ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words fail me to express my sincere gratitude to my teacher and Supervisor, Prof. S. Sultan Akhtar, Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, who has immensely helped me in carrying out the research. Without his guidance and efforts the thesis would not have seen the light of the day.

I feel indebted to Prof. (Mrs) Hamida Ahmad, Chair-Person, Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for her love and affection and her keen interest in my work.

I am thankful to Mrs Roohi Mushfiq, Counsellor, Career Planning Centre, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for helping me in collection of data.

Dr. (Mrs) Musaddiq Jahan, Counsellor, Career Planning Centre, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, was kind enough to read the manuscript and make meaningful changes. I am obliged to her for her sincere efforts.

Mr. Ashfaq Ahmad, CCAE Controller Office, deserves special thanks for the help rendered by him in analysis of the data.

I also wish to thank my friend, Mrs Annamma Varghese, P.A. to Director, Career Planning Centre, AMU, Aligarh, for her active cooperation and initial typing of the manuscript.
I am also thankful to Miss Shamsheer Kausar, Semi-Professional, Career Planning Centre, AMU, Aligarh, for making available books and Journals.

Mr. Mohd. Riaz Khan, was kind enough to type the manuscript with great care.

The teachers and students of Women's College, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, extended their full support in data collection and they deserve special thanks.

I owe a lot to my parents for their psychological support and financial assistance which helped me a great: deal in my venture. Similarly, my brothers, Mr. Shailender Sharma & Mr. Manoj Sharma, were always ready and willing to render helping hand to me.
