I convey my profound gratefulness to my Internal Guide Dr. MP Singh, Professor, Faculty of Management, Graphic Era University, Dehradun, for his expert professional guidance at all times through this research study. I am indeed indebted to him for the valuable time spared by him.

This work could not have been conceptualized without the support of my External Guide Dr. Atul Dhyani, Associate Professor, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies, HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar (G). He laid down the foundation of this work by giving me the critical inputs at critical junctures as also the direction and approach for my study.

I also express my sincere thanks to all the shoppers/ customers covered in the study for the necessary data inputs to the best of their capacities in spite of their being busy with shopping and purchases.

I would also like to acknowledge the information collected during the course of the study from Indian Council of Social Science and Research (ICSSR) New Delhi, Ratan Tata Library, Delhi and Management Development Institute, Gurgoan.

I also acknowledge with thanks the support and encouragement I got from Prof. Kamal Ghansala, President, GEU to pursue the present study. I am indebted to Prof. KP Nautiyal, Chancellor, GEU for his blessings and persistent direction to help me complete this arduous task.

The present study would not have found the light of the day had I not got illustrious knowledge and leanings from my teachers. Dr. Alok Saklani, Director, Apeejay School of Management, Delhi; Prof. SP Kala, Head, Department of Business Management, HNB Garhwal University; and Dr K.N. Badhani, MDI, Gurgoan. They have had a profound impact in shaping my academic and research interests and in carrying out the present study to its meaningful culmination.

I also acknowledge with thanks the support provided to me by my friends and colleagues from academics and industry. My colleagues at GEU, Dr. Arvind Mohan and Dr. (Mrs) Sameeksha Uniyal ardently supported me in compiling and proof reading the manuscript. My former colleagues Prof. Anuj Verma, Era Business School, Delhi and Dr. (Mrs) Sujeeta Khemka, Sr. Manager Hero Honda, Delhi helped me in collecting and compiling data. Dr. Ashish Uniyal assisted me in logistics and carrying out the research. Mr. Narendra Kharola, Librarian at FoM, GEU was helpful in providing readings and literature for the study.

Lastly and most importantly, I would like to express my gratefulness to my father who continued to pep me up at my difficult moments and encouraged me at all the times to complete the study. He has been the prime movers of this effort. My younger brother's keenness in seeing me finish this job played a very important role in the successful completion of the study.
