ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to place on record my everlasting gratitudes to my supervisor Dr. M.B. Mathur for his encouragement, cooperation and the benefits he bestowed on me from his knowledge that helped me in the understanding and analysis of various problems involved in this study, without which this study would not have reached to this accomplishment.

I am grateful to Professor Noor Mohammad, Chairman, Department of Sociology, A.M.U., Aligarh, for his help, support and general guidance. My particular thanks are due to Dr. S.B. Ahmad, Dr. Jamal Siddiqui, Mr. Abdul Waheed and Mr. P.K. Mathur. I express thanks in particular to Dr. A. Matin for his cooperation. The staff of Maulana Azad Library have been very helpful in providing the reference materials. I take it as an opportunity to thank Professor N.H. Khan, Librarian, Maulana Azad Library for providing timely help.

I am deeply thankful to Mr. Muneer Uddin and Babar Mirza for typing the manuscript. My gratitudes are also due to all my friends and colleagues, Mr. Mujeebur Rehman, Firoz Alam Khan, Mr. Mohd. Qaiser, Mr. N.H. Khan, Dr. Tauheed Khan, Mr. Husamuddin Khan, Mr. Khurshid Ali, Mr. S.S. Ashraf and Miss Padma for their valuable assistances at various stages in the preparation of this thesis. This research work could not have been completed without the help and cooperation of the respondents of Kusauri and Basti. I am extremely grateful to them for their cooperation.

Lastly, I would like to express my sense of gratitude to my brothers Firoz A. Khan, Afroz A. Khan and sisters Rehana Khan, Hazra Khan, Zahida Khan and Syeda Khan for their invaluable emotional and moral support. I am highly obliged to my brother-in-laws to Dr. Masood Ahmad (Ex. Education Minister, U.P. Government), Mr. Shakeel Ahmad and Mr Amirullah Khan, who very constantly inquired about the progress of my work as well as my wellbeing. I wish to offer my profound gratitude to my loving parents for their affection, spiritual blessings, moral support, encouragement, inspiration and financial support without which the completion of this thesis would not have been possible.

FAREED AHMAD KHAN
