CONTENTS

*        *        *

* * *        *

PREFACE

Part I SCOPE AND METHOD OF THE STUDY

1 Introduction:

The Medieval phase - The Paleotechnic phase -
The position of workers under industrial resolution - The effects of Industrial revolution - Awakening in the workers -
A new approach - Realization of worker as a human being - Social needs of workers -
The scope of industrial psychology -
The importance of industry - Needs of industry - Co-operation in industry -
Industrial peace and strife - The place of industry in the economy of a country -
Factors leading to dissatisfaction in the workers - 'Morale' defined - Measurable dimensions of morale - Uses of morale study - Work done in India - The rationale of this study.
2 Method:

Part II PRESENTATION AND INTERPRETATION OF DATA

1 Job Satisfaction: 0.47

Consciousness about the company utilizing duly one's abilities - Attitude toward one's qualification for one's job - Liking for the department - Attitude toward one's job in the present company - Attitude toward personal absence - Work satisfaction - Interest in job - Consciousness of importance of oneself - Appropriateness of one's selection of one's job - discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

2 Quality of Supervisors and Supervision: 0.41

Foreman's attitude - Foreman's satisfaction about work - Relations with foreman - Criticism by the foreman - Discipline by the foreman - Favouritism by the foreman - management of the department - The foreman's decisions - Quality of supervision - Treatment by the foreman - Amount of training given by foreman - Disposal of complaints by the foreman - confidence in the foreman - Worker's rating of the foreman - Foreman's guidance on the job - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

3 Wages : p.143
Attitude towards one's job in the present company - Salary anchored to the responsibilities - Salary and value to the company - Pay scales of similar institutions compared - Overtime work - Opportunities for promotions - Preferred payment - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

4 Attitude Toward Company : p.167
Protection from accidents - Attitude towards one's job in the present company - Job security - Employee treatment - Employee treatment compared to other companies - Pay scales compared with those in similar institutions - Attitude towards the company as a place of work - Company's attitude towards workers - Opportunities for promotions - Information about company policy - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.
5 Job Security:
Job security - Hazards on the job - Fear of dismissal - Fear of dissatisfaction - Job security - The nature of promotion - Appreciation by the authorities - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

6 Job Condition, Working Condition and Accident Prevention Measures:
Mechanical troubles - Hazards on the job - Protection from accidents - Recess period - Lighting on job place - Noise in department - Grasp of duties, responsibilities and orders - Tools and raw materials - Working space - Instructions about new work - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

Working Condition:
Dissatisfaction with work conditions - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

Accident Prevention Measures:
Conclusion.

7 Employee Pride in Work:
Consciousness of company using one's abilities - Attitude towards qualifications for one's job - Consciousness of importance of oneself - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.
8 Informal Relations: p. 254
Association with colleagues - Co-operation among employees in department - Co-operation among different departments - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

9 Worker Dissatisfaction: p. 249
Hearing of dissatisfaction - Reasons for dissatisfaction or difficulties - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

10 Bosses in General: p. 243
Conflicting or contradictory orders from different bosses - Attitude bosses - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

11 Attitude toward Home Condition: p. 244
Domestic worries and troubles - Reasons for dissatisfaction - Home situation - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

12 Amount And Distribution of Work: p. 305
Amount of work assigned to workers - Adequacy of number of workers in the department - Distribution in the department -
Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.

13 Worker Facilities: p. 312
Facility of recreation - Company policy on sick leave - Discussion of different groupings - Conclusion.
14 Absenteeism : p.314
Reasons for absences - Attitude toward personal absence - Attitude absences from work in general - Conclusion.

15 Industrial Conflict, Union and Strike : p.333
Trouble makers in department - Union - The functions of labour union - Attitude to become a member of the union - Strike - Conclusion.

16 Distance of Place of Work and Transportation : p.334
Distance of place of work - How they manage to reach the work place - Whether convenient or inconvenient - Conclusion.

17 Suggestion System : p.344
Attitude toward suggestion system - Conclusion.

18 Attitude Towards Morale Studies. p.346

PART III SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS. p.349

APPENDICES

List of Tables:

Table No.1 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of job satisfaction. p.372

Table No.2 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of quality of supervisors and supervision. p.373
Table No.3 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of attitude toward company.

Table No.4 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of wages.

Table No.5 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of job security.

Table No.6 : Analysis of the sample's responses to the various items included under the aspect of job condition.

Table No.7 : Percentages of the sample in different educational groups showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No.8 : Percentages of the sample in different age groupings showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No.9 : Percentages of the sample in different length-of-service groups showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No.10 : Percentages of the sample in different fresh worker groupings showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No.11 : Percentages of the sample in different experienced worker groups showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No.12 : Percentages of the sample in different wage groups showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.
Table No. 13: Percentages of the sample in different department-wise groupings, showing different degrees of satisfaction in Press A and Press B.

Table No. 14: Comparison of Rank orders of the mean scores on various aspects of morale in Press A and Press B.

List of Graphs:

Graph No. 1: showing the relation between the level of education and morale in Press A and Press B.

Graph No. 2: showing the relation between the wage level and morale in Press A and Press B.

Graph No. 3: showing the relation between length of service and morale in Press A and Press B.

Graph No. 4: showing the relation between age level and morale in Press A and Press B.

Graph No. 5: showing mean scores of the different aspects of morale in Press A and Press B.

Questionnaire.

Questionnaire, translated into Gujarati.

BIBLIOGRAPHY.