*Section 6 of Bom. 49 of 1955, reads as follows:—

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of a Court, the Amendments, amendments made by section 3 and 4 of this Act shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the date on which the Bombay Industrial Relations Act, came into force: Provided that nothing in this section shall render any person liable to conviction of an offence in respect of any act committed by him before the date of the coming into force of the Act, if such act was not an offence under the said Act at aforesaid date, but for the provisions of this section.

†The Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 has been extended to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat by Bombay Industrial Relations (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1961 (Guj. XX of 1961), s. 2. Section 2 of Guj. XX of 1961 runs as follows, namely:—

Bom. 2. The Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 as in force in the Bombay area of the State of Bombay, XI of 1947, is hereby extended to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat.

Section 3 of Guj. 18 of 1968 reads as under:—

3. The Bombay Industrial Relations (Gujarat Amendment) Ordinance, 1968, is hereby repealed. The provisions of sections 7 and 25 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 shall apply to such repeal as if that Ordinance were an enactment.
An Act to regulate the relations of employers and employees, to make provision for settlement of industrial disputes and to provide for certain other purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the regulation of the relations of employers and employees in certain matters, to consolidate and amend the law relating to the settlement of industrial disputes and to provide for certain other purposes. It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946.

Extent, commencement and application.

2. [(i) This Act extends to the whole of the State of Gujarat.]

[(ii) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.]

[(iii) In those areas of the State of Gujarat to which it is extended by the Bombay Industrial Relations (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1961, it shall come into force on such other date as the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.]

[(iv) In the areas in which the Bombay Industrial Disputes Act, 1938, was in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, this Act shall apply to the industries to which the said Act applied:

Provided that this Act shall cease to apply with effect from the date on which the Bombay Industrial Relations (Amendment) Act, 1949, comes into force to the Imperial Bank of India and any banking company as defined in section 5 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, having branches or other establishments in more than one State.]

1 This was substituted for the original by Guj. 20 of 1961, s. 3(a).
2 Sub-section (2) was renumbered as (2) (a) and clause (5) was inserted ibid., s. 3(b).
3 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.

The Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 has been extended to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat by Bombay Industrial Relations (Gujarat Extension and Amendment) Act, 1961 (Guj. XX of 1961) s. 2, section 2 of Guj. XX of 1961 runs as follows, namely:—

Extension of Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 as in force in the Bombay area of the State of Bombay to Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat immediately before the commencement of this Act, is hereby extended to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat.

2. The Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 as in force in the Bombay area of the State of Bombay immediately before the commencement of this Act, is hereby extended to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State of Gujarat.

4. This proviso was added by Bom. 55 of 1949, s. 2. Addition of the said proviso shall not affect any proceedings, other than a proceeding in respect of a reference made to the State Government or any officer or authority subordinate to it, pending before the Industrial Court or a Labour Court or the Registrar on the date on which Bom. 55 of 1949 comes into force and to which the Imperial Bank of India or a banking company referred to in the said proviso is a party, and such proceeding shall be continued and disposed of as if Bom. 55 of 1949 had not been passed. (vide s. 20, of Bom. 55 of 1949).

(4) Every member of the Industrial Court shall be a person who is or has been a judge of a High Court or is eligible for being appointed a judge of such Court [or has presided over a Labour Court for not less than ten years]:

Provided that one member may be a person not so eligible if in the opinion of the State Government he possesses expert knowledge of industrial matters:

Provided further that a member, who before his appointment as such member has presided over a Labour Court for not less than ten years shall notwithstanding anything contained in section 92, be eligible for appointment on a Bench of the Industrial Court consisting only of one member and section 92 shall have effect accordingly].

CHAPTER III.

REGISTRATION OF UNIONS.

11. The Registrar may after making such inquiry as he deems fit, recognise for the purposes of this Act—

(1) any concern in an industry to be an undertaking;

(2) any section of an undertaking to be an occupation.

12. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to maintain in such forms as may be prescribed—

(a) registers of unions registered by him under the provisions of this Act, and

(b) a list of approved unions.

13. (1) Any union which has for the whole of the period of three calendar months immediately preceding the calendar month in which it so applies under this section a membership of not less than twenty-five per cent of the total number of employees employed in any industry in any local area may apply in the prescribed form to the Registrar for registration as a Representative Union for such industry in such local area.

1 These words were inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 3.
2 This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.
3 This provision was inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 3.
4 These words were substituted for the words “three months next preceding the date of its so applying” by Bom. 63 of 1953, s. 3.
5 These words were substituted for the words “not less than fifteen per cent.” by Guj. 22 of 1963, s. 3(c).
(2) If in any local area no Representative Union has been registered in respect of an industry a union which has for the whole of the period of [three calendar months immediately preceding the calendar month in which it so applies] under this section a membership of not less than five per cent of the total number of employees employed in such industry in the said area may apply in the prescribed form to the Registrar for registration as a Qualified Union for such industry in such local area.

(3) If in any local area, neither a Representative Union nor a Qualified Union has been registered in respect of an industry a union having a membership of not less than fifteen per cent of the total number of employees employed in any undertaking in such industry in the said area and complying with the conditions specified in section 23 as necessary for its being placed on the approved list may apply in the prescribed form to the Registrar for registration as a Primary Union for such industry in such local area.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if a union makes a fresh application for registration as a Representative Union, Qualified Union, or as the case may be, Primary Union, the Registrar shall not entertain such application unless a period of one year has elapsed since the date of disposal by the Registrar of the previous application of that union for such registration.

14. On receipt of an application from a union for registration under section 13 and on payment of the fee prescribed, the Registrar, shall, if after holding such inquiry as he deems fit he comes to the conclusion that the conditions requisite for registration specified in the said section are satisfied and that the union is not otherwise disqualified for registration, enter the name of the union in the appropriate register maintained under section 12 and issue a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed:

Provided—

Firstly, that in any local area there shall not at any time be more than one registered union in respect of the same industry:

Secondly, that in any local area the Registrar shall in respect of an industry register a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration as a representative Union in preference to one not fulfilling the said conditions and failing such a union a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration as a Qualified Union in preference to one not fulfilling such conditions:

1 These words were substituted for the words "three months next preceding the date of its application by Bom. 03 of 1953, s. 3.

Thirdly, that--

(i) where two or more unions fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration apply in the same calendar month for registration in respect of the same industry in any local area, subject to the provisions of the second proviso, the union having the largest membership of employees employed in the industry during the whole of the period of three calendar months immediately preceding that in which the applications were made shall be registered and any application made in any subsequent calendar months shall not be considered by the Registrar until the applications made in the earlier calendar month are disposed of by him;

(ii) where a union fulfilling the conditions necessary for registration makes an application during any calendar month for registration in respect of an industry in any local area any application in any subsequent calendar month by any other union for registration in respect of the same industry shall not be considered by the Registrar until the former application is disposed of by him;

Fourthly, that the Registrar shall not register any union if he is satisfied that the application for its registration is not made bona-fide in the interest of the employees but is made in the interest of the employers to the prejudice of the interest of the employees;

Fifthly that the Registrar shall not register any union if at any time, within six months immediately preceding the date of the application for registration or thereafter the union has instigated, aided or assisted the commencement or continuation of a strike or stoppage which has been held or declared to be illegal;

Sixthly, that the Registrar shall not register any union, if the rules of the union relating to its members contain any provision debarring an employee in the industry concerned from being a member of such union on the ground that he is or is not an employee in any particular undertaking in the said industry.

1 This was substituted for the third proviso by S. 8 of 1967, s. 4.
2 This portion was added by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 3.
Cancellation of registration.

15. The Registrar shall cancel the registration of a union

(a) if the Industrial Court directs that the registration of such union shall be cancelled;

(b) if [after giving notice to such union to show cause why its registration should not be cancelled and] after holding such inquiry, if any, as he deems fit, he is satisfied—

(i) that it was registered under mistake, misrepresentation or fraud; or

(ii) that the membership of the union has for a continuous period of three [calendar months] fallen below the minimum required under section 13 of its registration:

Provided that where a strike or a closure not being an illegal strike or closure under this Act in an industry involving more than a third of the employees in the industry in the area has extended to a period exceeding fourteen days in any calendar month, such month shall be excluded in computing the said period of three months:

Provided further that the registration of a union shall not be cancelled under the provisions of this sub-clause unless its membership [for the calendar month in which show cause notice under this section was issued was] less than such minimum; or

(iii) that the registered union being a Primary Union has after registration failed to observe any of the conditions specified in section 23; or

(iv) that the registered union is not being conducted bona fide in the interests of employees but in the interests of employers to the prejudice of the interests of employees; or

(v) that it has instigated, aided or assisted the commencement or continuation of [a strike or a stoppage which has been held or declared to be illegal];

(c) if its registration under the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, is XVI cancelled.

1 These words were inserted by Bom. 63 of 1953, s. 4(1).
2 These words were substituted for the word "months", ibid., s. 4(2).
3 These words were substituted for the words "at the time of the cancellation is", ibid., s. 43.
4 These words were substituted for the original by Bom. 74 of 1978, s. 4.
16. (1) If at any time any union (hereinafter in this section referred to as "applicant union") makes an application to the Registrar for being registered in place of the union already registered (hereinafter in this section referred to as "registered union") for an industry, in a local area, on the ground that it has a larger membership of employees employed in such industry the Registrar shall call upon the registered union by a notice in writing to show cause within thirty days of the receipt of such notice why the applicant union should not be registered in its place. An application made under this sub-section shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed:

Provided that the Registrar shall not entertain any application for registration of a union, unless a period of one year has elapsed since the date of disposal of the previous application of the union.

(2) The Registrar shall forward to the Labour Officer a copy of the said application and notice.

(3) If, on the expiry of the period of notice under sub-section (1), after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, the Registrar, comes to the conclusion that the applicant union complies with the conditions necessary for registration specified in section 13, and that its membership was during the whole of the period of three calendar months immediately preceding the calendar month in which it made the application under this section larger than the membership of the registered union, he shall subject to the provisions of section 14 register the applicant union in place of the registered union and issue certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed:

(4) Every application made under this section shall be published in the prescribed manner not less than 14 days before the expiry of the period of notice under sub-section (1).

17. (1) Any union the registration of which has been cancelled on the ground that it was registered under a mistake or on the ground specified in sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of section 15 may, at any time after three months from the date of such cancellation and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed, apply for re-registration. The provisions of sections 13 and 14 shall apply in respect of such application.

(2) A union the registration of which has been cancelled on any other ground shall not, save with the permission of the State Government, be entitled to apply for re-registration.

1 These words were inserted by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 4(c).
2 These words were substituted for the words "three months immediately preceding at the date of the application" by Bom. 83 of 1953, s. 3(2).
3 These words were added at the end of s. 18 (3) by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 5.
Liability of union or members not relieved by Cancellation.

18. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the cancellation of the registration of a union shall not relieve the union or any member thereof from any penalty or liability incurred under this Act prior to such cancellation.

Periodical returns to be submitted to Registrar.

19. Every registered union shall submit to the Registrar on such dates and in such manner as may be prescribed, periodical returns of its membership.

Appeal to Industrial Court from order of Registrar.

20. (1) Any party to a proceeding before the Registrar may within 30 days from the date of an order passed by the Registrar under this Chapter, appeal against such order to the Industrial Court:

Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient reason admit any appeal made after the expiry of such period.

(2) The Industrial Court may admit an appeal under sub-section (1) if on a perusal of the memorandum of appeal and the decision appealed against it finds that the decision is contrary to law or otherwise erroneous.

(3) The Industrial Court in appeal may confirm, modify or rescind any order passed by the Registrar and may pass such consequential orders as it may deem fit. A copy of the orders passed by the Industrial Court shall be sent to the Registrar.

Publication of order.

21. Every order passed under sections 14, 15 or 16 and every order passed in appeal under section 20 shall be published in the prescribed manner.

Registration of union for more than one local area.

22. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a union may in the prescribed manner be registered for an industry for more local areas than one.

CHAPTER IV.

APPROVED UNIONS.

23. (1) On an application being made in the prescribed form, by a union for being entered in the approved list, the Registrar may after holding such inquiry as he deems fit enter the union in such list if he is satisfied that the union has made rules that the provisions of the said rules are being duly observed by the unions, and that the rules provide, that—

(i) its membership subscription shall be not less than 50 paise per month;

1 The words “cancelling registration” were deleted by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 5.
2 These words were substituted for the words “four annas”, ibid., s. 6(9) (i).
(ii) its executive committee shall meet at intervals of not more than three months;

(iii) all resolutions passed, whether by the executive committee or the general body of the union, shall be recorded in a minute book kept for the purpose;

(iv) an auditor appointed by Government may audit its accounts at least once in each financial year;

If every industrial dispute in which an agreement or settlement is not reached shall be offered to be submitted to arbitration or for decision to a Wage Board as may be mutually agreed upon and that if at any time an employer agrees to refer all disputes, as then existing and to which the union is a party to arbitration of the Industrial Court under Chapter XI, such arbitration shall not be refused by it;

(vi) no strike shall be sanctioned or resorted to by it unless all the methods provided by or under this Act for the settlement of an industrial dispute have been exhausted and the majority of its members vote by ballot in favour of such strike;

Provided that the Registrar shall not enter a union in the approved list if he is satisfied that it is not being conducted bona-fide in the interest of its members, but to their prejudice.

Explanation.—"Member" for the purposes of clause (vi) means a member of the union for the purposes of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926.

(2) The Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that in the case of any union or class of unions specified in the notification the membership subscription may, subject to a minimum of fifty paise, per month, be less than fifty paise.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) there shall not at any time be more than one approved union in respect of any industry in a local area:

1 Clause (e) was substituted for the original clause (e) by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 6(1)(i).
2 Clause (e) was substituted for the existing clause by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 6(e) (ii).
3 Clause (vi) was deleted by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 6(f)(ii).
4 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.
5 These words were substituted for the words "two annas," by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 6(6).
6 These words were substituted for the words "four annas" ibid.
Provided that where two or more unions satisfying the conditions necessary for being entered in the approved list under sub-section (1) apply in the same calendar month for being so entered in respect of the same industry in any local area, union having the largest membership of employees employed in the industry during the calendar month immediately preceding that in which the applications were made shall be entered in the approved list and any applications were made in subsequent calendar months shall not be considered by the Registrar until the applications made in the earlier calendar months are disposed of by him:

Provided further that where a union satisfying the conditions necessary for being entered in the approved list applies in any calendar month for being so entered in respect of an industry in any local area, any application in any subsequent calendar month by any other union for being so entered in respect of the same industry shall not be considered by the Registrar until the former application is disposed of by him.

(4) Any union complying with the conditions specified in sub-section (1) and having a larger membership in an industry in a local area than an approved union for such industry shall on application in that behalf be entered in the approved list in place of such approved union by the Registrar after holding such inquiry as he deems fit if he is satisfied that the membership of the applicant union had in the calendar month in which the application was made as also in the calendar month immediately preceding it was respectively larger than the membership of the approved unions in those months. The provisions of sub-section (3) shall mutatis mutandis apply to such application:

Provided that the Registrar shall not entertain—

(a) any such application unless a period of two years has elapsed since the approved union was entered in the approved list;

(b) any fresh application by the same union, unless a period of one year has elapsed from the date of disposal of its previous application by the Registrar.

1 These provisos were added by Guj. 8 of 1962 s. 6(2).
2 These words were inserted by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 6 (c) (i).

5 This proviso was added to sub-section (4) by Guj. 22 of 1966 s. 6(c) (ii).
[23A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 23, if there is any alteration in the local area or areas,—

(a) an approved union in an industry in the altered local area or areas, or

(b) where two or more approved unions exist in an industry in the altered local area or areas the union having the largest membership, whether by agreement of the other approved union or as determined by the Registrar after such inquiry as he deems fit, shall continue to have all the rights and privileges of an approved union in respect of its members for the altered local area or areas, as the case may be, for a period of twelve months from the date on which such alteration is effected, or where such approved union or any other union in the altered local area or areas makes an application under section 23 within such period until the disposal of such application by the Registrar.

24. The Registrar shall remove a union from the approved list if its registration under the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, is cancelled, and may also remove a union if after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, he is satisfied that it—

(i) was entered in the list under mistake, misrepresentation or fraud, or

(ii) has, since being included in the approved list, failed to observe the conditions specified in section 23, [or]

(iii) as instigated, added or assisted the commencement or continuance of a strike or a stoppage which has been held or declared to be illegal.

24A. (1) Any party to a proceeding before the Registrar, may, within thirty days from the date of an order passed by the Registrar under this Chapter, appeal against such order to the Industrial Court:

Provided that, the Industrial Court may for sufficient reason admit any appeal made after the expiry of such period.

5. Section 24A was inserted ibid., s. 9.
(2) The provisions of sub-section (2) and (3) of section 20 shall apply mutatis mutandis to an appeal under this section.]

25. [Such officers, members of the office staff] and members of an approved union as may be authorised by or under rules made in this behalf by the [State] Government shall, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, have a right, and shall be permitted by the employer concerned—

(a) to collect sums payable by members to the union on the premises where wages are paid to them;

(b) to put up or cause to be put up a notice board on the premises of the undertaking in which its members are employed and affix or cause to be affixed notices thereon;

(c) for the purpose of the prevention or settlement of an industrial dispute—

(i) to hold discussions on the premises of the undertaking with the employees concerned who are the members of the union;

(ii) to meet and discuss with an employer or any person appointed by him for the purpose the grievances of its members employed in his undertaking;

(iii) to inspect, if necessary, in any undertaking any place where any member of the union is employed;

[(d) to remain present during a departmental enquiry against an employee who is a member of that union].

26. (I) An approved union entitled to appear—

(a) before a Labour Court in a proceeding for determining whether a strike, lock-out, closure, stoppage or change is illegal, or

(b) before the Industrial Court in a proceeding involving in the opinion of the Court an important question of law or fact, may apply to the Court for the grant of legal aid at the expense of the [State] Government.

5. These words were inserted by Bom. 74 of 1948 s. 6.
(2) A copy of every application made under sub-section (1) shall be sent to the Registrar with the least practicable delay.

(3) The Court to which an application is made under sub-section (1) may, if it thinks fit, fix for the hearing of the application a day of which at least three days' clear notice shall be given to the Registrar.

(4) On the day fixed, or as soon, thereafter as may be convenient, the Court shall examine the witnesses, if any, produced by the union and the Registrar, and may also examine the officers of the union, and shall make a memorandum of the substance of such evidence.

(5) The Court may after considering the evidence adduced under sub-section (4) either grant or refuse the application.

(6) The [State] Government may in consultation with the Industrial Court prescribe the fees for legal advice to, and appear on behalf of a union before a Court.

(7) For the purposes of this section, legal aid includes advice to the union and the appearance before a Court of a legal practitioner on behalf of the union.

CHAPTER V.

REPRESENTATIVES OF EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES, AND APPEARANCE ON THEIR BEHALF.

27. (1) The [State] Government may from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette—

(a) recognise any combination of employers in an industry [in any local area] whether incorporated or not as an association of employers for the purposes of this Act, provided that one of the objects of such combination is the regulation of conditions of employment in the industry [in that local area];

(b) withdraw any recognition granted under clause (a):

Provided that no recognition shall be withdrawn unless an opportunity has been given to such association of employers to be heard.

1 This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2 These words were substituted by Guj. 8 of 1962 s. 11(1).

3 These words were inserted by Guj. 22 of 1966, s 7.
(2) In any proceeding under this Act an association of employers shall be entitled to represent—

(a) any employer who is a member of the association;

(b) any employer connected with the same industry not being a member of the association, who has intimated in writing to the prescribed authority that he has agreed to be represented by the association in such proceeding;

and any notice or intimation given by or to such association shall be deemed to have been given by or to every employer it is entitled to represent.

(3) Where more employers than one are affected or under any of the provisions of this Act deemed to be affected and no association of employers is under sub-section (2) entitled to represent all of them, the representative determined in the prescribed manner shall be entitled to act as their representative.

(4) Where in any proceeding under this Act, an employer is represented by an association of employers, a registered agreement, settlement, submission, or award to which such association is a party, shall be binding on such employer.

(5) Where in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (2) an association of employers represents any employers in any proceeding under this Act, it shall, at the earliest stage of the proceedings, furnish to the authority before whom it is held a list containing the names of the employers whom it represents.

27A. Save as provided in sections 32, 33 and 33A no employee shall be allowed to appear or act in any proceeding under this Act except through the representative of employees.

27B. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, on any alteration in any local area or areas any association of employers recognized under sub-section (1) of section 27 for the local area or areas immediately before such alteration, shall be entitled to represent the employers in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of that section in the altered local area or areas, as the case may be, for a period of twelve months from the date on which such alteration is effected.

1 Sub-sections (4) and (5) were inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962 s. 11(4).
2 Section 27A was inserted by Bom. 66 of 1940 s. 4.
3 Those words and figures were substituted for the words and figures "sections 32 and 33" by Guj. 20 of 1972 s 2.
4 Section 27B was inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962 s. 12.
28. (1) Where there is no Representative Union in respect of any industry in any local area, the employees in each undertaking in the industry and in each occupation therein, may, in the prescribed manner, elect five persons from among themselves to represent them for the purposes of this Act:

Provided that no such persons shall be elected for any occupation the number of employees in which does not exceed ten.

(2) The persons, if any, elected under sub-section (1) shall function in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Within 1[two years] from the date on which an election under sub-section (1) is held, and within each succeeding 1[two years] thereafter, a fresh election shall be held:

Provided that any person may be re-elected at any such election.

(4) The employees may in the prescribed manner recall any or all of the persons elected under sub-section (1) or (3).

(5) Vacancies in the number of the persons elected under sub-section (1) or (3) shall be filled by election in the prescribed manner.

29. Any act or decision of the majority of the persons elected under section 28 by any employees shall be deemed to be the act or decisions of all the persons so elected by them.

30. 1[Subject to the provisions of section 33-A, the following shall be entitled to appear or act] in the order of preference specified as the representative of employees in an industry in any local area—

(i) a Representative Union for such industry;

(ii) Qualified or Primary Union of which the majority of employees directly affected the change concerned are members;

(iii) any Qualified or Primary Union in respect of such industry authorised in the prescribed manner in that behalf by the employees concerned;

(iv) the Labour Officer if authorised by the employees concerned;

(v) the persons elected by the employees in accordance with provisions of section 28 or where the proviso to sub-section (1) thereof applies, the employees themselves;

1 These words were substituted for the words “twelve months” by Bom. 74 of 1948 s. 7.

2 These words, figures and letter were substituted for the words “The following shall be entitled to appear or act” by Gal. 20 of 1972 s. 3.
(vi) the Labour Officer:

Provided—

Firstly, that the persons entitled [to appear or act] under clause (e) may authorise any Qualified or Primary Union in respect of such industry [to appear or act] instead of them;

Secondly, that where the Labour Officer is the representative of the employees, he shall not enter into any agreement under section 44 or settlement under section 58 unless the terms of such agreement or settlement, as the case may be, are accepted by them in the prescribed manner;

Thirdly, where in any proceeding the persons entitled [to appear or act] under clause (e) are more than five, the prescribed number elected from amongst them in the prescribed manner shall be entitled [to appear or act] instead.

2[31. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if there is any alteration in any local area or areas notified for the purposes of this Act,—

(a) a registered or representative union entitled under this Act to appear or act as a representative of employees in an industry immediately before the alteration in the local area or areas concerned, or

(b) where more than one registered or representative union are entitled to appear or act as representative of employees in an industry under this section the union having the largest membership of employees employed in the industry, whether by agreement of the other registered or representative unions or as determined by the Registrar after such inquiry as he thinks fit, shall be entitled to appear or act for the altered local area or areas, as the case may be, for a period of twelve months from the date on which such alteration is effected, or if an application under section 13 is made within such period by such union or any other union in the altered local area or areas until the disposal of such application by the Registrar.]

3[32. A Conciliator, a Board, an Arbitrator, a Wage Board, a Labour Court and the Industrial Court may, if he or it considers it expedient for the ends of justice, permit an individual, whether an employee or not, to appear in any proceeding before him or it:

2 Section 31 was substituted for the original by Bom. 63 of 1983 s. 9.
3 Section 33 was substituted for the original by Bom. 55 of 1949, s. 7.
1 [Provided that subject to the provisions of section 33A] no such individual shall be permitted to appear in any proceedings (not being a proceeding before a Labour Court or the Industrial Court in which the legality or propriety of an order of dismissal, discharge, removal) retrenchment, termination of service or suspension of an employee is under consideration in which a Representative Union has appeared as the representative of employees.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, an employee (or a representative union) shall be entitled to appear through any person,

(a) in all proceedings before the Industrial Court;

(b) in proceedings before a Labour Court for deciding whether a strike, lock-out, (closure or stoppage) or change or an order passed by an employer under the standing orders is illegal [if under this Act, for deciding any industrial dispute referred to it under section 72] provided that a legal practitioner shall not be permitted under clause (c) to appear in any proceeding under this Act, except before a Labour Court or the Industrial Court;

(c) in such other proceedings as the Industrial Court may, on application made in the behalf, permit:

Provided that a legal practitioner shall not be permitted under clause (c) to appear in any proceeding under this Act, except before a Labour Court or the Industrial Court:

9 [Provided further that, subject to the provisions of section 33A] no employee shall be entitled to appear through any person in any proceeding under this Act (not being a proceeding before a Labour Court or the Industrial Court in which the legality or propriety of an order of dismissal, discharge, removal, retrenchment, termination of service or suspension of an employee is under consideration) under this Act in which a Representative Union has appeared as the representative of employees.

[33A. (1) In any dispute between the employees and employers referred to arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court, under section 72, all persons, who are parties to the dispute, shall be entitled to appear and act in the proceedings before such Court:

Provided that, where the number of employees on either side exceeds five, then such employees shall elect in the manner prescribed, two persons from amongst themselves to appear and act for them.

(2) If a Representative Union desires to be heard in respect of such dispute it may, on application made to the Court also be heard by such Court.

CHAPTER VI.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF LABOUR OFFICERS.

34. (1) A Labour Officer shall exercise the powers conferred, and perform the duties imposed on him by or under this Act.

(2) For the purpose of exercising such powers and performing such duties a Labour Officer may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, at any time during the working hours and outside working hours after reasonable notice enter and inspect—

(a) any place used for the purpose of any industry;

(b) any place used as the office of any union;

(c) any premises provided by an employer for the residence of his employees, and shall be entitled to call for and inspect all relevant documents which he may deem necessary for the due discharge of his duties and powers under this Act.

(3) All particulars contained in or information obtained from any document inspected or called for under sub-section (2) shall, if the person in whose possession the document was so required, be treated as confidential.

(4) A Labour Officer may, after giving reasonable notice, convene a meeting of employees for any of the purposes of this Act, on the premises where they are employed and may require the employer to affix a written notice of the meeting at such conspicuous place in such premises as he may order and may also himself affix or cause to be affixed such notice. The notice shall specify the date, time and place of the meeting, the employees or class of employees affected and the purpose for which the meeting is convened:

Provided that during the continuance of a lock-out which is not illegal, no meeting of employees affected thereby shall be convened on such premises without the employer’s consent.

(5) A Labour Officer shall be entitled to appear in any proceeding under this Act.

Note: This section was inserted by Gaj. 20 of 1972, s. 6.
(6) It shall be the duty of the Labour Officer to—

(a) watch the interests of employees and promote harmonious relations between employers and employees;

(b) investigate the grievances of employees and represent to employers such grievances and make recommendations to them in consultation with the employees concerned for their redress;

(c) report to the [State] Government the existence of any industrial dispute of which no notice of change has been given, together with the names of the parties thereto:

Provided that the Labour Officer shall not—

(a) appear in any proceeding in which the employees who are parties thereto are represented by a Representative Union;

(b) where there is 2[an approved union] for an industry in a local area, 3[except after consultation with such union], act under clause (b) of sub-section (6) in respect of the employees.

CHAPTER VII.

STANDING ORDERS.

35. (1) Within six weeks from the date of the application of this Act to an industry every employer therein shall submit for approval to the Commissioner of Labour in the prescribed manner draft standing orders regulating relations between him and his employees with regard to the industrial matters mentioned in Schedule 1:

Provided that where an undertaking in an industry is started after the application of this Act to such industry, the draft standing orders shall be submitted within six months of the starting of the undertaking.

(2) On receipt of the draft standing orders the Commissioner of Labour, shall, after consulting in the prescribed manner the representative of employees and employers and such other interests concerned in the industry and making such inquiry as he deems fit, settle the said standing orders.

(3) The Commissioner of Labour shall forward a copy of the standing orders so settled to the Registrar, who shall within fifteen days of their receipt record them in the register kept for the purpose.

(4) Standing orders so settled shall come into operation from the date of their record in the register under sub-section (3).

1 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
2 These words were substituted for the words "a Representative Union" by Bombay Act 43 of 1958, s. 5.
3 These words were substituted for the words "except at the request of the union" by Gujarat Act 29 of 1972 s. 7.
28 Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946

(5) Until standing orders in respect of an undertaking come into operation under the provisions of sub-section (4), model standing orders, if any, notified in the Official Gazette by the [State] Government in respect of the industry shall apply to such undertaking.

36. (1) Any person aggrieved by any standing orders settled by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (2) of section 35 may within thirty days from the date of their coming into operation appeal to the Industrial Court:

Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient cause, admit any appeal after the expiry of the period of thirty days.

(2) On an appeal being filed, the Industrial Court may on the application of any party to such appeal and on such conditions as it may think fit stay the operation of all or any of such standing orders until the appeal is decided.

(3) The Industrial Court in appeal may confirm, modify, add to or rescind all or any of such standing orders.

(4) The Industrial Court shall fix the date on which all or any of the standing orders settled by it under sub-section (3) shall come into operation.

(5) A copy of the orders passed by the Industrial Court under sub-section (3) shall be sent to the Registrar who shall record them in the register referred to in sub-section (3) of section 35.

37. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Industrial Court under section 36 may within thirty days from the date of the decision apply to the Industrial Court for a review of the said decision.

[Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient cause admit any such application after the expiry of the said period of thirty days.]

(2) The Industrial Court shall not grant such application unless it is satisfied that there has been a discovery of new and important matter or evidence which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the party making the application or could not be produced by him at the time when its decision was made, or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or that there is any other sufficient reason for granting such application.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4), and (5) of section 36 shall, so far as may be, apply to proceedings under sub-section (2) in the same manner as they apply to an appeal against standing orders settled by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (2) of section 35.

38. (1) No alteration shall be made for a period of one year from the date of its coming into operation in any standing order settled under any of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter except by the Industrial Court in appeal or review, where such appeal or review lies.

1. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. The Proviso was added by Bom. 63 of 1953, s. 10.
Any employer or employee may apply to the Commissioner of Labour for a change in—

(a) any standing order settled under sub-section (2) of section 35, which has not been appealed against, or

(b) any standing order settled in appeal under sub-section (2) of section 36, in respect of which no application for review has been made, or

(c) any standing order settled in review under section 37, after the expiry of one year from the date of such standing order coming into operation.

39. (1) On receipt of an application under sub-section (2) of section 38 the Commissioner of Labour shall, after giving the other party an opportunity of being heard and after consulting such other interests in the industry as in his opinion are affected, pass such order as he deems fit, and, if the order effects an alteration in any standing order, forward a copy of the standing order as so altered to the Registrar who shall, within fifteen days of its receipt record it in the register referred to in sub-section (5) of section 35. The standing order as so altered shall come into operation from the date of its record in the register.

(2) The provisions of sections 36, 37 and 38 shall, so far as may be, apply to an order passed by the Commissioner of Labour under sub-section (1) in the same manner as they apply to standing orders settled under sub-section (2) of section 35.

40. (1) Standing orders in respect of an employer and his employees settled under this Chapter and in operation, or where there are no such standing orders, model standing orders, if any, applicable under the provisions of sub-section (5) of section 35 shall be determinative of the relations between the employer and his employees in regard to all industrial matters specified in Schedule I.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Government may refer, or an employee or a representative union may apply in respect of any dispute of the nature referred to in clause (a) of paragraph A of section 78, to a Labour Court.

The provisions of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946, shall not apply to any industry to which the provisions of this Chapter are applied.

1 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
2 These words were inserted by Bom. 63 of 1953, s. 11.
CHAPTER VIII

Changes

42. (1) Any employer intending to effect any change in respect of an industrial matter specified in Schedule II shall give notice of such intention in the prescribed form to the representative of employees. He shall send a copy of such notice to the Chief Conciliator, the Conciliator for the industry concerned for the local area, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed. He shall also affix a copy of such notice at a conspicuous place on the premises where the employees affected by the change are employed for work and at such other place as may be directed by the Chief Conciliator in any particular case.

(2) An employee desiring a change in respect of an industrial matter not specified in Schedule I or III shall give notice in the prescribed form to the employer through the representative of employees, who shall forward a copy of the notice to the Chief Conciliator, the Conciliator for the industry concerned for the local area, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed.

(3) When no settlement is arrived at in any conciliation proceeding in regard to any industrial dispute which has arisen in consequence of a notice relating to any change given under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), no fresh notice with regard to the same change or a change similar in all material particulars shall be given before the expiry of two months from the date of the completion of the proceeding within the meaning of section 63. If at any time after the expiry of the said period of two months, any employer or employee again desires the same change or a change similar in all material particulars, he shall give fresh notice in the manner provided in sub-section (1) or (2) as the case may be.

(4) Any employee [or a representative union] desiring a change in respect of (i) any order passed by [the] employer under standing orders, or (ii) any industrial matter arising out of the application or interpretation of standing orders, or (iii) an industrial matter specified in Schedule III, shall make an application to the Labour Court:

Provided that no such application shall lie unless the employee [or a representative union] has in the prescribed manner approached [the] employer with a request for the change and no agreement has been arrived at in respect of the change within the prescribed period.

43. 3(1) Where an employer gives notice of a proposed change under sub-section (1) of section 42 affecting some of the employees in an industry in a local area, any other employer or an association of employers or the representative of any employees engaged in the industry in the local area may, within seven days from the date of service of such notice, intimate in writing to such employer that other employers, or as the case may be, other employees, engaged in the industry in the area and mentioned in such intimation are affected by the change. The employer or employees concerned shall affix a copy of such intimation at a conspicuous place on every premises where the employees concerned are employed for work.

(2) Where an employee gives notice of a proposed change under sub-section
(2) of section 42 affecting one or some of the employers in an industry in a local area the representative of employees or any employer or an association of employers engaged in the industry in the local area may, within seven days from the date of service of such notice, give a special notice in writing to the employee and his employer, or as the case may be, the representative of employees.
that other employees or as the case may be, other employers, engaged in the industry in the area and mentioned in such special notice, are affected by the change. The employer or employers concerned shall affix a copy of such special notice at a conspicuous place on every premises where the employees concerned are employed for work.

(3) A copy of every intimation under sub-section (1) and special notice under sub-section (2) shall be sent to the Commissioner of labour, the Chief Conciliator
the Conciliator for the industry concerned for the local area, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed.

(4) On an intimation being given under sub-section (1) or a special notice being given under sub-section (2) and the provisions of sub-section (3) being complied with, the employees mentioned in the intimation or employers mentioned in the special notice, as the case may be, shall also, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be affected by such change, and to have been given notice under sub-section (1) or (2), as the case may be, of section 42.

(5) Where an employer or an employee gives a notice of a proposed change under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, of section 42, and such change, in the opinion of the [State] Government affects the majority of employers or employees engaged in an industry or occupation in the local area, the [State] Government may by notification in the Official Gazette declare that the whole of such industry or occupation, as the case may be, is affected by such change and thereupon it shall be deemed to be so affected.

44. (1) If within seven days from the date of service of a notice under Agreement
Regarding section 42 or an intimation or special notice under section 43, or the date of change, publishation of a notification under sub-section (5) of section 43 or within such further period as may be mutually fixed by the employers affected and the representative of the employees affected an agreement is arrived at in regard to the proposed change, a memorandum of such agreement signed by the employer or employers as well as by the representative of employees shall be rewarded in the prescribed manner to the Chief Conciliator, the Registrar and the Labour Officer:

This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
Provided that where the employees deemed to be affected under sub-section (4) of section 43 are in the opinion of the [State] Government the majority of the employees in the industry, or the whole industry is deemed to be affected under sub-section (5) thereof, the Labour Officer shall not enter into any agreement under this sub-section.

(2) On receipt of such memorandum of agreement the Registrar shall enter the same in a register maintained for the purpose unless on inquiry he is satisfied that the agreement was in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or was the result of mistake, misrepresentation, fraud, undue influence, coercion or threat.

(3) An appeal shall lie to the Industrial Court against an order of the Registrar refusing to register an agreement under sub-section (2). The provisions of section 20 shall apply to such appeal.

Registration of agreements under section 43 (4). Where an agreement referred to in the proviso to sub-section (4) of section 42 is arrived at, a memorandum of such agreement may be forwarded by either party to the Registrar by registered post. The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 44 shall then apply for registration of such agreement.

Certain settlements deemed to be agreements. Where a settlement is arrived at within two months from the date of the completion of any conciliation proceedings, such settlement shall be deemed to be an agreement for the purposes of section 44 and the provisions of the said section 44 shall apply for registration of such agreement.

Agreement to come into force. An agreement registered under section 44 shall come into operation on the date specified therein or if no date is so specified on its being recorded by the Registrar.

Illegal change. (1) No employer shall make any change in any standing order settled under Chapter VII without following the procedure prescribed thereof in this Act.

(2) No employer shall make any change in any industrial matter mentioned in Schedule II—

3{'ai} before giving notice of the change as required by the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 42;

(i) within the period provided for in sub-section (1) of section 44 unless an agreement is arrived at;

(iii) where no settlement is arrived at, after two months from the date of the completion of the proceedings before the Conciliator;

(iv) in cases where there is a registered submission or in which the dispute has been referred to arbitration, before the date on which the award comes into operation;

(v) in cases where such matter or a dispute regarding such matter has been referred to a Wage Board for decision, before the date on which the decision comes into operation.]

(3) No employer shall make any such change in contravention of the terms of a settlement, effective award, registered agreement or effective order or decision of a Wage Board.

(4) Any change made in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), (2) or (3) shall be illegal.

(5) Failure to carry out the terms of any settlement, award, registered agreement or effective order or decision of a Wage Board, Labour Court or the Industrial Court affecting industrial matters shall be deemed to be an illegal change.

47. An employer required under the terms of any effective decision or order of a Wage Board, Labour Court or the Industrial Court to carry out a change to make or withdraw an illegal change, shall comply with such requirement within such time as the Wage Board or Court giving or making the decision or order time, prescribes and where no time is prescribed by it within fortyeight hours of the giving or making of the decision or the order or as the case may be, of the declaration referred to in section 76-A or 86-F.

JOINT COMMITTEES

48. (1) A Joint Committee may be constituted for an undertaking or occupation with the consent of the employer and the registered union for the industry of the Joint Committee for the local area and shall be constituted irrespective of such consent, if the Provided that no Joint Committee shall be so constituted in respect of an undertaking or occupation where there is no representative union, unless not less than fifteen per cent. of the employees are members of a registered union.

(2) On application made in this behalf by the employer or the union to the registrar, a Joint Committee shall be entered in a list of Joint Committees maintained by him, and thereupon all the provisions of this Act shall apply to the Joint Committee.

(3) Every Joint Committee shall stand dissolved whenever the condition specified in the proviso to sub-section (1) ceases to be complied with; and a Joint Committee constituted with the consent of the employer and the registered union shall also stand dissolved on the expiry of the period of a three months' notice in that behalf being given by the employer to the union, or by the union to the employer.

49. (1) A Joint Committee shall consist of such number of members as may be prescribed; half the number shall in the prescribed manner be nominated by the union from among employees in the undertaking or occupation concerned, and the other half appointed by the employer concerned.

(2) A Chairman shall be appointed in accordance with rules made in this behalf. He shall perform his duties in the prescribed manner.

50. (1) A representative of the registered union may attend any meeting of the Joint Committee, to advise the members representing the employees.

(2) The proceedings of the Joint Committee shall be conducted in the manner prescribed.

(3) The proceedings shall be recorded in a minute book in a language understood by a majority of the employees.

51. (1) Any member of a Joint Committee may move a proposal for regarding any change other than a change in any standing order or regarding change, any other matter affecting the relations between the employer and the employees in the undertaking or occupation, as the case may be, for which the Committee is constituted:

Provided that no such proposal shall be moved for a change in respect of any industrial matier if such change could not for the time being be made under this Act.

(2) The decision of the Joint Committee regarding every change proposed under the provisions of sub-section (1) together with all necessary particulars regarding such change shall within forty-eight hours be communicated to the registered union and the employer, as well as the Labour Officer and the Commissioner of Labour.

52. (1) Where an agreement is arrived at between the employer and Special the union regarding any change proposed in the Joint Committee under sub-section (1) of section 51, a memorandum of such agreement signed by them and special shall be forwarded by the employer in the prescribed manner to the Registrar application to Labour Court. and the Labour Officer and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such agreement as they would apply in respect of an agreement under sub-section (1) of section 44.

(2) If within seven days from the receipt of a decision under sub-section (2) of section 51, the employer or the union sends an intimation (hereinafter called special intimation) in the prescribed form to the Conciliator for the industry for the local area stating that the change proposed in the Joint Committee, being a change in respect of a matter not specified in Schedule I or III, or such change with specified alterations, should be made, and that no agreement in respect thereof has been arrived at between the union and the employer, the Conciliator shall forthwith enter the case as an industrial dispute in the register kept under section 55, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to it as if a statement were submitted under section 54.

(3) If within seven days from the receipt of a decision under sub-section (2) of section 51 regarding a matter specified in clause (a) of paragraph A of sub-section (1) of section 78 the employer or union sends a special application, in respect of such matter to the Labour Court having jurisdiction, the Labour Court shall forthwith proceed to decide the dispute under the provisions of Chapter XII.

(4) A copy of every special intimation sent under sub-section (2) shall be forwarded to the Chief Conciliator, the Conciliator for the industry for the local area concerned, the Registrar, the Labour Officer and such other person as may be prescribed.

53. (1) The union may authorise such proportion (hereinafter called the authorised proportion), not being less than three-fourths of the members representing the employees on the joint Committee, to accept or reject on its behalf any proposal or class of proposals moved in the Committee.
(2) The employer may authorise a proportion of the members representing him on the Committee to accept or reject on his behalf any proposal or class of proposals moved in the Committee.

(3) For a period of two months after a decision of the Committee, no notice of change under section 42, or special intimation or application under section 52 shall be given or made—

(a) where the union acts under sub-section (1), by the employees concerned or the union, contrary to the decision of the authorised proportion accepting a proposal in respect of which it is authorised; and

(b) where the employer acts under sub-section (2), by the employer, contrary to the decision of the authorised proportion of his representatives.

(4) The union whenever it acts under sub-section (1), and the employer whenever he acts under sub-section (2), shall communicate the fact to the Chief Conciliator, the conciliator for the industry or the local area concerned and the Registrar.

CHAPTER Ixa

JOINT MANAGEMENT COUNCILS.

53A. (1) If in respect of any industry, the State Government is of opinion that it is desirable in public interest to take action under this section, it may, in the case of all undertakings or any class of undertakings in such industry, in which five hundred or more employees are employed or have been employed on any day in the preceding twelve months, by general or special order, require the employer to constitute in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time limit a Joint Management Council, consisting of such number of members as may be prescribed, comprised of representatives of employers and employees engaged in the undertaking, so however, that the number of representatives of employees on the Council shall not be less than the number of representatives of the employers. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the representative of the employees on the Council shall be elected in the prescribed manner by the employees engaged in the undertaking from amongst themselves:

Provided that a list of industries in respect of which no order is issued under this sub-section shall be laid by the State Government before the State Legislature within thirty days from the commencement of its first Session of each year.

(2) One of the members of the Council shall be appointed as Chairman in accordance with rules made in this behalf.

1 This Chapter was inserted by Guj. 21 of 1972, s. 2.
53B. (1) The Council shall be charged with the general duty to promote and assist in the management of the undertaking in a more efficient, orderly and economical manner, and for that purpose and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, it shall be the duty of the Council—

(a) to promote cordial relations between the employer and employees;

(b) to build up understanding and trust between them;

(c) to promote measures which lead to substantial increase in productivity;

(d) to secure better administration of welfare measures and adequate safety measures;

(e) to train the employees in understanding the responsibilities of management of the undertaking and in sharing such responsibilities to the extent considered feasible; and

(f) to do such other things as may be prescribed.

(2) The Council shall be consulted by the employer on all matters relating to the management of the undertaking specified in sub-section (1) and it shall be the duty of the Council to advise the employer on any matter so referred to it.

(3) The Council shall be entrusted by the employer with such administrative functions, appearing to be connected with, or relevant to, the discharge by the Council of its duties under this section, as may be prescribed.

(4) It shall be the duty of the employer to furnish to the Council necessary information relating to such matters as may be prescribed for the purpose of enabling it to discharge its duties under this Act.

(5) The Council shall follow such procedure in the discharge of its duties as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER X.

CONCILIATION PROCEEDINGS.

54. (1) If any proposed change in respect of which notice is given under Report of section 42, or an intimation or special notice is given under section 43 is objected to by the employer or the employees, as the case may be, the party who gave such notice, intimation or special notice shall, if he still desires that the change should be effectuated, forward to the Registrar, the Chief Conciliator and the Conciliator for the local area for the industry concerned a full statement of the case in the prescribed form within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice, intimation or special notice on the other party or within one week of the expiry of the period fixed by both parties under sub-section (1) of section 44 for arriving at an agreement.
Explaination.—For the purposes of this sub-section a change shall be deemed to be objected to by the employer or employees, as the case may be, if within seven days from the date of service of such notice, intimation or special notice or within the period fixed by both the parties under sub-section (1) of section 44 for arriving at an agreement a memorandum of agreement has not been forwarded to the Registrar under the said sub-section.

(2) When a notification is issued under sub-section (5) of section 43 in respect of such change, any employer or employee in the industry may within seven days from the date of publication of such notification forward such statement to the said officers.

55. On receipt of the statement of the case under section 54 the Conciliator shall, except in a case in which by reason of the provisions of section 64 a conciliation proceeding cannot be commenced, (within a week) enter the industrial dispute in the register kept for the purpose and thereupon the conciliation proceeding shall be deemed to have commenced from the date of such entry in the register, which date shall be communicated by him to the parties concerned.

56. (1) The Conciliator shall hold the conciliation proceeding in the prescribed manner.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Conciliator to endeavour to bring about the settlement of the industrial dispute and for this purpose the Conciliator shall enquire into the dispute and all matters affecting the merits thereof and may do all such things as he thinks fit for the purpose of inducing the parties to come to a fair and amicable settlement of the dispute and may adjourn the conciliation proceeding for any period sufficient in his opinion to allow the parties to arrive at a settlement or for any other reason.

57. (1) It shall be lawful for the Chief Conciliator to intervene or to direct any Conciliator to intervene at any stage in any conciliation proceeding held by another conciliator, and thereafter the Chief Conciliator or the Conciliator so directed shall hold the conciliation proceeding with or without the assistance of the Conciliator.

(2) The Chief Conciliator may from time to time issue such directions as he deems fit to any Conciliator at any stage of a conciliation proceeding.

58. (1) If a settlement of an industrial dispute is arrived at in a conciliation proceeding, a memorandum of such settlement shall be drawn up in the prescribed form by the Conciliator and signed by the employer and the representatives of employees. The Conciliator shall send a report of the proceeding along with a copy of the memorandum of settlement to the Registrar and the Chief Conciliator. The Registrar shall record such settlement in the register of agreements and shall then publish it in the prescribed manner. The change, if any, agreed to by such settlement shall come into operation from the date agreed upon in such settlement and where no such date is agreed upon from the date on which it is recorded in the register.

(2) If no such settlement is arrived at, the Conciliator shall, as soon as possible after the close of the proceeding before him, send, a full report to the Chief Conciliator stating the steps taken by him for ascertaining the facts and circumstances relating to the dispute and the reasons on account of which, in his opinion, settlement could not be arrived at: Provided that where such Conciliator is the Chief Conciliator such report shall be forwarded by him to the \[State\] Government.

(3) The Chief Conciliator shall forward the report submitted to him under sub-section (2) to the \[State\] Government with such remarks as he deems fit.

(4) The \[State\] Government shall publish the report of the Conciliator or Chief Conciliator forwarded to it under the proviso to sub-section (2) or under sub-section (3) except in cases in which the dispute is referred to a Board, or the parties to the dispute enter into a submission in respect of it.

(4A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section where an industrial dispute is settled in regard to some of the industrial matters included therein and has not been settled in regard to others and the parties agree in writing that the settlement shall take place in regard to the industrial matters so settled, the settlement of the said Industrial matter shall be registered and a report of the industrial matters not settled shall be sent in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(5) Before the close of the proceeding before him the Conciliator shall ascertain from the parties whether they are willing to submit the dispute to arbitration.

(6) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, if at any stage of a conciliation proceeding the parties agree in writing to submit the dispute to arbitration, the agreement shall be deemed to be a submission within the meaning of section 66.

(6) Where the agreement provides for arbitration either by a Labour Court or by the Industrial Court the Conciliator shall forthwith refer the dispute to the Labour Court or the Industrial Court, as the case may be.

1 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.
2 This sub-section was inserted by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 11.
59. (1) The [State] Government may at any time, and where either prior to the commencement of a proceeding before the Conciliator or after his failure to bring about a settlement, the parties, agree, shall refer the dispute to a Board and thereupon conciliation proceedings before the Board shall be deemed to have commenced from the date of such reference.

(2) On such reference being made, the Board shall give notice in the prescribed manner to the parties to the dispute to appear before it at such time and place as may be specified in the notice. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the Labour Officer.

(3) On the date specified in the notice or on such other date as may be fixed by the Board, the Board shall hold the conciliation proceeding. It shall be the duty of the Board to endeavour to bring about settlement of the industrial dispute and the provisions of sections 55, 56 and 58 shall, so far as may be, apply to the proceeding before the Board.

60. (1) A Conciliator or a Board, as the case may be, shall subject to the provisions of this Act, follow in a conciliation proceeding such procedure as may be prescribed.

(2) The proceedings before a Conciliator shall be held in camera and any proceedings before a Board may be held in public or in camera as the Board may decide.

(3) If a party to an industrial dispute or a witness or any other person giving any information or producing any document in a conciliation proceeding makes a request in writing to the Conciliator or the Board, as the case may be, that such information or the contents of such document be treated as confidential, the Conciliator or the Board shall direct that such information or document be treated as confidential: Provided that the Conciliator or Board may permit the information or the contents of the document to be disclosed to the other party.

(4) Save as provided in sub-section (3), a Conciliator or any member of a Board or any person present at or concerned in the conciliation proceeding shall not disclose any information or the contents of any document in respect of which a request has been made under sub-section (3) without the consent in writing of the party making the request under the said sub-section.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to the disclosure of any information or the contents of any document for the purpose of a prosecution under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

61. A Conciliator or a Board may refer any question of law arising before him or it in any conciliation proceeding, to the Industrial Court for decision. Any order passed by the Conciliator or the Board in such proceeding shall be in accordance with such decision.

1 This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
62. (1) The [State] Government shall by general or special order notified in the Official Gazette fix a time limit for the completion of each stage of the conciliation proceedings provided for under this Chapter:

Provided that the total period fixed for the completion of all stages of conciliation proceeding shall not exceed one month from the date on which the dispute is entered by the Conciliator in the register under section 55 or is referred to a Board under section 59.

Provided further that the [State] Government may extend the said period of one month by a further period of a fortnight at a time but not exceeding in any case two months in the aggregate.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the parties to any industrial dispute may in any case agree to extend the period fixed for the completion of any stage of a conciliation proceeding by any further period and such further period shall be excluded in computing the period of time limit referred to in the said sub-section;

Provided that the total period for the completion of a conciliation proceeding including the period of extension mutually agreed to by the parties shall not exceed one year:

Provided further that the State Government may extend the said period of one year by a further period of a month at a time but not exceeding in any case two months in the aggregate.

(3) Where a Conciliator or a Board refers under section 61 a question of law to the Industrial Court for its decision, the period commencing from the date of such reference to the date of communication of the decision of the Industrial Court to the Conciliator or the Board, as the case may be, shall be excluded in computing the time limit referred to in sub-section (1).

63. A conciliation proceeding shall be deemed to have been completed:

(i) when a memorandum of the settlement arrived at in such proceeding is signed by the parties under sub-section (1) of section 58, or

(ii) when the parties agree in writing to submit the dispute to arbitration, or

(iii) if no settlement is arrived at, when the report of the Conciliator or the Board is published by the [State] Government, or

(iv) when the time-limit fixed for the completion of such proceeding under section 62 has expired.

1 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

42  Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946.  [1947: Bom. XI]

1. [Explanation.—When an industrial dispute is settled in regard to some of the industrial matters included therein, the conciliation proceeding in regard to those matters only shall be deemed to have been completed within the meaning of this section.]

64. No conciliation proceeding in respect of an industrial dispute shall—

(a) be commenced if—

(i) the representative of employees directly affected by the dispute is a registered union which is a party to a submission relating to such dispute or a dispute relating to an industrial matter similar to that regarding which the dispute has arisen;

(ii) it has been referred to arbitration under the provisions of section 72 2[or 73] 3[or referred for decision under section 86 C];

(iii) by reason of a direction issued under sub-section (2) of section 114 4[of by reason of any of the other provisions of this Act] the employers and employees concerned are in respect of the dispute bound by a registered agreement, settlement, submission or award;

(b) be continued after the date on which—

(i) a submission relating to such dispute is entered into by the employer and employees concerned under section 58 or 66;

(ii) the dispute is referred to arbitration under section 72, 5[73 or 73-A] 6[or referred for decision under section 86-C or 86CC]; or

(iii) the direction referred to in sub-clause (iii) of clause (a) is issued.

65. A conciliation proceeding which is discontinued under clause (6) of section 64 shall be deemed to have been completed on the date referred to in the said clause, and the provisions of section 58 with regard to the submission, forwarding and publication of reports shall apply to such conciliation proceeding.

CHAPTER XI.

Arbitration.

66. (1) Any employer and a Representative Union or any other registered union which is a representative of employees may, by a written agreement, agree to submit any present or future industrial dispute or class of such disputes to the arbitration of any person whether such arbitrator is named in such agreement or not. Such agreement shall be called a submission.

(2) Such submission may provide that the dispute shall be referred to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court:

[Provided that no such submission shall provide for reference of any such dispute to the arbitration of the Industrial Court where under any provision of this Act it is required to be referred to the Labour Court for its decision.]

(3) A copy of every such submission shall be sent to the Registrar who shall register it in the register to be maintained for the purpose and shall publish it in such manner as may be prescribed.

67. Every submission shall in the absence of any provision to the contrary contained therein be irrevocable:

Provided that a submission to refer future disputes to arbitration may at any time be revoked by any of the parties to such submission by giving the other party six month's notice in writing:

Provided further that before the expiry of the said period of six months the parties may agree to continue the submission for such further period as may be agreed upon between them.

68. Nothing in the Arbitration Act, 1940 shall apply to arbitrations under this Chapter.

69. The arbitrator may refer any question of law arising before him in any proceeding under this Act to the Industrial Court for its decision. Any award made by the arbitrator shall be in accordance with such decision.

70. The arbitrator shall after hearing the parties concerned, make an award of which shall be signed by him.

71. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, if no provision has been made in any submission for the appointment of an arbitrator or where by reason of any circumstance no arbitrator is appointed, such dispute shall be referred to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court, as the State Government may determine.

Disputes between employees may be referred by Government to arbitration of Labour Court or Industrial Court.

1. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the Government may, at any time on the report of the Labour Officer or on its own motion, refer any industrial dispute between employees to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court.

(2) The provisions of this Chapter with such modifications as may be prescribed shall apply to such arbitration.

(3) The employers of such employees shall in the prescribed manner be made parties to such arbitration.

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Government may, at any time, refer an industrial dispute to the arbitration of the Industrial Court, if on a report made by the Labour Officer or otherwise it is satisfied that—

(1) by reason of the continuance of the dispute—

(a) a serious outbreak of disorder or a breach of the public peace is likely to occur; or

(b) serious or prolonged hardship to a large section of the community is likely to be caused; or

(c) the industry concerned is likely to be seriously affected or the prospects and scope for employment therein curtailed; or

(2) the dispute is not likely to be settled by other means; or

(3) it is necessary in the public interest to do so.

2. Where an industrial dispute concerning any undertaking in an industry or section thereof has been or is to be referred to a Labour Court or Industrial Court under section 72 or 73, and the State Government is of opinion, whether on application made to it in this behalf or otherwise, that the dispute is of such a nature that any other undertaking, group or class of undertakings of a similar nature in that industry or any section thereof is likely to be interested in or affected by such dispute, the State Government may, at the time of making such reference or at any time thereafter, but before the submission of the award, include in that reference such undertaking, group or class of undertakings or any section thereof, whether or not at the time of such inclusion any dispute exists or is apprehended in that establishment, group or class of undertakings or section thereof.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a registered union which is a representative of employees and which is also an approved union may refer any industrial dispute for arbitration to the Industrial Court:

2 New Section 73AA was inserted by Guj. 22 of 1966 s. 9.
3 Section 73A was substituted for the original by Bom. 63 of 1963, s. 18.
Provided that no such dispute shall be referred to the Industrial Court,—

(i) after two months from the date of the completion of the proceedings before the Conciliator;

(ii) where the employer has offered in writing before the Conciliator to submit the dispute to arbitration under this Act, and the union has not agreed to do so;

(iii) unless the dispute is first submitted to the Conciliator and the conciliation proceedings are completed or the Conciliator certifies that the dispute is not capable of being settled by conciliation:

Provided further that no such dispute shall be referred to the Industrial Court where under any provision of this Act it is required to be referred to the Labour Court for its decision.

74. (1) The arbitrator, Labour Court or Industrial Court as the case may be, shall forward copies of the award made by him or it to the parties, the Commissioner of Labour and the Registrar.

(2) On receipt of such award, the Registrar shall enter it in the register kept for the purpose and shall publish it in such manner as may be prescribed.

75. [Except as provided in section 118B, the award shall] come into operation on the date specified in the award or where no such date is specified therein on the date on which it is published under section 74.

76. The arbitration proceeding shall be deemed to have been completed when the award is published under section 74.

276A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 74 to 76 (both inclusive) where the award affects an industry conducted or carried on by a department of the [State] Government, the award shall not be effective except in accordance with the procedure set out in sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The arbitrator, Labour Court or Industrial Court, shall, as soon as practicable, on the conclusion of his proceedings, submit it to the [State] Government, and the [State] Government shall, by order in writing, declare the award to be binding:

Provided that where in the opinion of the [State] Government it would by in expedient on public grounds to give effect to the whole or any part of the award the [State] Government, shall on the first available opportunity, lay the award together with the statement of its reasons for not making a declaration as aforesaid before the Legislative Assembly of the [State] and shall, as soon as may

CHAPTER XII.

LABOUR COURTS.

77. The territorial jurisdiction of Labour Courts shall extend to the local areas for which they are constituted.

78. (1) A Labour Court shall have power to—

A. decide—

(a) disputes regarding—

[(i) The propriety or legality of an order passed by an employer acting or purporting to act under the standing orders ; ]

(ii) The application and interpretation of standing orders ;

(iii) any change made by an employer or desired by an employee in res¬ pect of an industrial matter specified in Schedule III and matters arising out of such change ;

(b) industrial disputes—

(i) referred to it under section 71 or 72 ;

(ii) in respect of which it is appointed as the arbitrator by a submission ;

(c) whether a strike, lock-out, [closure, stoppage] or any change is illegal under this Act ;

B. try offences punishable under this Act and where the payment of com¬ pensation on conviction for an offence is provided for, determine the compensa¬ tion and order its payment ;

C. require any employer to—

(a) withdraw any change which is held by it to be illegal, or

(6) carry out any change provided such change is a matter in issue in any proceeding before it under this Act.

(2) Every offence punishable under this Act shall be tried by the Labour Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction it was committed.

Explanation.—A dispute falling under clause (a) of paragraph A of sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have arisen if within the period prescribed under the proviso to sub-section (4) of section 42, no agreement is arrived at in respect of an order, matter or change referred to in the said proviso.

79. (1) Proceedings before a Labour Court in respect of disputes falling under clause (a) of paragraph A of sub-section (2) of section 78 shall be commenced on an application made by any of the parties to the dispute, a special application under sub-section (3) of section 52 or an application by the Labour Officer [or a representative union] and proceedings in respect of a matter falling under clause (c) of the said paragraph A on an application made by any employer or employee directly affected or the Labour Court [or a representative Union].

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be made in the prescribed form and manner.

(3) An application in respect of a dispute falling under clause (a) of paragraph A of sub-section (1) of section 78 shall be made,—

(a) if it is a dispute falling under sub-clause (i) or (ii) of the said clause, within three months of the arising of the dispute;

(b) if it is a dispute falling under sub-clause (iii) of the said clause, within three months of the employee concerned having last approached the employer under the proviso to sub-section (4) of section 42.

(4) An application in respect of a matter falling under clause (c) of paragraph A of sub-section (1) of section 78 shall be made within 2[six months] of the commencement of the strike, 3[lock-out, closure or stoppage] or of the making of the illegal change, as the case may be:

[Provided that the Labour Court may, for sufficient reasons, admit any application for a declaration that a change is illegal under this Act, after the expiry of 2[six months] from the date on which such change was made:

Provided further that when an application is admitted after the expiry of 2[six months] under the preceding proviso the employer who made the change shall not be liable to the penalty provided under section 100.]

2 These words were substituted for the words "three months" by Guj. 22 of 1966, s. 11.
3 These words were substituted for the words, "or lock-out" by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 14.
4 These provisos were added by Bom. 55 of 1949, s. 12.
On receipt of an application under section 79 the Labour Court shall issue a notice to all parties affected by the dispute in the manner provided by rules under section 85. Subject to the provisions of Chapter V, the Labour Court may permit the parties so affected to appear in the manner provided by the provisions of sections 80A to 80C. The Labour Court shall then hold an inquiry.

80A. (1) Where an application is filed, under section 79 by an employer or the Labour Officer for the decision of the Labour Court, and the employees affected are numerous persons having the same interest, the Court may permit one or more of such employees to appear and to defend the application on behalf of all the employees so interested.

(2) In such case the Labour Court shall also direct notice of the filing of the application to be given to all such employees at the applicant's expense either by personal service or where from the number of employees or any other cause such service is not reasonably practicable, by public advertisement and by causing the notice with its translation in a regional language to be affixed by the applicant at the entrance through which the majority of the employees enter the premises for their work. The person affixing the notice and publishing the advertisement shall file an affidavit in the Court of his having done so.

80B. Any employee, who is not permitted to appear under section 80A but on whose behalf the application is defended may apply to the Court to make him a party to such application. The Court may grant such application, if it is satisfied that the interest of the employee will be severally and materially affected to his prejudice if he is not joined as a party to the application.

80C. (1) Where there are numerous employees having the same interest, one or more of such employees, or the Labour Officer, may, with the permission of the Court, file an application under section 79. Such application may be made on behalf of and for the benefit of all the employees. The Court shall, in such cases direct the notice of the filing of the application to be given to such employees at the applicant's expense, either by personal service or where from the number of employees or any other cause, such service is not practicable, by public advertisement. The person publishing the advertisement shall file an affidavit in the Court of his having done so.

(2) An employee on whose behalf an application is filed under sub-section (1) may apply to the Court to make him a party to such application. The Court may grant such application if it is satisfied that his interest will be severally and materially affected to his prejudice if he is not joined as a party to the application.

80D. In an inquiry under section 80 and 80A to 80C, the Judge presiding over the Labour Court shall himself, as such inquiry proceeds, record a minute of the proceedings in his own hand, embracing the material averments made by the parties affected and the material parts of the evidence. The decision shall be signed by him and shall set forth the grounds on which is based.

1 Sections 80 to 80D were substituted for the original section 80 by Bom. 49 of 1955, s. 2.
81. A Labour Court may refer any question of law arising in any proceeding before it to the Industrial Court for decision. Any order passed by the Labour Court in such proceeding shall be in accordance with such decision.

82. No Labour Court shall take cognizance of any offence except on a complaint of facts constituting such offence made by the person affected thereby or by a representative union which is also an approved union, or on a report in writing by the Labour Officer.

83. In respect of offences punishable under this Act, a Labour Court shall have all the powers under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, of a Magistrate of First Class, and in the trial of every such offence shall follow the procedure laid down in Chapter XXII of the said Code for a summary trial in which an appeal lies; and the rest of the provisions of the said Code shall, so far as may be, apply to such trial.

83A. Except in a proceeding in connection with an offence under this Act, a legal practitioner shall not be entitled to appear before a Labour Court on behalf of any party in any other proceeding under this Act, save with the permission of such Court.

84. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 83 an appeal shall lie to the Industrial Court—

(a) against a decision of a Labour Court in respect of a matter falling under clauses (a) or (c) of paragraph A of sub-section (1) of section 78 except to the extent to which it determines whether a strike, lock-out, closure or stoppage was illegal or not, or a decision of such Court under paragraph C of sub-section (1) of the said section;

(b) against a conviction by a Labour Court by the person convicted;

(c) against an acquittal by a Labour Court in its special jurisdiction, by the Government;

(d) for enhancement of a sentence awarded by a Labour Court in its special jurisdiction by the Government.

(2) Every appeal shall be made within thirty days from the date of the decision, conviction, acquittal or sentence, as the case may be:

Provided that the Industrial Court may for sufficient reasons allow an appeal after the expiry of the said period.

85. (1) The Industrial Court shall have superintendence over all Labour Courts and may—

(a) call for returns;

(b) make and issue general rules and prescribe forms for regulating the practice and procedure of such Courts in matters not expressly provided for by this Act and, in particular, for securing the expeditious disposal of cases;

(c) prescribe forms in which books, entries and accounts shall be kept by the officers of any such Courts;

(d) settle a table of fees payable for process issued by a Labour Court or the Industrial Court.

(2) The Industrial Court may, by order in writing and for reasons to be stated therein withdraw any proceeding under this Act pending before a Labour Court and transfer it for disposal to another Labour Court which may, subject to any special directions in the order of transfer, proceed in the matter either de novo or from the stage at which it is so transferred.

86. Except as otherwise provided by this Act, no decision, award or order of a Labour Court shall be called in question in any proceeding in any Civil or Criminal Court.

86A. A Labour Court shall have the power to direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any proceeding before it shall be paid:

Provided that, no such costs shall be directed to be paid for the services of any legal advisor engaged by any party.

(2) The provisions of section 93 shall apply to an order under this section in the same manner as they apply to an order of the Industrial Court.

3[CHAPTER XIIA.

WAGE BOARDS.

4[86AA.] The [State] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette constitute for one or more industries a Wage Board for the [State of Gujarat].

---

1 Section 85 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that and after that sub-section (2), sub-section (2) was inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 16.
2 New Section '86-A' was inserted ibid., s. 16.
3 Chapter XIIA and XIIIB were inserted by Bom. 43 of 1948, s. 13.
4 Section 86-A of the principal Act, was renumbered as section '86AA' by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 17.
5 This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.
6 These words were substituted for the words "Bombay area of the State of Gujarat" by Guj. 20 of 1961, s. 6.
86B. The Wage Board shall consist of an equal number of persons nominated by the \[[State]\] Government to represent employers and employees and such number of independent persons as the \[[State]\] Government nominates. The Chairman shall be appointed by the \[[State]\] Government.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to be an independent person if he is unconnected with the industrial matter which may be referred to it under section 86C \[or 86CC\] and the industry directly affected by the industrial matter.

86C. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the \[[State]\] Government may, by an order notified in the Official Gazette refer to a Wage Board for decision any industrial matter or industrial dispute regarding items numbered 1, 2, 4, 9 and 10 in Schedule II, and such other industrial matters or disputes as may be prescribed.

(2) The order of reference under sub-section (1) shall specify, which employers and employees (including representative of employees, if any, and association of employers, if any) shall be parties to the proceedings before the Wage Board.

386CC. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, a registered union which is a representative of employees and which is also an approved union may refer any industrial dispute of the nature mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 86C other than a dispute in respect of bonus, to a Wage Board for decision:

Provided that no such dispute shall be referred to the Wage Board by the union—

(i) after two months from the date of the completion of the proceedings before the Conciliator;

(ii) where the employer has offered in writing before the Conciliator to submit the dispute to arbitration under this Act and the union has not agreed to do so;

(iii) unless the dispute is first submitted to the Conciliator and the conciliation proceedings are completed or the Conciliator certifies that the dispute is not capable of being settled by conciliation.

86D. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, where an industrial matter or industrial dispute is referred for decision to a Wage Board under section 86C \[or 86CC\] no proceedings regarding the same shall be commenced before a Conciliator, Board, Labour Court or the Industrial Court or a Court of Enquiry; and any such proceedings already commenced shall be forthwith stayed on the making of the reference.

86E. A Wage Board shall, in respect of an industrial matter or industrial dispute referred to it for decision, subject to any rules or procedure which may be prescribed, follow the same procedure as the Industrial Court in respect of arbitration proceedings before it.

1 The word was substituted for the word "provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws order, 1950.
2 The word, figures and letters were inserted by Bom. 63 of 1953 s. 20.
3 This section was inserted ibid., s. 21.
4 The word, figures and letters were inserted, ibid., s. 22.
In particular the rules of procedure which may be prescribed in this behalf may provide for the formation of committees for local areas from amongst members of the Wage Board with co-option of such other persons from the local areas as the Wage Board would for the purpose of any reference think fit to appoint to the committees and the exercise by each such committee of the jurisdiction and powers vested in the Wage Board in respect of such industrial matters or industrial disputes as are referred by the Wage Board to the Committee.

86E. Save as provided in section 86-F, a decision of the Wage Board shall come into operation on the date specified in the decision and where no such date is specified there in on the date on which it is published in the prescribed manner.

86F. (1) Where the decision of a Wage Board affects an industry conducted or carried on by a department of the [State] Government, the decision shall not be effective except in accordance with the procedure set out in sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The Wage Board shall, as soon as practicable on the conclusion of its proceedings, submit its decision to the [State] Government, and the [State] Government shall by order in writing declare the decision to be binding.

Provided that where in the opinion of the [State] Government it would be inexpedient on public grounds to give effect to the whole or any part of the decision, the [State] Government shall on the first available opportunity lay the decision together with the statement of its reasons for not making a declaration as aforesaid before the Legislative Assembly of the [State] and shall, as soon as may be, cause to be moved therein a resolution for the consideration of the decision; and the Legislative Assembly may by its resolution confirm, modify or reject the decision.

(3) On the passing of a resolution under the proviso to sub-section (2), unless the decision is rejected thereby, the [State] Government shall, by order in writing, declare the decision as confirmed or modified by the resolution, as the case may be, to be binding.

(4) A decision declared to be binding under sub-sections (2) or (3) shall come into operation on such date as may be specified in the order of declaration made by the [State] Government.

86G. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Industrial Court against an order or decision of a Wage Board (including reviewed order or decision), save in case referred to in section 86 F.

(2) Such appeal shall be made within six weeks from the date of the order of decision.

1 This section was inserted by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 16.
2 This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws order, 1950.
3 This sub-section was added by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 17.
Subject to the provisions of sections 86F and 86G, an order or decision of a Wage Board shall be binding on—

(a) all parties to any proceeding before it who appeared or were represented therein;

(b) all parties who were summoned to appear as parties to the proceeding, whether they appeared or not;

(c) all the employers and employees in the concern or occupation or industry in the local area according as the order of reference under sub-section (1) of section 86-C directs irrespective of whether they were such employers or employees at the time of the making or giving of such order or decision, or whether they became such afterwards.

(1) An employer or an employee or an association or a group of employers or a registered union or body of employees may apply to a Wage Board by review of order or decision by the Wage Board for review of an order or decision of the Wage Board and the Wage Board may for any sufficient reason and upon hearing all the parties review the order or decision:

Provided that no such application shall lie until a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the making or giving of the order or decision or the last review thereof, as the case may be:

Provided further that no such application by an employer or an association or a group of employers shall lie unless the employer, association or group, the case may be, employees not less than fifteen per cent. of the employees whom the order or decision binds:

Provided also that no such application by an employee or a body of employees shall lie unless the employee or body of employees represents not less than fifteen per cent. of the employees whom the order or decision binds.

(2) Where the Government makes an application in this behalf, the Wage Board may at any time review its order or decision for any sufficient reason and upon hearing all the parties.

The Industrial Court shall have superintendence over all Wage Boards and may—

(a) call for returns from such Boards;

(b) make and issue general rules, and lay down forms for regulating the practice and procedure of such Boards in matters not expressly provided for by or under this Act, and in particular, for securing expeditious disposal of cases;

(c) lay down the forms in which books, entries and accounts shall be kept by officers of Wage Board;

(d) settle fees for processes issued by Wage Boards.

1 This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
86K. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this Act, no order or decision of a Wage Board shall be called in question in any proceeding in any civil or criminal court.

(2) The appellate order or decision of the Industrial Court under section 86G shall have the same force as the original order or decision of the Wage Board which it replaces except that there shall be no further appeal against it.

86KK. The 2[State] Government may, on the recommendation of the Industrial Court, by an order notified in the Official Gazette, direct that any industrial matter, or industrial dispute of the nature mentioned in section 86C which has been referred to the Industrial Court under s[subsection (6) of section 58 or sections 66, 72, 73 or 73-A] and is pending before it at any time shall be transferred to a Wage Board for disposal or for further disposal from the stage reached before the Industrial Court and thereupon all the provisions of this Act shall apply to that dispute as if it were referred to the Wage Board for decision under section 86C].

CHAPTER XII-B.

2[State] Wage Board.

86L. (1) The 2[State] Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for all the industries together to which this Act applies a 2[State] Wage Board for the 2[State of Gujarat].

(2) In relation to the 2[State] Wage Board the provisions of sections 33, 46, 47, 86-B to 86K (both inclusive), 87, 90, 97, 98, 115, 118, 119, 119A and 123 shall be read as if the reference therein to a Wage Board were reference to the 2[State] Wage Board.

CHAPTER XIII.

Court of Industrial Arbitration.

87. It shall be the duty of the Industrial Court—

(a) (i) to decide appeals under section 5[20, 24A or 44] from orders passed by the Registrar;

(ii) to decide appeals from the decision of the Commissioner of Labour under section 34 or 39 and revision applications under section 37 regarding standing orders;

(iii) to decide disputes referred to it under sub-section (6) of section 58;

1 This section was inserted by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 18.
2 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1960.
3 This portion was substituted for the words and figures "section 72 or 73" by Bom. 55 of 1949, s. 15.
4 These words were substituted for the words "Bombay area of the State of Gujarat" by Guj. 20 of 1961, s. 7.
5 These figures, letter and word were substituted for the figures and word "20 or 44" by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 18(i).
(iv) to decide all matters which may be referred to it by a Conciliator or a Board under section 61 or by an arbitrator under section 69;

(v) to decide industrial disputes referred to it in accordance with submissions registered under section 66 which provide for such reference to the Industrial Court;

(vi) to decide industrial disputes referred to it under sections 71, 72, 73 or 73A;

(vii) to decide matters referred to it under section 90;

(viii) to decide questions relating to the interpretation of this Act or rules made thereunder and standing orders referred to it under section 91;

(ix) to decide applications made to it under section 115-B;

(x) to decide matters referred to it under section 90;

(xi) to modify an award under section 116-A;

(xii) to decide such other matters as may be referred to it under this Act or the rules made thereunder;

(xiii) to decide appeals made under section 84 from a decision of a Labour Court;

(xiv) to decide appeals made under section 86G from an order or decision of a Wage Board.

88. The Industrial Court in appeal may confirm, modify, add to or rescind any decision or order appealed against and may pass such orders therein as it may deem fit.

89. If in any proceeding the Industrial Court finds that any union was registered by reason of a mistake, misrepresentation or fraud, or that a registered union has contravened any of the provisions of this Act, the Industrial Court may direct that the registration of such union shall be cancelled.

1 These figures, word and letter were substituted for the word and figures "or 73" by Bom. 74 of 1948, s. 19(c).
2 This sub-clause was inserted by Guj. 8 of 1962, s. 18(4).

5 These words were substituted for the words "High Court of Judicature at Bombay" by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1940.
90. (1) A Wage Board may refer to the Industrial Court any point of law arising in any proceedings before it under this Act. Any order or decision made or given by the Wage Board in such proceedings shall be in accordance with the decision of the Industrial Court.

(2) A Civil or Criminal Court may refer any matter or any issue in any suit, criminal prosecution or other legal proceeding before it relating to an industrial dispute to the Industrial Court for its decision. Any order passed by such Court in such suit, prosecution or legal proceeding shall be in accordance with such decision.

(3) The Government may refer to the Industrial Court any point of law arising in any proceedings held under this Act. The Industrial Court shall not decide any such reference save in open Court and with the concurrence of a majority of the members of the Court present at the hearing of the reference.

91. The Commissioner of Labour may refer any question relating to the interpretation of this Act or the rules made under this Act to the Industrial Court for its decision.

92. (1) The Industrial Court shall make regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder regulating its procedure.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for the formation of Benches consisting of one or more of its members and the exercise by each such Bench of the jurisdiction and powers vested in it:

Provided that no Bench shall consist only of a member who has not been and at the time of his appointment was not eligible for appointment as, a Judge of a High Court.

(3) Every regulation made under sub-section (1) or (2) shall be published in the Official Gazette.

(4) Every proceeding before the Industrial Court shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 192, 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

(5) The Industrial Court shall have power to direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any proceeding before it shall be paid:

Provided that no such costs shall be directed to be paid for the services of any legal advisor engaged by any party.

1 This subsection was inserted by Bom. 40 of 1948, s. 18(1).
2 The original sub-sections (1) and (2) were re-numbered as sub-sections (2) and (3) respectively, s. 18(2).

93. An order made by the Industrial Court regarding the costs of a proceeding may be produced before the Court of the Civil Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sum of money has a place of residence or business [for which the place is within the City of Ahmedabad before the Court of Small Causes of Ahmedabad] and such Court shall execute such order in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit.

94. An order, decision or award of the Industrial Court shall be binding on:

(a) all parties to the industrial dispute;
(b) all parties who were summoned to appear as parties to the dispute whether they appeared or not unless the Industrial Court is of opinion that they were improperly made parties;
(c) in the case of an employer who is a party to the proceeding before such Court in respect of the undertaking to which the dispute relates, his successors, heirs or assigns in respect of the undertaking to which the dispute relates; and
(d) in the case of a registered union which is a party to the proceeding before such Court, all persons represented by the union at the date of the award, as well as thereafter.

95. An employer or an association or a group of employers or a registered union or a representative of employees may at any time apply to the Industrial Court for review of a decision or award of the Industrial Court and the Industrial Court may, for any sufficient reason and upon hearing the parties, review the decision or award.

96. The State Government may direct any officer to appear in any proceeding before the Industrial Court by giving notice to such Court and on such notice being given such officer shall be entitled to appear in such proceeding.
97. (1) A strike shall be illegal if it is commenced or continued—

(a) in cases where it relates to an industrial matter specified in Schedule III or regulated by any standing order for the time being in force;

(b) without giving notice in accordance with the provisions of section 42;

(c) only for the reason that the employer has not carried out the provisions of any standing order or has made an illegal change;

(d) in cases where notice of the change is given in accordance with the provisions of section 42 and where no agreement in regard to such change is arrived at before the statement of the case referred to in section 54 is received by the conciliator for the industry concerned for the local areas;

(e) in cases where conciliation proceeding in regard to the industrial dispute to which the strike relates have commenced, before the completion of such proceedings [and during the period of ten days thereafter];

(g) in cases where a submission relating to such dispute or such type of disputes is registered under section 66, before such submission is lawfully revoked;

(h) in cases where an industrial dispute has been referred to the arbitration of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court under sub-section (2) of section 68 or under section 71, by or of the Industrial Court under section 72, so[73 or 73A] before the date on which the arbitration proceedings are completed, or the date on which the awards of the Labour or Industrial Court as the case may be, comes into operation, whichever is later;

(i) in contravention of the terms of a registered agreement or a settlement or [effective awards];

(j) where an industrial matter or industrial dispute is referred to a Wage Board for decision, before the date on which the decision comes into operation;

(k) in contravention of the terms of an effective decision of a Wage Board.]
1[(L.A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) a strike which is commenced or continued only for the reason that the employer has not paid the basic pay or dearness allowance due to the employees within the period fixed under any law for the time being in force or under a registered agreement or settlement or an effective award or an effective decision of a Wage Board shall not be deemed to be illegal :

Provided that such strike shall be deemed to the illegal if—

(i) it is commenced without seven clear days' notice being given to the employer by the representative of employees, or

(ii) it is commenced or continued after the employer has paid basic pay or dearness allowance due to the employees].

(2) In cases where a conciliation proceeding in regard to any industrial dispute has been completed, a strike relating to such dispute shall be illegal if it is commenced at any time after the expiry of two months after the completion of such proceedings.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), if fourteen clear days' notice of a strike not falling under clause (a), (g), (h) or (i) of subsection (1) was given to the employer and the Labour Officer, and the strike was not commenced either before the expiry of the period of notice or after six weeks from the date of its expiry, the employees who resume work within forty-eight hours of a Labour Court or the Industrial Court declaring such strike to be illegal shall incur no penalty under this Act in respect of such strike :

Provided that nothing in sub-section (3) shall apply to any strike which has within the period of notice been declared under section 99 to be illegal.

2[97A. A stoppage shall be illegal if it is commenced or continued—

(a) with the object of compelling the [Central or [State] Government] or any public servant to take or abstain from taking any particular course of action in regard to an industrial matter, where the [Central or [State] Government] is not an employer in the industry concerned, or

(b) if such stoppage is in support of, or in sympathy with, a strike which is illegal under this Act or the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or any other law for the time being in force, whether or not in the same industry, occupation or undertaking].

2 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
112. (1) For the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any records maintained by an employer under the provisions of section 111, an officer authorised by the [State] Government may, subject to the prescribed conditions, hold an inquiry and may require any person to, and such person thereupon shall, produce any relevant record or document in his possession and may after reasonable notice, at any reasonable time enter any premises wherein he believes such record or document to be, and may ask any question necessary for verifying such records:

Provided that where such premises are not the usual business premises of a person, such officer shall not without the previous permission of the [State] Government enter them under this sub-section.

(2) Any proceeding held by him for the purpose of obtaining information for such record shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 192 of the Indian Penal Code.

CHAPTER XVIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

113. The [State] Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette at any time, make any additions to or alterations in the industrial matters specified in Schedule I, II or III or may delete therefrom any such matter:

Provided that before making any such addition, alteration or deletion a draft of such addition, alteration or deletion shall be published for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and the [State] Government shall consider any objection or suggestion that may be received by it from any person with respect thereto.

113A. The Registrar may, after giving fifteen days' notice, dismiss any application made under section 13, 16, 17 or 23 if he is satisfied that the applicant union has failed to pursue or prosecute the application, without any sufficient cause.

114. (1) A registered agreement, or a settlement submission or award shall be binding upon all persons who are parties thereto:

Provided that—

(a) in the case of an employer, who is a party to such agreement, settlement, submission or award, his successors in interest, heirs or assigns in respect of the undertaking as regards which the agreement, settlement, submission or award is made, and

(b) in the case of a registered union which is a party to such agreement, settlement, submission or award [all employees in the industry in the local area whose representative, the said union is] shall be bound by such agreement, settlement, submission or award.

(2) In cases in which a Representative Union is a party to a registered agreement or settlement, submission or award, the [State] Government may, after giving the parties affected an opportunity of being heard, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that such agreement, settlement, submission or award shall be binding upon such other employers and employees in such industry or occupation in that local area [and with effect from such date] as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that before giving a direction under this section the [State] Government may, in such cases as it deems fit, make a reference to the Industrial Court for its opinion.

(3) A registered agreement entered into by the representatives of the majority of the employees affected or deemed to be affected under section 43 by a change shall bind all the employees so affected or deemed to be affected.

115. An order or decision of a [Wage Board or Labour Court] against an employer shall bind his successors in interest, heirs and assigns in respect of the undertaking as regards which it is made or given and such order or decision against a registered union shall bind [all employees in the industry in the local areas whose representative, the said union is].

6[115A. If any agreement is arrived at between an employer and a Representative Union who are parties to any industrial dispute pending before an Arbitrator, Wage Board, Labour Court or Industrial Court, the order, decision or award in such proceeding shall be made in terms of such agreement, unless the Arbitrator, Wage Board, Labour Court or Industrial Court is satisfied that the agreement was in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the consent of either party to it was caused by mistake, misrepresentation, fraud, undue influence, coercion or threat].

7[115B. Where any question arises regarding the construction or interpretation of any award, any employer or employee on whom such award is binding may—

(a) if the award was made by a Labour Court, Wage Board or Industrial Court, apply to the Court or Board which made the award, and

(b) if the award was made by any other arbitrator, apply to the Industrial Court, for deciding the question. The Court or Board to which the application is made may, after giving the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, decide the question and such decision shall be binding on the parties on whom the award is binding.

116. (1) A registered agreement or a settlement or award shall cease to have effect on the date specified therein or if no such date is specified therein, on the expiry of the period of two months from the date on which notice in writing to terminate such agreement, settlement or award as the case may be, is given in the prescribed manner by any of the parties thereto to the other party:

Provided that no such notice shall be given till the expiry of three months after the agreement, settlement or award comes into operation.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the terms of a registered agreement or a settlement [or an award in terms of an agreement] being changed or modified by mutual consent of the parties affected thereby [and the registered agreement, settlement or award shall be deemed to be changed or modified accordingly].

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or (2), if a registered agreement or a settlement or award provides that it shall remain in force for a period exceeding one year, it may after the expiry of one year from the date of its commencement be terminated by either party thereto giving two months' notice in the prescribed manner to the other party.

(4) The party giving notice under sub-section (1) or (3) shall send a copy of it to the Registrar and the Labour Officer of the Local area concerned.

A notice given by a party under sub-section (1) or (3) may be withdrawn by it by a subsequent notice given in writing in the prescribed manner before the expiry of two calendar months from the date on which the previous notice was given. The party giving such subsequent notice shall send a copy thereof to the Registrar and the Labour Officer of the local area concerned.

(5) If a registered agreement, or a settlement or award is terminated under sub-section (1) or (3) or if the terms of a registered agreement or a settlement [or an award] are changed or modified by mutual consent, notice of such termination, change or modification shall be given by the parties concerned to the Registrar and the Labour Officer. The Registrar shall enter the notice of such termination, change or modification in a register kept for the purpose.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, parties who shall be competent to terminate a registered agreement, or a settlement or award, or to change or to modify the terms of a registered agreement or a settlement [or an award] and who shall give notice of such termination, change or modification under sub-section (3) shall be the employer who has signed the agreement or settlement or who is a party to the award or the heirs, successors or assigns of such employer in respect of the undertaking concerned and the representative of the employees affected by the agreement, settlement or award.

116A. (1) Any party who under the provisions of section 116 is entitled to give notice of the termination of an award may instead of giving such notice apply after the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (2), to the Industrial Court, the Labour Court or the Wage Board making the award, for its modification.

(2) Such application in the case of an award—

(a) which does not specify a date on which it shall cease to have effect shall not be made until the expiry of the period of two months from the date on which notice can be given to terminate the award under section 116;

(b) which provides that it shall remain in force for a period exceeding one year, shall not be made until the expiry of one year from the date of its commencement.

(3) On such application being made, the Industrial Court, the Labour Court or the Wage Board, as the case may be, may, after hearing the parties and taking such evidence as it thinks fit, modify the award ²[with effect from such date as it may specify].

(4) Where an application for the modification of an award under sub-section (1) is made, such application shall not in any way affect the binding effect of such award in regard to the matters determined therein until it is modified.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any party to terminate such award in accordance with the provisions of section 116).

117. Where anything is required to be done by any union under this Act, the person authorised in this behalf by the executive of the union, and where no person is so authorised every member of the executive of the union, shall be bound to do the same and shall be personally liable if default is made in the doing of any such thing.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section the executive of a union means the body by whatever name called to which the management of the affairs of the union is entrusted.

118. (1) For the purpose of holding an inquiry or proceeding under this Act, the Registered Conciliator or Wage Board, Board, Labour Court in its ordinary jurisdiction, a Court of Enquiry and the Industrial Court shall have the same powers as are vested in Courts in respect of—

(a) proof of facts by affidavits;

(b) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any persons and examining him on oath;

(c) compelling the production of documents; and

(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) The Registrar, a Conciliator, [a Wage Board] or Board shall also have such further powers as may be prescribed.

(3) For the purpose of obtaining the information necessary for compiling and maintaining the record under Chapter XVII the officer authorised under section 112 shall have the powers specified in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) and in sub-section (2).

(4) A Wage Board, a Labour Court and the Industrial Court shall also have powers to call upon any of the parties to proceedings before it to furnish in writing and in such form as it may think proper any information which it considers relevant for the purpose of any proceedings before it and the party so called upon shall thereupon furnish the information to the best of his knowledge and belief, and if so required by the Board or the Court to do so, verify the same in such manner as may be prescribed.

3[118A. The offence under section 104 shall be cognizable.]

4[118B. (1) Where in any proceeding before the Industrial Court or a Labour Court, if either party in spite of notice of hearing having been duly served on it, does not appear when the matter is called on for hearing, the Court may either adjourn the hearing of the matter to a subsequent date or proceed ex-parte and make such award, order or decision as it thinks fit.

(2) Where any award, order or decision is made ex-parte under sub-section (1) the aggrieved party may, within thirty days of the receipt of a copy thereof, make an application to the Court, to set aside such award, order or decision. If the Industrial Court or Labour Court is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for non-appearance of the aggrieved party, it may set aside the award, order or decision so made and shall appoint a date for proceeding with the matter:

Provided that no award, order or decision shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid, unless notice thereof has been served on the opposite party.]

119. The Registrar, an Assistant Registrar, a Conciliator, a Labour Officer, an Assistant Labour Officer, an arbitrator, [a member of a Wage Board], a member of a Board, an officer authorised under section 112, a Judge of a Labour Court, a member of the Industrial Court or a Court of Enquiry and a member of the staff of any of the said Courts shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.
