ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of God, the most merciful and beneficent who showed me the path of rightness and blessed me to work upon this task.

I am highly thankful to my supervisor Prof. A.P. Vijapur without whose efforts it wouldn’t have been possible for me to complete my work. I can’t express my deep obligation for the gentle, kind and encouraging supervision of Prof. A.P. Vijapur in the Department of Political Science. It has been my good luck to work under his supervision because in spite of his hectic schedule with a series of academic engagement, spared some of his valuable time for my work.

I wish to record my gratitude to Prof. M. Mahmood, Chairman of Department of Political Science for his interest in my research work, and for providing all the necessary facilities in the Department. I am equally grateful to other teachers of the Department who treated me affectionately and inspired me greatly.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to my brothers Sharique Rahman, Ariz Rahman and Tarique Rahman, sisters Sofia Rahman and Rubina Rahman, mother Jahan Ara Rahman, father Atiqur Rahman and my relatives for their whole hearted cooperation and encouragement.

I can’t restrict myself to give special thanks to my friend/brother Mohammad Imran, little so called sister Hena Kausar and uncle Mohd. Zakir
Hussain for their constant support and care which proved enormously helpful in completing this work.

I am proud to thank my friend Sahar, Anamika, Shazia Parveen and Adil Ghaznavi – all research scholars – for rendering me their help whenever I required.

I also take this opportunity to express my appreciation and thanks to various officials and staff of the Department of Political Science and Maulana Azad Library, particularly Mohd. Asaf Seminar Incharge for their full support and help in collection of relevant material for this work.

Lastly, my special thank to them who accomplished the job of printing and typing the manuscript on computer excellently.
