

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis entitled “Globalisation and Public Administration in Third World: A study with special reference to India and Kuwait”, though a result of my own effort however a subject of such a complicated nature could not have been addressed without the intellectual insights and academic cooperation of my supervisor, Prof Mohd. Murtaza Khan, an accomplished academician and expert in the field of public administration. Therefore, I owe a great deal of my gratitude to Dr. Murtaza Khan.

My thanks are also due to the library staff at Maulana Azad Library Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, Dr Zakir Husain Library, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi and Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi. My thanks are also due my colleagues at the Embassy of State of Kuwait in New Delhi who also helped in many ways in finalizing this draft.

I am grateful to each and every dear member of my family whose help, advise, guidance and assistance involved in completing this thesis, and I am dedicating this thesis to the memory of my brother Rajah.
