I take this opportunity to thank and express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed teacher and guide Dr. Humayun Murad, Professor, Department of Zoology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. His inspiring guidance, invaluable suggestions and keen interest during the course of investigation has enabled me to complete my Ph. D. thesis.

My particular thanks are due to Dr. M.S. Jairajpuri, Ex. Director, Earstwhile Institute of Agriculture, A.M.U., Aligarh and present Vice-Chancellor, Maulana Azad Urdu University, Hyderabad for providing me all the research facilities and kind help.

I am also thankful to Prof. P.K. Srivastava, Dean, Faculty of Agricultural Sciences and Prof. Akhtar Haseeb, Chairman, Department of Plant Protection, Faculty of Agricultural Sciences, A.M.U., Aligarh for helping in various ways in submission of the thesis.

I offer my sincere thanks to Dr. S.S. Negi, ex Director, Central Institute for Sub-tropical Horticulture, Lucknow for providing me the opportunity to avail study leave for undertaking the studies for the award of Ph. D. degree, under “Carrier Advancement Scheme” of Indian Council of Agricultural Research, New Delhi.

I am also grateful to Dr. R.K. Pathak, Director, Central Institute for Sub-tropical Horticulture, Lucknow for his help and encouragement.
I also extend my cordial thanks to Dr. Akhtar Husain and Prof. Sushil Kumar, ex-Directors, Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants, Lucknow; Prof. M. Saleemuddin, Prof. M. Mashkoor Alam and Dr. (Mrs.) Naushaba Murad, A.M.U., Aligarh for their valuable suggestions and constant encouragement during the course of investigations.

I am highly grateful to all my family members, for their constant support and encouragement throughout the course of my studies.

I am indebted to my father (Late) Sri Fasih Uddin and mother Mrs. Safia Begam for their inspiration and blessings for carrying out the studies.

Very special thanks are due to Prof. Akhtar Haseeb, my husband, without whose constant support, guidance and help, it would have not been possible to complete this work.

I am also indebted to my little daughter, Sana Fatima who showed extreme patience and spared me precious moments of her childhood for doing this work. I am indebted to her for all the love and affection she showered on me during the course of studies.

Lastly, I am thankful to the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi for the award of Senior Research Fellowship for carrying out this work.
