ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. S.K. Kashyap, my Research Guide, and Deputy Director, National Institute of Occupational Health, Ahmedabad, for his valuable guidance, supervision and constant help during the course of the present study.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. S.K. Chatterjee, Ex-Director, and Dr. B.B. Chatterjee, Director, National Institute of Occupational Health, Ahmedabad, for providing me the necessary facilities and the inspiration given in the carrying out of this work.

My thanks are due to Late Dr. N.L. Ramanathan, Ex-Director, Department of Environment, Government of India, New Delhi, for all the encouragement given to me during the present study.

I also express my heart-felt indebtedness and thankfulness to Dr. D.J. Parikh, Assistant Director, National Institute of Occupational Health, Ahmedabad, for the constant help given to me for this study.

My sincere thanks are also due to the Staff members of Occupational Hygiene Division of the Institute for their help rendered throughout the course of the work.
I acknowledge the assistance given by Mr. C. N. Rawal, Sr. Librarian, Mr. P. K. Kulkarni, Research Officer and Mr. V. G. Patel, Asstt. Research Officer of the Statistics Division, and Mr. B. C. Lakkad, Research Officer, E. C. U. Division, of the Institute at various stages of this study.

I also acknowledge Mr. P. A. Thomas for the secretarial assistance rendered by him in the completion of this Thesis.

I must also acknowledge the co-operation extended by the Managements and the Workers of the ceramic factories included in this study, and I express my thanks to all of them.

My sincere thanks are also due to the President of the Ceramic Association, Thangadh, Management of the Parshuram Pottery, Thangadh and the Owner of Prabhat Pottery, Ahmedabad, for their co-operation in carrying out this study.

Finally, my special thanks are due to my wife, Mrs. Urmila N. Ghodasara and other family members whose love and inspiration helped me to make the present study interesting and pleasant.

(N. B. Ghodasara)