ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of the thesis and whatever merit it has, reflected in large measure the patient and constructive direction and guidance of my supervisor, Prof. A.F. Usmani, Chairman, Department of Political Science, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. He gradually brought me to standard of efficiency in research work by valuable instructions, which has first culminated in my M.Phil on "U.S. Relations with Chile and Argentina (1970-75)." It is inevitable for me to record my gratefulness to him.

I deeply appreciate the interest taken by Prof. S.A.H. Haqqi, former Chairman in the Department of Political Science, AMU; Prof. Bilgrami, former Chairman, Prof. A.P. Sharma, Prof. Hasan Ahmad, Prof. A.S. Beg, Dr. Jafri, and Dr. Subrahmanyam of the same department, in my research work. Their valuable suggestions have helped me a great deal in developing the present study. They always showed interest in my academic achievement, and encouraged and inspired me throughout.

I am deeply beholden to record my sincerest thanks to Prof. S. Bhaskaran, former Head, Department of Political Science, Annamalai University, Tamil Nadu, for enabling me to develop views on the subject and for his critical insights and stimulations. I met him first when his department organised the All India U.G.C. Summer Institute in Research Methodology in Political Science in 1983, which I attended.

I would especially like to thank Miss Manon Tjelios, Research scholar at the University of Montreal, Canada; Miss Julie Walker of England; and Miss Susan Borchert of West Germany, who provided me Newspaper-cuttings and other valuable informations regarding Central America. I greatly value the help rendered by my friends Dr. Wasim Ahmad and Dr. Mohd Gulrez, both lecturer in the Department of Political Science, A.M.U., at different stages of the completion of this work. I also received a great deal of encouragement from my friends, Mr. Rajesh Patel and Mr. Mohd Parvez. I, with keenest regret wish to record here the untimely death of my close friend Mr. Naval Kant whose assistance and advice were of great value.

I am indebted to the Director of American Centre Library, New Delhi, Hyderabad as well, U.S.S.R. Information Centre, New Delhi; the Librarians of the Sapru House and the J.N.U., for the facilities provided by them to me at their respective libraries. My thanks are also to the staff of these libraries for providing me timely help about the accessibility to the research material therein.

I am sincerely obliged to Mr. Om Prakash Sharma for performing the typing work of the thesis in time.
I would also like to express my deep personal gratitude to my father Dr. Raghuvir Shastri, D. Litt, and mother Mrs. Kamla Rani, M.A., Younger brothers Capt. Sanjiv Kumar, Ajay Kumar and Dharma sister Miss Tanveer Jahan for their love, intellectual stimulation, encouragement and faith. Finally, no words can express my appreciation of the co-operation and encouragement I have received from my wife Rashmi in this connection.
