ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This Researcher expresses her profound gratitude to mentor, philosopher and guide Dr. Sudhir Rashingkar. Without his able leadership earning the Ph.D. degree in management would have remained for me a dream only. He not only initiated me into this study but also guided me at every stage of my work. There were many moments of frustration when he encouraged me and inspired confidence in me. Without his valuable guidance, criticisms & suggestions this thesis would not have reached the current state.

The investigator’s deeply indebted to Dr. Rajan Dhamdhere, HOD, Faculty of Management, Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth Pune, for the smooth facilitation of this study with necessary administrative permissions.

I am thankful to the librarian of Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth, Pune & the librarian of British library Pune and the respective staff for their immense help to me in securing references. I am indebted to all personalities, members of SHGs. I have visited, for their kind co-operation & help. It has not been possible for me to mention their names individually here. However, their help in completing this study has been invaluable.

Last but not the least I thank my mother and my husband for spending his valuable time for helping me in pursuing my research.
