ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my Ph.D. supervisors, Dr. Ratul Saikia, Senior Scientist, Biotechnology Division, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat and Prof. Pratap Jyoti Handique, Department of Biotechnology, Gauhati University, Guwahati. They have been the major pillar of my professional life, transforming my interests into something concrete and fundamentally important in the field of my research by guiding me wisely through the rapids of exciting intellectual scientific exploration.

I pay my sincere thanks to Director, CSIR-NEIST for giving me the opportunity to work in the laboratory of international standard.

I am thankful to Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), New Delhi for financial support to carry out the research work under the AMAAS project.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. T.C. Bora, HoD, Biotechnology and Dr. B.G. Unni, Area Coordinator of Biological Sciences, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat, Assam for their inexhaustible helpful suggestions and encouragement.

My sincere gratefulness goes to Mr. Jibon Jyoti Mahanta, HRD Division, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat for his kind assistance during period of work. I also thankful to Medicinal, Aromatic & Economic Plants Division for providing me space in farm to conduct field experiment. I gratefully acknowledge Dr. A.R. Baruah, Assistant Professor, Department of Agricultural Biotechnology, Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat for his assistance in the preparation of the thesis.

I offer my sincere thanks to Dr. Bibek Jyoti Borah, Dr. Partha Pratim Saikia, Dr. Dipul Kalita and Dr. Padma Pallab Sarma for their kind help during the period of research work. I would like to thank Archana Yadav, Senior Technical Officer, and all of my research colleagues of Biotechnology Division, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat.

Completing my Ph.D. degree is probably the most challenging activity in my life. The best and worst moments of my journey have been shared with many people. It has been a great privilege to spend several years in the Biotechnology Division, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat, Assam and its members will always remain dear to me. I could not have embarked on this expedition and traveled this far without the passionate and continued support of my supervisors, colleagues, friends and family. My time at CSIR-NEIST was made enjoyable in large part for many of my unforgettable friends that became a part of my life. I am grateful for time spent with all of the boarders of CSIR-NEIST Boys Hostel.

My parents, elder sister and elder brother have certainly blessed my life with an environment in which I could freely pursue my dreams and have the courage to surmount higher mountains. They mean the world to me and this undertaking would not have been possible without their love. To my wife Muna for your love, devotion, encouragement and unstinting support.

Finally, I give glory and honor to Almighty God for his blessings, wisdom and guidance for enabling me to complete my thesis.
