ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator wishes to express her deep sense of gratitude to her advisor (late) Dr. Leela Shah, Dean, General Education, National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad for her able guidance and constant encouragement during the course of this study.

The investigator is extremely grateful to Dr. S.L. Mathur, Assistant Professor, Department of Extension, University of Udaipur, Udaipur without whose inspiring guidance, genius and stimulating suggestions and constructive criticism, this piece of work would have not been completed.

The investigator is greatly indebted to Mr. B.L. Agrawal, Assistant Professor, Department of Statistics, University of Udaipur for providing the necessary help in statistical analysis and to Mrs. O.K. Henary, Assistant Professor, Department of English, University of Udaipur for going through the manuscript and suggesting the necessary corrections in the language.

She is also grateful to Dr. P. Sundaram, Dean, College of Home Science, Udaipur and Dr. Leela Phadnis, the then Dean, for their constant encouragement during the course of investigation.

Her special acknowledgements are also due to the Head Mistresses, teachers and student of Higher Secondary Schools of Rajasthan offering home science group and the Board of Secondary Education Rajasthan who willingly and graciously cooperated in collecting the data for this study.

Thanks are also due to various experts in the Home Science College and Mr. D.G. Chowdhery, Lecturer, B.N. College, Udaipur, who helped the investigator in developing the model syllabus and blue print of home science block for the higher secondary schools.

Thanks are due to Shri P.S. Chauhan, for readily agreeing to undertake the responsibility for cutting the stencils for the thesis.

Last but not the least, the investigator is thankful to her husband and her children whose patience and cooperation at all the stages could enable her to complete this work.
