ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A research work whenever carried out by a Research Scholar requires help, co-operation and moral support from many people and Institution, whenever, the research scholar approaches for information, data and use their Institution for study and research. In this connection, I am lucky enough that I have been able to get help and co-operation from all whom I have approached for my research work.

At the very outset, I would like to express my deep sense of sincere gratitude to my research guide Dr. Narendra Nath Sharma, Retired Professor of the Library and Information Science, Gauhati University for his support, guidance and innovative suggestions during the course of this study. His encouragement and insightful comment throughout the period of my research work is a constant source of inspiration to me specially during the time of writing this thesis. Without his personal and professional involvement and constant encouragement I would not be able to complete this work and ultimately the thesis has taken a concrete shape. It is a great privilege to me to work under his supervision for which I shall ever remain grateful to him.

I express my gratefulness to Prof. Narendra Lakhar and Prof. Rajani Kanta Borman, Department of Library & Information Science, Gauhati University for their significant suggestions from time to time in different aspect of my study.

Dr. Bhrigu Ram Bharali, the Preservation Officer of Historical and Antiquarian studies, Panbazar, Guwahati is specially acknowledged for his help and co-operation in the compilation of data in the thesis. I also gratefully acknowledge the help of Shri Bhupen Goswamee, Librarian (in-charge) and Shri Sarat Bhuyan, Assistant Librarian, Krishna Kanta Handique Library of Gauhati University.

I also express my gratefulness to Dr. Nabajyoti Das, Librarian, Raja Bala Das Library of Handique Girls College for his help and co-operation in preparation of Bibliography and Reference.

I am also grateful to Shri Kishor Kalita, Assistant Librarian, Assam Legislative Assembly Library, who helps a lot in the final stage of making my thesis.

I am also grateful to my student now Librarian, IGNOU, Gauhati University Branch, MS Dipali Medhi who provides many data information relating to my dissertation.

I also express my deep sense of respect to my father Late Narapati Chandra Deka and my mother, Smti. Nirada Deka who brought me to this world and taught me first lesson of Education at home and all the time they encouraged me for acquiring higher education and to become a good citizen.

I shall be failure on my duty if I do not record my deep appreciation to my wife Ms Meghali Deka and my two sons Bitupan and Nibir who always encourage me and sometime force me to be more serious in the research work.
I express my special gratitude to my father in law late Rajendra Kumar Choudhury, Retired Director of Extension, Assam Agriculture University and mother in law Smti. Priti Choudhury, who always encourage me to complete the research work.

I would like to express my special sincere gratefulness to Shri Amitabh Choudhury (Apuda) and Dr. Madhurima Hazarika (Bau) who always encourage and sometime often enquire about the latest progress of my research work.

I would like to thank my brother Madhab (Dhan), Sankar (Kon) and sister in law Nina and Arpana for their moral support.

I am grateful to the Librarian and other staff of Parliament Library and State Legislature libraries of India which I visited during the course of my work.

Last but not the least, I express my thanks to Gauhati University for allowing me to take up this research work.

It is not possible to conduct a study with full perfection. Though I have made every effort and step for perfection of my research work, I am quite aware about my limitations. So I beg pardon for all my errors and omissions that may occur with or without my knowledge.
