

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A strong power has always been supporting me during the entire course of this study. I am sure this has been the force of blessings of 'ALMIGHTY GOD', which never let me trapped in difficulties. I express my gratitude to The Almighty ALLAH for this divine favour.

At the very onset, I wish to extend my heartfelt indebtedness, sincere thanks to my worthy and revered supervisor, Prof. Dr. M. Mushfiq who guided me throughout the work of my dissertation. Many thanks for his time and efforts in evaluating my work, and for the direction he gave me during my entire program of study. No words articulate to acknowledge the didactic guidance rendered by him.

I also wish to record my gratitude to Dr. Shamsuzzama, for his support and blessings and making valuable contribution in my research work. His incisive criticism, pertinent suggestions, and his tireless interest at various stage of the study not only strengthened my research skills but also helped me to develop a confident personality. I am thankful to the chairperson of the department, Mrs A. Lal for her help and support. I am also grateful to all my teachers in the department for inculcating the subject of chemistry.

This acknowledgement will be incomplete without the name of my research mates namely Taazeem aapa, Surraiya aapa, Shaheen bhai, Zeeshan bhai, Mehboob bhai, Rakshanda aapa, Saltanat aapa, Mehdi bhai, Raza bhai, Azhar bhai, for the timely support they gave me and for all those moments when they encouraged me to try and rise in spite of all the odds. I also wish to thank my friends Hena and Mariyam for their affection, help and undetering support. I have a special bond with them. Their helping and affable attitude will always remain a part of my life.

No words are adequate to express my indebttness towards my parents whose blessings have always shadowed me and to whom I dedicate this thesis. I am also thankful to my siblings-Uzma, Haris, Saad, Hamza and my in laws for their affection, support and encouragement and not to forget my cute little son Humam for his chirping laughter and sweet memories which relaxed me in my stressful days. Last but not the least, I would thank my husband Arif who cheered me on and watched over the state of my mind through the hard months at the end. These pages wouldn't be sufficient to mention his enormous support, encouragement and especially invaluable untiring patience displayed.
