Acknowledgement

All words are insufficient to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Taufiq A. Nizami, Director, Centre for Nehru Studies, Department of Political Science, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, who encouraged me to undertake this study, supervised the work, guided and helped me at every stage, from the initial planning of research to final drafting. I feel deeply indebted to him for awarding me research fellowship during my Ph.D. course.

I gratefully acknowledge the encouragement and support provided during the course of research by Prof. M. Murtaza Khan, Chairman, Department of Political Science, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh.

I am thankful to my teachers, Prof. M. A. Kishore, Prof. Iqbal Khanam and Dr. Farhana Kausar for their encouragement and advice whenever sought for.

To my family, I ever remain thankful for their unfailing support and ever being there where I needed them most, my mother who always pray for my success is a great force behind me. It is difficult to find words to appreciate Kausar for that unconditional support and encouragement he always backed me with.

I owe my sincere thanks to my colleagues Mrs. Hina Mirza, Mrs. Sadiqua Rizvi and Mr. Mahtab for their help and interest they showed in the completion of this work.

I can not overlook the appreciable facilities and help extended by the staff members of Maulana Azad Library, A.M.U. Centre for West Asian Studies, A. M. U. Seminar library of the Department of Political Science, A. M. U. and Teen Murti Museum Library, New Delhi.

Last but not least I sincerely acknowledge the support of non-teaching staff specially Mr. Qamaruddin, Mr. Fakhruzzaman and Mr. Sulaiman of the Department of Political Science, A. M. U. Aligarh.

Shabana Sultan
(Shabana Sultan)