ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present research work for the award of Doctor of Philosophy degree in Social Work is a saga of enriching experiences for me. The insight gained during the ‘discourses’ with Professor Noor Mohammad, my supervisor and mentor, cannot be expressed in words but I can feel its aesthetic beauty. Nor do I have courage and words to express my gratitude and indebtedness to him. I can only look for his enabling role in future as well.

I am personally beholden to Professor M. Jamal Siddiqui, Chairman, Department of Sociology and Social Work, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for his all time kindness to me. I still have refreshing memories of his art of teaching and empathetic approach towards students.

A great many academicians and field practitioners have been kind enough to motivate and mobilise me to pursue this research. I am fortunate to come in touch with them during my brief tenure as Lecturer in Social Work at Department of Sociology and Social Work, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. I put on records my sincere thanks to Dr. Abdul Waheed, Dr. Nemat Ali Khan, Dr. (Mrs.) Shireen Sadiq, Dr. Mohammad Tahir, Dr. Md. Kalimullah, Dr. M.Z. Nomani and Dr. Mohd. Akram. Outside university, I am highly thankful to Dr. Annie Mathew and Dr. P. Swarup.

I shall always be grateful to my worthy friends Mr. Farrukh Faheem, Mr. Gayendra Mishra, Mr. Lalit Upadhyay, Mr. Yogendra Singh, Mr. Avnish Kumar Chauhan Mr. Ahmad Shavez, Mr. Kasim, Ms. Shyna Saif, Ms. Shazia Manzoor, Mr. Aftab Alam, Mr. Shahid Raza and Mr. Ashraf Parvez. I am privileged to have their ever-lasting concern for me, the acknowledgement of which is beyond my vocabulary. Beyond doubts the impetus and strength to research work came with thoughtful inputs from Ms. Qurratul Aein Ali and Ms. Shaizy Ahmad especially during the fieldwork. I acknowledge their catalysing role to carry on fieldwork during the tough winters of Aligarh. They proved to be my true students.

I do not have hesitation in saying that this work would not have come up without the humble support and continuous encouragement of my former social work students and friends. Their names, contributions and my concerns for them are too much to lettered honestly. Specific mention must be made of Shafeeq Azmi, Shah Faisal, Abdul Aleem, Aminul Husain, Sufia, Afzal, Mahmood, Mohammad Ahmad, Raghib, Rubab, Tarrannum, Fuzail, Javed, Husain and Tasleem.

I acknowledge the support and help of Dr. Mohammad Nadeem Noor and my relations with him do not permit to say anymore. I am fortunate that during my better and bitter days in Aligarh there are people to bless me. Notable among those are Dr. Ayanat Husain (bhaiya) and his wife Dr. Huma Firdaus (bhabi); Er. Mohammad Zafar (bhai) and his family also deserve special mention for the same. In the same stream, I appreciate the ever concerns of Dr. Nelofar (baji) and Dr. Muzaffar (bhai).

I own for what I am to my teachers and tutors at my native place. I cannot and should not thanks but only remember the love and affection of my family. The valued and strict nurturing of my father and mother has made me bold and confident enough to face tough weathers and be offensive enough to convert threats into opportunities and at the same time humane enough to be in social work profession. I refresh my strong affections to my caring sisters and courageous brothers. Lastly, but most importantly, I should mention the ‘elderly’ role-played by my younger brothers Sajid and Sabir to sweetly pressurise me for early completion of the thesis. Raja continued with his usual shaitani but is intelligent enough to provide computer tips. I am pleased to appreciate the humbleness of my brotherly Danish Iqbal. Faizan and Hannan deserve special mention for parting days with their computer for me. Before ending my bouquet of love and blessings to Irfan, Wahida, Bulbul, Golu, Sayma, Fayza and Fayka.
