ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am ever grateful to many personalities, who have extended their expertise and experience which helped me a lot in the preparation of this thesis work.

My deep sense of respect and gratitude goes to Dr. R. Somasundaram M.D, President, Kandaswami Kandar’s Trust, Velur, Prof. Dr. R. Arul, Principal, Kandaswami Kandar’s College, Velur, Management and Staff of Kandaswami Kandar’s College, Velur for granting me an opportunity to do this research work and complete the thesis in a successful manner.

I am highly indebted to my research supervisor, Dr. G. Subramanian, M.Com., M.Phil., Ph.D., Reader in Commerce, P.G. and Research Department of Commerce, Kandaswami Kandar’s College, Velur–638 182, Namakkal District, Tamilnadu, India, under whose able guidance this study was carried out. His fluent, frank and frequent advice have got me on the right direction whenever and wherever I have deviated. I owe much for his labour and pains. Without his endeavour, sacrifice, constructive criticism and constant encouragement, this thesis would not have been completed so successfully in time.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. M. Karthikeyan, M.Com., M.Phil., Ph.D., Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Kandaswami Kandar’s College, Velur (Namakkal), for providing necessary facilities for the completion of the thesis and I express my deep sense of gratitude to all my Department colleagues for their support.
A special note of thanks is expressed to Mr. M. Murali and his colleagues at Ayaa Infostat Technologies, Erode, for their continuous assistance in providing me the technical details of this work and their patience during the countless revisions of the manuscript which enabled me to prepare the thesis.

I am really grateful to my parents, wife Smt.G.Thilagavathi, Son V.G.Hariprakash, Daughter V.G.Harshini and my friends who have encouraged me in completing this work.
