ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge the kindness of my teachers, friends and well wishers whose help and advice enabled me to complete this work.

First, I would like to extend my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Fatima Zehra Bilgrami, for her encouragement, inspiring suggestions and excellent guidance. She was always accessible and despite her preoccupations, was always generous with her time and knowledge. I consider myself immensely fortunate in having someone so kind and supportive as my supervisor.

It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge the kindness and inspiration of Prof. B.L. Bhadani, Chairman and Coordinator, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. I also have the privilege of receiving guidance from Dr. Abdus Salam Jeelani who helped me in reading several difficult Persian texts I am indeed grateful to him. I am also grateful to Faiz Habib (Cartographer, Department of History, A.M.U.) has drawn the map of Ports and Towns appended in this dissertation. I am also thankful to Amita Paliwal for her sincere guidance.
I thank all my friends and seniors for their enduring support and encouragement. I regret my inability to mention each one of them, by name here. The list would indeed be for long.

I should like to put on record my thanks to the staff of the following libraries for allowing me access to the sources and secondary works concerning my work: Centre of Advance Study, Department of History (Aligarh Muslim University), Maulana Azad Library (A.M.U.).

My family has been a constant source of inspiration. I am indebted to my father Sarfaraz Ahmad and mother Mobina Khatoon for their love, affection and emotional support, that gave me the strength and determination to complete this work. I acknowledge the sincere contribution of my uncle Mohd. Ajmal from the bottom of my heart. It is indeed his encouragement and extraordinary support that inspired me.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank Mr. Kafeel A. Khan for typed my manuscript.
