I feel fortunate to have Dr. Shadab Bano as my supervisor. I could not possibly accomplish this work without her constant guidance and encouragement. She has gone through my text and given me advice throughout which I have done my best to follow. Prof. Farhat Hasan under whom, I studied for my Master’s degree, has been of help to me throughout. Neither are, of course, responsible for any errors that remain.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. Shireen Moosvi and Prof. Irfan Habib for taking interest in my research and providing me with useful information and insights. I am grateful to the teachers at the Centre for Women’s Studies for adding to my knowledge and giving insights to pursue my research. My special thanks are for Prof. Imtiaz Hasnain, Dr. Seemin Hasan, Dr. Asim Siddiqui.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Tariq Ahmad, Chairman and Coordinator, Centre of Advanced Study, AMU for his constant support. He allowed me access different libraries and Museums. The teachers of the Department of history have been very encouraging and I am thankful to them for their advice in research.

I am immensely grateful to the Library Staff of National Archives, New Delhi, Nehru Memorial Museum Library, New Delhi for extending support and cooperation. It would have been impossible for me undertake this research work without their positive attitude. Most importantly, I should like to thank the staff of the Seminar Library, Department of History and Library of Centre for Women Studies, AMU, Aligarh. The Chief Librarian of Maulana Azad Library, AMU, Aligarh and his team had been very helpful. I extend my sincerest thanks to them.

Nothing can express my feelings for my parents who always wished a better life for me. They are the main source of my happiness and progress. It is pertinent to acknowledge my loving sisters Richa Tiwari, Ritu Vardhan, Mukul Tiwari, my brother P.N. Tiwari and my Brother-in-laws Alok Vardhan and Vinay Pandey who not only encouraged and provided emotional support to me but were always there when I needed them. My gratitude is also for my friends whom I treasure a lot. Their critical inputs in my research definitely benefited me a lot.
