ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis arose in part out of years of research that has been done since 2005. By this time, I have worked with a great number of people whose contributions to the research and the making of the thesis in assorted ways deserve special mention. Here, it is a pleasure to convey my gratitude and acknowledgement to them.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and praise to the almighty GOD, who had showered his grace in the form of knowledge and wisdom and every other way for completing this thesis.

I would like to record my gratitude to Dr. (Mrs). S. Kalavathy, M.Sc., Ph.D., Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli for her supervision, advice and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all, she provided me with the most needed unflinching encouragement and support in various ways. This exceptionally inspired and enriched my growth as a researcher.

Many thanks are due to the Management of Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli, for permitting me to carry out this study through this institution.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. M. Marcus Diepen Boominathan, M.Sc., M.Phil., PGDCSA., Ph.D., Principal Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli for his support and encouragement to carry out this study.

I would like to express my special gratitude to Associate Professor. Alagappa Moses, M.Sc., Head, Department of Environmental Sciences and Dr. C. Ravichandran, M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D., Associate Professor in Department of Environmental Sciences, Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli for having given me various suggestions and supports during my research.

Many thanks to my luminaries governess from Botany Department, Bishop Heber College, Tiruchirappalli, Dr. Samuel Christopher, M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D., Head, Dr. C. Sebastian Rajasekaran, M.Sc., B.Ed., M.Phil., Ph.D., and Mrs. Akkammal Joha, M.Sc., B.Ed., M.Phil., Associate Professors, Dr. Anand Gideon, M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D., Assistant Professor, who taught me the fundamentals of ecology, methods of data collection and data interpretation.

I am also indebted to Professor D. Prabakaran, M.Sc., M.Phil., Joint Controller of Examination, Bishop Heber College. I could never have embarked and started all of this, but for his teaching of the fundamental features of taxonomy, during my graduation.

I gratefully acknowledge Dr. Justus Joshua, M.Sc., Ph.D., Manager, Foundation for Ecological Security (FES) for his advice, field supervision and crucial contributions of funding, moral strength and steadfast support to my family, which made him a backbone to this research and so to this thesis. His involvements with his originality have triggered and promote my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come. I am grateful to him in every possible way. Availing this opportunity I would like to dedicate this thesis to Dr. Justus and his family for the valuable involvement in my life.

It is a pleasure to pay my tribute to Dr. A. Relton, M.A., Ph.D., Head, Department of Social Work, Bishop Heber College and Mrs. A. Daisy Carolin Mary, M.Sc., M.Phil., Assistant professor, Department of Environmental Sciences, Bishop Heber College for their encouragement, guidance and persistent support to me and to my family.

I would also place on record most sincerely, the advice and the willingness of Dr. S. F. Wesely Sunderraj, M.Sc., Ph.D., Senior Scientist, Gujarat Institute of Desert Ecology (GUIDE) to share his bright thoughts with me, which was very fruitful for shaping up my ideas, research, as well as the thesis.

Many thanks to Dr. V. Gokula, M.Sc., M. Phil., Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Zoology, National College, Tiruchirappalli but for whom the objectives, methodologies, the editing suggestions and precise sense of language of the final form of thesis is not possible. His decisive and energetic supports right from the beginning upto the write-up stage mainly cleared the paths in a solution - oriented way, towards completion of the thesis and Mr. K. Govindaraj, M.Sc., M.Phil., Associate Professor, P.G. and Research Department of Zoology for helping in designing the pictures and plates.

Where would I be without my family? My parents deserve a special mention who removed the load off my shoulders by their inseparable support, prayers, love, dedication and persistent confidence. (Late) Mr. T. Selvaraj, my father, in the first place is the person who laid the foundation for my learning, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. Mrs. S. Meenambal my mother, is the one who sincerely nurtured me with her care and deep love. Special thanks to S. Kanjana, J. Mahalakshmi, MS. Gopinanth and G. Jothi Mani my family members for being supportive and caring.
My special gratitude to Dr. (Miss) Himani K. P. Kala, Senior Project officer, Foundation for Ecological Security, Udaipur, Rajasthan for her support during the earlier stage of my research, especially teaching the local language, translating, documenting the reference materials and domicile support during my thesis writing.

I place on record, my special thanks to Dr. Pankaj N. Joshi, Junior Scientist, Gujarat Institute of Desert Ecology, Bhuj, Kachchh, for his priceless involvement in my research, in the earlier stages, mainly for helping me with the field methodology, plant identification techniques, field data collection and data analyses.

I am also indebted to the Foundation for Ecological Security (FES), Anand, Gujarat. Special thanks are due to Mr. Jagdeesh Rao, Executive Director, Mr. Dinesh Reddy, Deputy Director, Mr. Subrat Kumar Singh, Manager, for their encouragement during my thesis write up. My special thanks are due to Mr. Ravindranath for his help in the analysis of data in GIS and preparation of the final maps.

I am very grateful to the Gujarat Institute of Desert Ecology (GUIDE), Bhuj, Kachchh for the years spent with them and the developmental support, software and library facilities and synchronization during my field work.

Collective and Individual acknowledgments are also owed to my dear friends Mr. P. Ragunathan, Mr. Pravendra Singh Rawat, Mr. Vipul Saurav Khalkho, Mr. Anamol Haque, FES Udaipur - Spearhead team, FES Aravalli Cell and my PG classmates Mr. G. Sachithanandhan, Mrs. N. Bhuwaneswari, Mrs. J. Madhumathi, Mr. K. Mophin Kani, Mr. K. Babu, Mr. A.B. David Durai, and Mrs. N. Tamil Selvi.
I gratefully acknowledge Miss. K. Deepa Nair, and Miss. Jisha Kurien, for their indispensable help during the research period.

I acknowledge Miss. Jayalakshmi, Mr. A. Shanmugasundaram, Mr. T. Rakesh Sharma, Research Scholars, Bishop Heber College for the indispensable help in the form of official communications with the university and the course work and Mr. J. Ramkumar, Tiruchirappalli, for providing his internet facilities.

I convey my special gratitude to Dr. N. K Patel, Lecturer, Mr. R. Seliya Abbasbhai and Mr. N. Parmar Digvijay Research Scholars, Department of Biology, Sheth M. N. Science Collage, Paten, Gujarat. They assisted me during my literature survey in Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University sharing their reference resources.

I was benefited innumerably by the support of Mr. Manikandan, Mr. D. Sreenivasan, Mr. S. Mahalingam, Mr. R. Selvakumar, non-teaching staff Botany and Environmental Sciences departments, Bishop Heber College, who were invaluably involved in arranging the doctoral committees, synopsis presentation and other official meetings.

Furthermore, I would like to thank Dr. Saini, Soil Scientist, V. B. Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Badgaon, Udaipur for providing functional facilities during soil analysis, sharing his priceless research papers. I am thankful to Dr. Sathesh Kumar Sharma, Range Forest Officer (RFO), Udaipur, for sharing his wide field knowledge and helping in identifying plant species. Collectively, I express my special thank to Bordia and Dhingra family, Udaipur, for the obligatory lending hand at home, Further, I also thank Arjun Ameta, Sundar Lal Suthar and Rajender Singh for their voluntary aid and support during my thesis writing.
Last but not least, I thankfully remember the local help in Ambaji (Field station in NGR) and help from Mr. Ramesh Prajapati, Manager, Prajapati Bhavan, Mr. Ajay Singh, Mr. Bharat Singh and Mr. Shakti Singh of Adhya-Shakti Photo Studio, Ambaji, jeep diver Mr. Ramesh Thakur and his family members, but for whom this thesis would not have been completed successfully.

Many thanks to my field assistants Mr. Devabhai Vansia, Mr. Rajubhai Garsia, Mr. Kumbha, Mr. Wakta, Mr. Virma, Mr. Uma, Mr. Satish Prajapati and Mr. Vanaram Devasi. They supported me both the field work and at field station. Without their support the thesis would not have reached this stage. My deepest and sincere thanks to them.

Finally, I would like to apologize and thank those who were important for the successful realization of thesis, but have not been mentioned personally by name.

S. RAJENDRA KUMAR
