing a Country for Education

3.3 Iranian Students going to America

3.4 Incentives for Higher Education in America

3.5 Problems of Brain Drain in America

3.6 Iranian Students in United Kingdom

3.7 Iranian Students in Other Countries

3.8 Iranian Students in Germany

3.9 Iranian Students in Italy

3.10 Iranian Students in Canada

3.11 Iranian Students in Australia

3.12 Iranian Students in Pakistan

3.13 Foreign Students in Iran

IV

4.1 A case of Iranian Students in India

4.2 The Report of A. Fikerat in Persian

4.3 Methodology

4.4 The Data collected

4.5 Educational expansion in India

4.6 Problems of Iranian students in India
V 5.1 Conclusion:

Higher Education in Iran
5.2 Iranian Students Studying Abroad
5.3 A Case of Iranian Students in India
5.4 Suggestions
5.5 Implementation of The Suggestions
5.6 Establishment of Talent Bank or a Data Bank in Iran
5.7 Education with Indian Collaboration
5.8 Education through Mass Communication in Iran
5.9 Correspondence Courses
5.10 Suggestions Pertaining to the problem of Iranian Students Abroad with special Reference to India
5.11 A note on Iranian Residents in India

VI POSTSCRIPT:

A Brief Note about Education After the Revolution in Iran

APPENDIX A

I Sample of Questioners
II List of Persons Interviewed
III Sample of letters to Institutional heads concerning the Iranian Students
IV List of the Institutions visited
V Sample of Conditional Admission letters
VI Paper Cuttings

BIBLIOGRAPHY