ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to thank “The ALMIGHTY ALLAH” for enabling me has the strength and the capacity to complete my thesis.

Special thanks and my greatest debts, however, is to my supervisor Dr. Manjeet Kaur, M.A., M.Phil, NET & Ph.D. the Associate Professor in Economics Department in Raghunath Girls (P.G.) College, Meerut to have generously given so much her valuable time and advice.

I am thankful to Dr. Seema Jain, Principal, R.G. (P.G.) College, Meerut for allowing me to research in Department of Economics and supporting me as a guardian.

I am also keenly thankful and obliged to all those respondents who helped and co-operated me to trace out the employed and self employed women in all three districts namely - Muzaffarnagar ( Block- Khatauli and Jansath), Meerut (Block- Sardhana and Daurala) and Aligarh ( Block- Dhanipur and Kair) six villages in each block ( 6 Blocks and 36 Villages respectively ).

I am also obliged to the librarians and staff members of various libraries such as R.G.( P.G.) College - Meerut, C.C.S. University- Meerut, Jamia Millia Islamia University-New Delhi, Delhi University- Delhi and ICSSR library- New Delhi.
I am gratefully acknowledged to the ICSSR, New Delhi for their valuable financial assistance under Doctoral Fellowship.

Finally, I owe my special gratitude to my parents Mr. Shums Javed Qazi and Mrs. Aaftab Javed Qazi who encouraged me to achieve the goal. I can never repay their co-operation and blessings. I would like to dedicate the heartiest and esteemed thanks to my Mummy for her eternal love and moral boosted support to me and the whole family. I am bound in gratitude to my Father for his unfailing love and untiring efforts; he stood with me in weal and woe. My a very special thanks to my younger sister Dr. Farheen Javed, M.A. (English) Ph.D., Assistant Professor in Roorkee Engineering and Management Technology Institute, Shamli, U.P. whose efforts in gathering all the necessary material and data to pursue my work. I also thank all other family members and friends who inspired me to pursue Ph.D.

I will amply be rewarded if my Thesis becomes the source of creating interest to study the economical standard of employed women in a new perspective.

May God help me!
