It is immensely pleasurable moment to have an opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my learned teacher and supervisor Dr. S. Sultan Akhtar, Professor of Psychology, and President, Indian Academy of Applied Psychology (IAAP), who encouraged me for undertaking the study in the area of Organizational Behaviour. He inspite of his preoccupations in academic schedules and administrative responsibilities spared time in solving the difficulties and suggesting directions conducive to the present endeavour. Much of what I learned from him will remain with me.

I would like to record my appreciation and gratefulness to Prof. (Mrs.) Hamida Ahmad, Chairperson, Department of Psychology, A.M.U., who reviewed all the chapters and offered her thoughtful comments which greatly helped me in improving the manuscript. She has always been a source of encouragement and help for me.

I would also like to record my debt to my teachers Prof. Qamar Hassan and Dr. Shamim Ahmad Ansari (Reader) for their specific suggestions and valuable contributions.
