Acknowledgements
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I am extremely grateful to Dr. K. Nirmala, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Periyar University, Salem for her valuable encouragement throughout the course of this investigation.

I am deeply indebted to my supervisor, Dr. M.Balamurugan, Associate Professor, School of Education, Pondicherry University, Puducherry for his invaluable encouragement, guidance and support. In spite of his academic commitments, he devoted his precious time for my research work. His analytical approach and critical evaluation immensely helped me in successful completion of the thesis. I thank him most gratefully for all his patience and trouble he has taken.

My gratitude also goes to Dr.K.Subbammal, Dean, Department of Education, Vinayaka Mission University, Puducherry for her insightful comments and benevolent encouragement for the pursuit of the present study.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Mamota Das, Former Dean and Professor, School of Education, Pondicherry University, Puducherry for her valuable suggestions to do this study.

I am very much indebted to Prof. Dr. M.S.Lalithamma, Dean and Dr. Mumtaz Begum, Associate Professor, School of Education, Pondicherry University, Puducherry , Dr. Surendra K. Sia, Associate Professor, Department of Applied Psychology, Pondicherry University, Puducherry who have given much advice and guidance, especially for the establishment of the Methodology of this study.
I am very much thankful to Dr. K. Mohanasundaram, Principal, Government College of Education, Orathanadu, Thanjavur District for his valuable suggestions to complete the present study.

I express my gratitude to Dr. G. Lokanadha Reddy, Professor and Head, Department of Education and Human Resource Development, Dravidian University, Kuppam, Andhra Pradesh for having given me valuable suggestions in improving the present study.

I am very much grateful to Dr. R. Ravan, Associate Professor, Department of Statistics, Presidency College, Chennai for his valuable suggestions in the statistical process.

I also extend my gratitude to Mr. M. Vakkil, Assistant Professor, Dr. K. Nachimuthu, Assistant Professor, Dr. K. Prema Lakshmi, Guest Lecturer, all other Teaching Staff, Ph.D., M.Phil Research Scholars, M.Ed Students and Nonteaching Staff, Department of Education, Periyar University, Salem for providing all essential facilities and valuable suggestions to complete this study.

I am very much thankful to Dr. A. Jahitha Begum, Associate Professor and Head in charge, Department of Education, Gandhi Gram University, Dindigul for her valuable suggestions to complete the present study.

I am very much grateful to Dr. S. Kathiravan, Reader and Head in charge, Department of Psychology, Periyar University, Salem who inspired me to do my research work in the field of Education.

I profoundly express my gratitude to our Director, State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT), Tamil Nadu for having permitted me to undergo this Research work. I express my sincere gratitude to Joint Directors and Deputy Director of SCERT, Tamil Nadu, Principal, Former Principals, Teaching and Nonteaching Staff of DIET, Uthamacholapuram, Salem District for their great support.

I am very much thankful to Dr. R.Natarajan, Principal, District Institute of Education and Training, Krishnagiri for his co-operation to complete this present study.

I am ever thankful to Mr. S.Peter Anandh, Lecturer, District Institute of Education and Training, Salem for his co-operation and valuable suggestion to complete this present study.

I am very much thankful to Mr. D.Mohan, Lecturer, District Institute of Education and Training, Krishnagiri and Mrs. B.Ananthi, Lecturer, District Institute of Education and Training, Salem for their co-operation in completing this present study.

I am very much thankful to all the teachers who have participated and responded to complete this study. I also thank my family members, relatives, friends and former colleagues of DIET, Ranipet for their constant encouragement and support.

Last but not the least, I wish to record my profound indebtedness to all those who directly or indirectly involved to make this study a success.

(P.Govindaprakash)